

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

Chap. 47 AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE TOWN OF SPENCER TO MAKE TAKINGS AND INCUR INDEBTEDNESS FOR THE PURPOSE OF RECONSTRUCTING AND RELAYING WATER MAINS.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

Town of Spencer may take lands, etc., for constructing water mains.

SECTION 1. The town of Spencer, for the purpose of reconstructing and relaying its water mains and for acquiring easements, or rights of way, is hereby authorized to take or acquire by purchase or otherwise, such land or rights therein in the towns of Leicester and Spencer as may be necessary for that purpose; and may construct, lay out and maintain pipes or conduits across such lands for the purpose of conducting water from Shaw pond, the present source of supply, to the village of Spencer: provided, however, that no pipes or conduits shall be laid in any public way in the town of Leicester, without the consent of the selectmen of the town.

Proviso.

Description of lands, etc., to be recorded.

SECTION 2. The town of Spencer shall within ninety days after the taking of any lands, rights of way or easements, as aforesaid, file and cause to be recorded in the registry of deeds for the Worcester district of the county of Worcester, a description thereof sufficiently accurate for identification, with a statement of the purpose for which the same were taken, signed by the selectmen.

SECTION 3. The town of Spencer shall pay all damages to property sustained by any person or corporation by the taking of any land, rights of way or easements, or by any other thing done by said town under authority of this act. Any person or corporation sustaining damages under this act, and failing to agree with said town as to the amount thereof, may have the same determined in the manner provided by law in the case of land taken for the laying out of highways, on application at any time within the period of two years after the taking of such land, rights of way or easements or the doing of other injury under the authority of this act; but no application shall be made after the expiration of the said two years.

how paid, etc.

SECTION 4. The town of Spencer, for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act, is hereby authorized to borrow outside the statutory limit of indebtedness, a sum not exceeding seventy-five thousand dollars, and to issue from time to time bonds or notes of the town therefor. Such bonds or notes shall be denominated on the face thereof, Spencer Water Loan, Act of 1917, shall be signed by the treasurer and countersigned by a majority of the selectmen, shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding five per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, shall be payable by such annual payments, beginning not more than one year after the date thereof, as will extinguish each loan within thirty years from its date, and the amount of such annual payment in any year shall not be less than the amount of the principal of the loan payable in any subsequent year. Each authorized issue of bonds or notes shall constitute a separate loan. The town may sell the said securities at public or private sale upon such terms and conditions as it may deem proper, but not for less than their par value, and the proceeds, except premiums, shall be used only for the purposes herein specified.

Spencer Water Loan, Act of 1917.

SECTION 5. The town shall, at the time of authorizing said loan or loans, provide for the payment thereof in accordance with section four of this act, and when a vote to that effect has been passed, a sum, which with the income derived from water rates, will be sufficient to pay the annual operating expenses of the water works and the interest as it accrues on the bonds or notes issued as aforesaid, and to make such payments on the principal as may be required, shall, annually thereafter, without further vote, be assessed by the assessors of the town in the same manner as other

AN ACT RELATIVE TO THE ALEWIFE FISHERY IN HERRING OR MONUMENT RIVER IN THE TOWN OF BOURNE. Chap. 88

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one of chapter one hundred and ninety-four of the acts of the year eighteen hundred and ninety-nine is hereby amended by inserting after the word "river", in the fourth line, the words: — or any of its tributaries, whether natural or artificial, — so as to read as follows: — Section 1. The selectmen of the town of Bourne are hereby empowered to prescribe the time, place or places, and manner of taking alewives in Herring or Monument river, or any of its tributaries, whether natural or artificial, in the town of Bourne: provided, that such time shall not exceed on the average throughout the fishing season four days in the week; and they may either appoint some suitable person or persons to take the same, under such regulations as they may make in accordance herewith, and fix the compensation to be paid therefor; or they may, if so instructed by the inhabitants of said town at the annual town meeting, sell at public auction the right to take alewives in said river under regulations made as aforesaid; provided, however, that no fish shall be salted in any fish-catching house or on the grounds adjoining the same, and provided, also, that the inhabitants of the town of Sandwich shall have the same rights in the public fishery of said river that the inhabitants of the town of Bourne shall have. The inhabitants of said town of Bourne are authorized to construct and maintain in the waters of the Great Herring pond, so-called, or elsewhere in said town, a weir, trap, yard or pound for the catching and holding of alewives, in the manner customary in such fishery, of such dimensions and construction as the selectmen, with the approval of the board of harbor and land commissioners, may from time to time determine.

1899, 194, § 1, amended.

Alewife fishing in Herring or Monument river regulated.

Proviso.

Selectmen may pay rewards for violations of act, etc.

Said selectmen are hereby authorized to offer and pay suitable rewards for the detection and punishment of persons violating the provisions of this act, and they shall be entitled to reimbursement from the town of Bourne, or from the proceeds of the sale of said right to take alewives, for all sums expended or obligations incurred for the said rewards, or for the enforcement of this act; and the town of Bourne is hereby authorized to raise and appropriate money for the purposes of this act and for the protection of any public fishery in said town.

amended.

SECTION 2. Section four of said chapter one hundred and ninety-four is hereby amended by inserting after the word "river", in the second line, the words: — or any of its tributaries whether natural or artificial, — and also by inserting after the word "aforesaid", in the sixth line, the words: — or at any time in the waters within the location of the Boston, Cape Cod and New York Canal Company, — so as to read as follows: — Section 4. Any person taking any alewives in said river, or any of its tributaries whether natural or artificial, or in any water of the same, whether naturally or artificially contained, or in the ponds in which said fish cast their spawn, at any time or in any place or manner other than shall have been fixed by said selectmen as aforesaid, or at any time in the waters within the location of the Boston, Cape Cod and New York Canal Company, or shall receive such alewives knowing or having reasonable cause to believe that the same were taken contrary to the provisions of this act, shall for each offence pay a fine of not less than five nor more than twenty dollars, or shall be imprisoned in the jail or house of correction for a period not exceeding sixty days, or shall be punished by both such fine and imprisonment. Possession of alewives in the woods, swamps or other lands, whether public or otherwise, in the town of Bourne bordering on the said Herring or Monument river or its tributaries, or in the buildings over or near said river or its tributaries in said town, or in any craft or vehicle in or near said river or its tributaries, or the pond in which said fish cast their spawn, in the town of Bourne, by any person or persons, other than those lawfully entitled to take the same under the regulations provided for in this act, shall be deemed prima facie evidence of a taking or receiving contrary to the provisions of this act.

AN ACT RELATIVE TO THE CHARTER OF THE CITY OF ATTLEBORO. Chap. 141

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. Section six of chapter six hundred and eighty of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and fourteen is hereby amended by inserting after the word "election", in the fourteenth line, the words: — and until their successors are elected and qualified, — so as to read as follows: —

Section 5. At the municipal election following the acceptance of this act the qualified voters shall in the several wards give in their votes by ballot for mayor, city clerk, city treasurer, city collector, councilmen at large, councilmen by wards, one assessor and three members of the school committee. The mayor and councilmen by wards, city clerk, city collector, and city treasurer shall hold office for terms of two years from the first Tuesday of January following said election and until their successors are elected and qualified. The councilmen at large first elected shall hold office for terms of one year from the first Tuesday of January following said election, and those elected at subsequent municipal elections shall hold office for terms of two years from the first Tuesday of January following their election and until their successors are elected and qualified. One assessor shall be elected at said first municipal election, who shall hold office for a term of three years from the first Tuesday of January following his election, and who shall succeed that member of the board of assessors holding office in the town of Attleborough at the time of the passage of this act whose term expires during the year nineteen hundred and fifteen. At the second municipal election one assessor shall be elected who shall hold office for a term of three years from the first Tuesday of January following his election, and who shall succeed that member of the board of assessors of the said town holding office at the time of the passage of this act whose term expires during the year nineteen hundred and sixteen. At the third municipal election one assessor shall be elected who shall hold office for a term of three years from the first Tuesday of January following his election, and who shall succeed that member of the board of assessors of the said town holding office at the time of the passage of this act. Thereafter, at each subsequent municipal election, one assessor shall be elected who shall hold office for a term of three years from the first Tuesday of January following his election.

School committee, how elected.

Three members of the school committee shall be elected at said first municipal election, who shall hold office for a term of three years from the first Tuesday of January following their election and who shall succeed those members of the school committee holding office in the said town at the time of the passage of this act whose terms expire during the year nineteen hundred and fifteen. Thereafter, at each subsequent municipal election, three members of the school committee shall be elected in accordance with the foregoing provisions for the election and succession of assessors.

Persons elected, how determined.

The person receiving the highest number of votes for any office shall be deemed and declared to be elected to such office; and whenever two or more persons are to be elected to the same office, the several persons, up to the number required to be chosen, receiving the highest number of votes shall be deemed and declared to be elected.

Vacancies, how filled.

At every annual municipal election after said first municipal election, there shall be elected officers to fill vacancies and to succeed those whose terms will expire upon the first Tuesday of January following.

SECTION 2. Section eleven of said chapter six hundred and eighty is hereby amended by striking out the word "Monday", in the eighth line, and inserting in place thereof the word: — Tuesday, — so as to read as follows: — Section 11. The mayor, city clerk, city treasurer, city collector and councilmen elect, shall, on the first Tuesday of January of the year of the beginning of their terms of office, meet and be sworn to the faithful discharge of their duties. The oath shall be administered by a justice of the peace and shall be certified and entered on the journal of the municipal council. In case the mayor elect is absent on the first Tuesday in January, or if a mayor shall not then have been elected, the oath of office may at any time thereafter be administered to him; and at any time thereafter in like manner the oath of office may be administered to any other elected officer who has been previously absent or has subsequently been elected; and every such oath shall be certified and entered as aforesaid.

Oath of office, when and by whom administered, etc.

To be submitted to city council, etc.

Sewerage Loan,

sum not exceeding two hundred thousand dollars in addition to the amount authorized by said chapter, and to issue bonds or notes of the town therefor. Such bonds or notes shall be denominated on their face, Mansfield Sewerage Loan, Act of 1917; shall be signed by the treasurer and countersigned by a majority of the selectmen of the town; shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding five per cent per annum payable semi-annually; shall be payable by such annual payments beginning not more than one year after the date thereof as will extinguish each loan within thirty years from its date, and the amount of the annual payments on the principal of any loan in any year shall not be less than the amount of the principal of the loan payable in any subsequent year. Each authorized issue of bonds or notes shall constitute a separate loan. The town may from time to time sell such securities at public or private sale upon such terms and conditions as it may deem proper, but not for less than their par value, and the proceeds, except premiums, shall be used only for the purposes herein specified.

Payment of
loan.

SECTION 2. The town shall, at the time of authorizing said loan or loans provide for the payment thereof by such annual payments as will extinguish the same in accordance with the provisions of section one of this act; and when a vote to that effect has been passed, the amount required thereby, less the amount that may be appropriated from receipts from sewer assessments and payments in lieu thereof, shall without further vote be assessed by the assessors of the town each year in the same manner as other taxes until the debt incurred by said loan or loans is extinguished.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

Approved March 1, 1917.

Chap.153 AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE CITY OF CAMBRIDGE TO PAY A PENSION TO WILLARD H. POOLE.

City of Cambridge may pay a pension to Willard H.
Poole.

SECTION 1. The city of Cambridge is hereby authorized to place upon the pension roll of the city as a call man with a call man's pay, the name of Willard H. Poole, a former member of the fire department of the city, who was incapacitated by an injury suffered in the course of his duties on March twenty-second in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-two. His pension shall be paid monthly and shall not exceed five hundred dollars a year.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon its acceptance by the city council of the city of Cambridge, with the approval of the mayor. Approved March 1, 1917.

To be submitted to city council.

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE REINSTATEMENT OF THOMAS F. TARPEY BY THE CITY OF BOSTON. Chap.154

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

The commissioner of public works of the city of Boston, with the approval of the mayor, is hereby authorized at any time prior to the first day of January, nineteen hundred and eighteen, to reinstate Thomas F. Tarpey as an employee of the department of public works. Approved March 1, 1917.

City of Boston may reinstate Thomas F. Tarpey.

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE REINSTATEMENT OF MICHAEL CASEY BY THE CITY OF BOSTON. Chap.155

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

The commissioner of public works of the city of Boston, with the approval of the mayor, is hereby authorized at any time prior to the first day of January, nineteen hundred and eighteen, to reinstate Michael Casey as an employee in the department of public works. Approved March 1, 1917.

[1822, 11.]

AN ACT RELATIVE TO THE DISPOSITION OF THE INCOME OF THE AGAWAM CONGREGATIONAL FUND. Chap.156

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

Section two of chapter eleven of the acts of the year eighteen hundred and twenty-two is hereby amended by striking out the words "so that the annual income of said fund shall not exceed eight hundred dollars", in the eleventh and twelfth lines, and by inserting after the word "parish", in the twentieth line, the words: — and for the support of music in the church of said parish, — so as to read as follows: — Sec. 2. Be it further enacted, That the said Trustees shall have power to take and receive into their hands and possession, all such sums of money, or the securities therefor, as have been paid or secured to be paid, by any of the inhabitants of the Second Parish in West Springfield, towards the support and maintenance of a Congregational Minister in said parish; and may receive and hold such further subscriptions, donations, grants, bequests and devises as may

City of Salem Bridge Street
Loan,
Act of 1917.

SECTION 2. Said chapter seven hundred and three is hereby further amended by striking out section eight and inserting in place thereof the following: — Section 8. The city, for the purpose of paying any expenses or liability incurred by it under this act and for the purpose of paying any notes which have already, or may hereafter be issued by the city in payment of expenses incurred hereunder, may issue from time to time bonds or notes to such an amount as may be required not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars. Such bonds or notes shall bear on their face the words, City of Salem Bridge Street Loan, Act of 1917, shall be payable by such annual payments, beginning not more than one year after the date thereof, as will extinguish each loan within ten years from its date; and the amount of such annual payment in any year shall not be less than the amount of the principal of the loan payable in any subsequent year. Each authorized issue of bonds or notes shall constitute a separate loan. The said securities shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding four and one half per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, and shall be signed by the treasurer of the city and countersigned by the mayor. The city may sell the said securities at public or private sale, upon such terms and conditions as it may deem proper, but not for less than their par value, and the proceeds shall be used only for the purpose herein specified.

Certain
authority

Chap. 159 AN ACT RELATIVE TO PRIMARY ELECTIONS IN THE CITY OF MALDEN.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

1912, 314, § 12,
etc., amended.

Section twelve of chapter three hundred and fourteen of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and twelve, as amended by section two of chapter three hundred and eighty-seven of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and thirteen, is hereby further amended by adding at the end thereof the following: — provided, however, that if at the expiration of the time for filing statements of candidates to be voted for at any city primary election not more than twice as many such statements have been filed with the city clerk for the office of mayor or school committee as there are persons to be elected to said offices respectively, then the candidates whose statements have thus been filed shall be deemed to have been nominated for said offices respectively, and their names shall be used at such annual or special city election, and the city clerk shall not print said names upon the ballot to be used at said primary election, and no other nomination or nominations for said offices shall be made. And if in any ward at the expiration of the time for filing statements of candidates to be voted for at any city primary election not more than twice as many such statements have been filed with the city clerk for the offices of alderman or councilman as there are persons to be elected to said offices respectively, then the candidates whose statements have thus been filed shall be deemed to have been nominated for said offices respectively, and their names shall be printed on the official ballot to be used at such annual or special city election, and the city clerk shall not print said names upon the ballot to be used at said primary election, and no other nominations for said offices shall be made. And if it shall appear that no names are to be printed upon the official ballot to be used at any city primary election in any ward or wards of the city, then no primary election shall be held in any such ward or wards, — so as to read as follows:—Section 12. The two persons receiving at a city primary election the highest number of votes for nomination for an office shall be the candidates and the only candidates for that office whose names shall be printed on the official ballots to be used at the annual or special city election for the making of nominations for which said city primary election was held, and if two or more persons are to be elected to the same office at such annual or special city election the several persons to a number equal to twice the number so to be elected receiving at such city primary election the highest number of votes for nomination for that office, or all such persons, if less than twice the number of those so to be elected, shall be the candidates and the only candidates for that office whose names shall be printed on the official ballots to be used at the annual or special city election.

AN ACT RELATIVE TO PREFERENTIAL VOTING AT CITY ELECTIONS IN NEWTON. Chap. 166

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. Section four of chapter two hundred and sixty-one of the Special Acts of the year nineteen hundred and sixteen is hereby amended by inserting after the word "express", in the fifteenth line, the words:— provided, however, that when there are but three candidates for any office, the ballot shall provide columns for first and second choice only for that office, and where there are fewer than three candidates for any office, all columns but one and all reference to choice for that office may be omitted, — so as to read as follows:— Section 4. The ballots shall be in substantially the following form:— At the top of each group of candidates for an office shall be stated the number to be elected to that office. In the heading of the first column for every such group shall appear the words "First Choice" and, if the number to be elected to that office is more than one, the words "First Choices." In the heading of the second column for every such group shall in like manner appear the words "Second Choice" or "Second Choices." After the word "Choice" or "Choices" in the heading of the first and second columns for every such group shall appear the words "Not more than (here insert the number to be elected from that group)." In the heading of the third column for every such group shall appear the words "Other Choices, as many as you wish to express": provided, however, that when there are but three candidates for any office, the ballot shall provide columns for first and second choice only for that office, and where there are fewer than three candidates for any office, all columns but one and all reference to choice for that office may be omitted.

any one candidate in more than one column, as only one choice will count for any one candidate by this ballot. (And if only one candidate is to be elected to an office:) Vote your first choice in the first column; vote your second choice in the second column; vote in the third column for all the other candidates whom you wish to support. Vote only one first choice and only one second choice. (But if two or more candidates are to be elected to an office:) Vote your first choices in the first column; vote your second choices in the second column; vote in the third column for all the other candidates whom you wish to support. Vote not more than two first choices and not more than two second choices (substituting for the word "two" a number equal to the actual number of candidates to be elected to the office in question in case more than two are to be elected).

§ 5, amended.

SECTION 2. Section five of said chapter two hundred and sixty-one is hereby amended by inserting after the word "column", in the twenty-fourth line, the words:— If a choice is expressed after the name of but one candidate for a given office, that choice shall be counted as a first choice for such candidate, regardless of the column in which it is marked, — so as to read as follows:— Section 5. As soon as the polls are closed, the precinct officers shall immediately open the ballot boxes, take therefrom and count the ballots in open view, and enter the total number thereof on the tally sheet provided therefor by the city clerk. They shall also count and enter on said tally sheet the number of the first-choice, second-choice and other-choice votes for each candidate and make return thereof to the city clerk as provided by law.

ballots.

If upon any ballot more candidates are voted for in the first-choice column for any one office than there are candidates to be elected to said office, but not more than twice that number, all of such votes in the first-choice column shall be counted as votes expressing second choice for such candidates, and all votes in the second-choice column of the ballot in question for that office shall be counted as if marked in the third column.

If upon any one ballot candidates are voted for in the first-choice column for any one office exceeding in number twice the number of candidates to be elected to that office, all votes upon the ballot in question for that office shall be counted as if marked in the third column. Same subject.

If a choice is expressed after the name of but one candidate for a given office, that choice shall be counted as a first choice for such candidate, regardless of the column in which it is marked.

If upon any one ballot more candidates are voted for in the second-choice column for any one office than the number of candidates to be elected to that office, such votes shall be counted as if marked in the third column.

Except as hereinbefore provided all choices shall be counted and returned as marked on the ballot.

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE TOWN OF DIGHTON TO SUPPLY Chap.175
ITSELF WITH WATER AND TO SELL WATER TO ADJOINING TOWNS.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. The town of Dighton may supply itself and its inhabitants with water for the extinguishment of fires and for domestic, manufacturing and other purposes; may establish fountains and hydrants and relocate or discontinue the same; and may regulate the use of the water and fix and collect rates to be paid therefor, except that said town shall not distribute water or lay water mains or conduits in any part of the North Dighton Fire District which may already be supplied with water, unless duly authorized by vote of said district, or unless said town shall have acquired by purchase or by right of eminent domain the water mains, pipes and conduits laid therein from the owners thereof, as provided by section three of this act.

Town of Dighton may supply itself
with water, etc.

SECTION 2. Said town is authorized to sell water at the town line to any adjoining town or to any water or fire district situated within any adjoining town, at such price as may be agreed upon by the water commissioners of the town of Dighton, hereinafter provided, and the duly authorized officials of the town or district purchasing the water.

May sell to adjoining towns, etc.

SECTION 3. The town of Dighton is also authorized to purchase, or take by right of eminent domain, all pipes, conduits, mains and other works for the conveyance or distribution of water in the said town belonging to any person or corporation, and to use the same for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act. The price to be paid for any works so acquired, if not agreed upon by the parties, shall be submitted to a board of arbitration consisting of three members, one of whom shall be chosen by the water commissioners of the town of Dighton, another by the person or corporation owning the property acquired, or to be acquired, by the town, and the third by the two so chosen. In case the town or any party is aggrieved by the decision of said board, the price to be paid may be determined in the manner provided by section six of this act for the assessment of damages for the taking of land.

May take certain lands, water sources, etc.

SECTION 4. Said town, for the purposes aforesaid, may take, or acquire by purchase or otherwise, and hold the waters of any pond or stream except the waters of Wading river, sometimes called Three Mile river, or of any ground sources of supply, by means of driven, artesian or other wells within the limits of the town, and the water rights connected with any such water sources, and may also take, or acquire by purchase or otherwise, and hold all lands, rights of way and easements necessary for collecting, storing, purifying and preserving the water, and for conveying the same to any part of said town: provided, that the town shall not interfere with the flow of or change the course of Wading or Three Mile river; and provided, also, that no source of water supply and no lands necessary for preserving the quality of the water shall be acquired without first obtaining the advice and approval of the state department of health, and that the situation of all dams, reservoirs and wells to be used as sources of water supply under this act shall be subject to the approval of said department. Said town may construct on the lands acquired or held under the provisions of this act, proper dams, reservoirs, standpipes, tanks, buildings, fixtures and other structures, and may make excavations, procure and operate machinery, and provide such other means and appliances, and do such other things, as may reasonably be necessary for the establishment and maintenance of complete and effective water works; and for that purpose may construct wells and reservoirs, and establish pumping works, and may construct, lay and maintain aqueducts, conduits, pipes and other works under and over any land, water courses, railroads, railways and public or other ways, and along such ways in the town of Dighton, in such manner as not unnecessarily to obstruct the same;

Provides.

May erect structures, lay pipes, etc.

and for the purpose of constructing, laying, maintaining, operating and repairing such conduits, pipes, and other works, and for all other proper purposes of this act, said town may dig up or raise and embank any such lands, highways or other ways, in such manner as to cause the least possible hindrance to public travel on such ways; and all things done upon the said ways shall be subject to the direction of the selectmen of the town of Dighton. Said town shall not enter upon, construct or lay any conduits, pipes or other works within the location of any railroad corporation, except at such time and in such manner as it may agree upon with such corporation, or in case of failure so to agree, as may be approved by the public service commission.

Same subject.

SECTION 5. Said town shall, within ninety days after the taking of any lands, rights of way, water rights, water sources or easements, as aforesaid, file and cause to be recorded in the registry of deeds for the northern district of the county of Bristol, a description thereof sufficiently specific for identification, with a statement of the purpose for which the same were taken, signed by the water commissioners hereinafter provided for. The title to all lands, rights or easements acquired under the provisions of this act shall vest in the town of Dighton, and the land so acquired may be managed, improved and controlled by the board of water commissioners, hereinafter provided for, in such manner as they shall deem to be for the best interest of the town.

Description of lands taken, etc., to be recorded.

SECTION 6. Said town shall pay all damages to property, sustained by any person or corporation by the taking of any land, right of way, water, water source, water right or easement, or by any other thing done by the town under authority of this act. Any person or corporation sustaining damages as aforesaid, and failing to agree with the town as to the amount thereof, may have the same determined in the manner provided by law in the case of land taken for the laying out of highways, on application at any time within the period of two years after the taking of such land or other property, or the withdrawal or diversion of the water, or the doing of other injury, under authority of this act; but no such application shall be made after the expiration of the said two years, and no assessment of damages shall be made for the taking of any water, water right, or for any injury thereto, until the water is actually withdrawn

or diverted by the town under authority of this act. Said town may by vote, from time to time, determine what amount of water it proposes to take and appropriate under this act; in which case any damages caused by the taking shall be based upon such amount until the same shall be increased by vote or otherwise, and in that event the town shall be further liable only for the additional damages caused by such additional taking.

Town of Dighton Water

SECTION 7. Said town, for the purpose of paying the necessary expenses and liabilities incurred under the provisions of this act, may issue from time to time bonds or notes to an amount not exceeding one hundred and fifty thousand dollars. Such bonds or notes shall bear on their face the words, Town of Dighton Water Loan, Act of 1917, shall be payable at the expiration of periods not exceeding thirty years from the respective dates of issue, shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding five per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, and shall be signed by the treasurer of the town and countersigned by the water commissioners hereinafter provided for. The town may sell the said securities at public or private sale, upon such terms and conditions as it may deem proper, but not for less than their par value, and the proceeds, except premiums, shall be used only for the purposes herein specified.

loan.

SECTION 8. Said town shall, at the time of authorizing said loan or loans, provide for the payment thereof in accordance with the provisions of section fourteen of chapter seven hundred and nineteen of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and thirteen and all acts in amendment thereof or in addition thereto, in such manner that any loan or loans issued under authority of this act shall be paid within the period specified by section seven of this act; and when a vote to the foregoing effect has been passed, a sum which, with the income derived from water rates, will be sufficient to pay the annual expense of operating its water works and the interest as it accrues on the bonds or notes issued as aforesaid by said town, and to make such payments on the principal as may be required under the provisions of this act, shall, without further vote, be assessed by the assessors of the town annually thereafter, in the same manner as other taxes, until the debt incurred by said loan or loans is extinguished.

Penalty for polluting
water, etc.

SECTION 9. Whoever wilfully or wantonly corrupts, pollutes or diverts any water taken or held under this act, or injures any structure, work or other property owned, held or used by said town under authority of this act, shall forfeit and pay to the town three times the amount of damages assessed therefor, to be recovered in an action of tort; and, upon being convicted of any of the above wilful or wanton acts, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding three hundred dollars or by imprisonment in jail for a term not exceeding one year.

SECTION 10. Said town may, after its acceptance of this act, at the same meeting at which the act is accepted or at a subsequent meeting called for the purpose, elect by ballot three persons to hold office, one for three years, one for two years and one for one year from the next succeeding annual town meeting, who shall constitute a board of water commissioners; and thereafter at every annual town meeting one such commissioner shall be elected by ballot for a term of three years. All the authority granted to the said town by this act, and not otherwise specifically provided for, shall be vested in said water commissioners, who shall be subject, however, to such instructions, rules and regulations as the town may impose by its vote. A majority of the commissioners shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Any vacancy, occurring in the board from any cause, may be filled by the town for the remainder of the unexpired term at any legal town meeting called for the purpose. Any such vacancy may be filled temporarily by a majority vote of the selectmen, and the person so appointed shall hold office until the town fills the vacancy in the manner provided herein. If the town does not elect a board of water commissioners, the board of selectmen shall constitute the board of water commissioners.

SECTION 11. Said commissioners shall fix just and equitable prices and rates for the use of water, and shall prescribe the time and manner of payment. The income of the water works shall be applied to defraying all operating expenses, interest charges and payments on the principal as they accrue upon any bonds or notes issued under authority of this act. If there should be a net surplus remaining after providing for the aforesaid charges, it shall be used for such new construction or reconstruction as the water commissioners may determine upon, and in case a surplus should remain after payment for such new construction or reconstruction, the water rates shall be reduced proportionately. No money shall be expended in new construction by the water commissioners except from the net surplus aforesaid, unless the town appropriates and provides money therefor. Said commissioners shall annually, and as often as the town may require, render a report of the condition of the works under their charge and an account of their doings, including an account of receipts and expenditures.

SECTION 12. This act shall take effect upon its acceptance by a majority of the voters of the town of Dighton present and voting thereon, by ballot, at any legal meeting called for the purpose within three years after its passage; but the number of meetings so called in any one year shall not exceed three. For the purpose of being submitted to the voters as aforesaid this act shall take effect upon its passage.

Approved March 12, 1917.

Chap. 196 AN ACT RELATIVE TO ASSESSMENTS FOR SIDEWALKS IN THE CITY OF BOSTON.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

1898, 437 § 1,
etc., amended.

Construction,
etc., of sidewalks in Boston.

SECTION 1. Chapter four hundred and thirty-seven of the acts of the year eighteen hundred and ninety-three, as amended in section one by chapter two hundred and sixty-nine of the Special Acts of the year nineteen hundred and sixteen, is hereby further amended by striking out said section one and inserting in place thereof the following: — Section 1. The city council of the city of Boston, with the approval of the mayor, may grade and construct sidewalks, and may complete any partly constructed sidewalk in any street of said city, as public convenience may require, with or without edgestones as the council shall deem expedient, and may cover the same with brick, stone, concrete, artificial stone, gravel or other appropriate material; and, provided that entry for the purpose of constructing, grading or completing a sidewalk shall be made within two years after the date of the approval by the mayor of the order therefor, may assess upon each abutter on such sidewalk a just proportion, not exceeding one half, of the expense of the sidewalk. All assessments so made shall constitute a lien upon the abutting land from and after the date of entry to construct, grade or complete the sidewalk under order of the city council, but no lien or incumbrance shall be created by the passage of the order by the city council. Every such assessment shall bear interest until paid, from the date when it is payable, which shall be the thirtieth day after it is made, and, if not paid before the first day of September of the year next after the year in which it is made, the assessors of said city shall include in the annual tax bills for such abutting land, until the assessment is paid, a sum not exceeding twenty per cent of the amount thereof, and shall also include in the bill for the first year interest on said amount from the thirtieth day after the assessment is made to the last day of October of that year, and in the bill for each year thereafter, one year's interest on the amount of the assessment remaining unpaid; and the total amount included in any such bill shall be paid and collected in the same manner in which taxes on real estate are paid and collected. The said sidewalks when constructed with edgestones and covered with brick, stone, concrete or artificial stone shall afterward be maintained at the expense of the city. When any such sidewalk shall permanently be constructed with edgestones and covered with brick, stone, concrete or artificial stone as aforesaid, there shall be deducted from the assessment therefor any sum previously assessed upon the abutting premises and paid to the city for the expense of the construction of the same in any other manner than with edgestones and brick, stone, concrete or artificial stone as aforesaid, and such deduction shall be made pro rata, and in just proportions, from the assessments upon different abutters who are owners of the land in respect to which such former assessment was paid.

Chap.197 AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE CITY OF MARLBOROUGH TO INCUR INDEBTEDNESS FOR THE PAYMENT OF FINAL JUDGMENTS.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

City of Marlborough may borrow money for payment of final judgments.

SECTION 1. The city of Marlborough may, within one year after the passage of this act, incur debt, within the statutory limit of indebtedness, to an amount not exceeding six thousand dollars for the payment of final judgments against it and counsel fees, and may from time to time issue bonds or notes therefor payable at periods not exceeding six years from their respective dates of issue. Each authorized issue of bonds or notes shall constitute a separate loan. The bonds or notes shall be signed by the treasurer and countersigned by the mayor. The city may sell the said securities at public or private sale upon such terms and conditions as it shall deem proper, but not for less than their par value, and the proceeds shall be used only for the purposes herein specified.

Payment of loan.

SECTION 2. The city shall, at the time of authorizing the said loan or loans, provide for the payment thereof in such annual payments, beginning not more than one year after the date of each issue of bonds or notes, as will extinguish the same within the time prescribed by this act, and the amount of the annual payment of any loan in any year shall not be less than the amount of the principal of the loan payable in any subsequent year. When a vote to the foregoing effect has been passed, a sum sufficient to pay the interest as it accrues on the said bonds or notes and to make such payments on the principal as may be required, shall, without further vote, be assessed by the assessors of the city annually thereafter, in the same manner as other taxes, until the debt incurred by the said loan or loans is extinguished.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

Approved March 17, 1917.

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE FIRE DISTRICT NUMBER TWO IN THE Chap. 235 TOWN OF SOUTH HADLEY TO BORROW MONEY FOR THE PURPOSE OF INCREASING ITS WATER SUPPLY.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. For the purpose of increasing and improving its water supply, Fire District Number Two in the Town of South Hadley, which was incorporated by chapter five hundred and twenty-nine of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and nine, as amended by chapter three hundred and thirty-seven of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and ten, is hereby authorized to borrow a sum not exceeding twenty thousand dollars, and may, from time to time, issue bonds or notes therefor. Each authorized issue shall constitute a separate loan. The bonds or notes shall bear on their face the words, South Hadley Fire District Number Two, Water Loan, Act of 1917, and shall be payable by such annual payments, beginning not more than one year after the respective dates thereof, as will extinguish each loan within thirty years after its date. The amount of such annual payment in any year shall not be less than the amount of the principal of the loan payable in any subsequent year. The said bonds or notes shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding four and one half per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, and shall be signed by the treasurer and countersigned by a majority of the water commissioners of said district. The district may sell the said securities at public or private sale upon such terms and conditions as it may deem proper, but not for less than their par value. The proceeds, except premiums, shall be used only for the purposes herein specified.

Fire District
Number Two in South Hadley may bor-

to that effect has been passed, a sum which, with the income derived from water rates, will be sufficient to pay the annual expense of operating its water works and the interest as it accrues on the bonds or notes issued as aforesaid by the town, and to make such payments on the principal as may be required under the provisions of this act, shall, without further vote, be assessed by the assessors of the town annually thereafter, in the same manner as other taxes, until the debt incurred by said loan or loans is extinguished.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

Approved April 3, 1917.

Chap.240 AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE CITY OF LYNN TO RETIRE AND PENSION AMBROSE H. FITCH.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

City of Lynn may retire and pension Ambrose H. Fitch.

SECTION 1. The city of Lynn is hereby authorized to retire Ambrose H. Fitch, for twenty-one years in the employ of the poor department of said city, with an annual pension during his life not exceeding four hundred and fifty dollars.

To be submitted to municipal council, etc.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon its acceptance by the municipal council of said city, with the approval of the mayor.

Approved April 3, 1917.

Chap.241 AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE TOWN OF NAHANT TO CONSTRUCT AND OPERATE AN ADDITIONAL SYSTEM OF SEWERS.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

Town of Nahant may construct and operate an additional sewerage system.

SECTION 1. The town of Nahant is hereby authorized to lay out and construct, maintain and operate a system or systems of main drains and common sewers for a part or a whole of its territory, with such connections and other works as may be required for a system of sewage disposal; and to construct such sewers or drains over and under land or tide water in said town as may be necessary to conduct the sewage to the ocean, and for the purpose of providing better surface or other drainage, may lay, make and maintain such main drains as it deems best. For the purposes aforesaid, the town may, within its limits, make and maintain sub-drains.

Board of sewer commissioners, election, etc.

SECTION 2. The town shall elect by ballot, at an annual town meeting, or at a special town meeting called for the purpose, a board of three sewer commissioners, who shall be citizens of the town, to hold office, one until the expiration of one year, one until the expiration of two years, and one until the expiration of three years from the next succeeding annual town meeting, and until their successors are elected and qualified, and thereafter, at each annual town meeting, the town shall elect one member to the board to serve for three years, and until his successor is elected and qualified. A selectman may be a member of the said board.

SECTION 3. The said board of commissioners, acting for and in behalf of the town, shall have power to take, or to acquire by purchase or otherwise, any lands, water rights, rights of way or easements in said town, public or private, necessary for accomplishing any purpose mentioned in this act, and may construct main drains and sewers under or over any highway, boulevard, or other way, may enter upon and dig up any private land, street or way for the purpose of laying such drains and sewers and of maintaining and repairing the same, and may perform any other act necessary or proper for the purposes of this act.

May take lands, water rights, etc.

SECTION 4. Said board, in order to take any lands in fee, water rights, rights of way or easements, shall cause to be recorded in the registry of deeds for the southern district of the county of Essex, a statement, signed by a majority of the board, containing a description thereof sufficiently specific for identification, and specifying that the same are taken under the authority of this act; and upon such recording, the title to the lands, water rights, rights of way or easements described in the said statement shall vest in the town of Nahant, which shall pay all damages therefor, and all other damages sustained by any person or corporation through any action of said board under this act. Said board, at the time of such taking, shall notify the owners thereof in writing, and may agree with any person or corporation upon the damages sustained by such person or corporation; otherwise the damages shall be assessed by a jury in the superior court for said county upon petition of either party, in the manner provided by law for determining damages for land taken for highways; but in case of a taking, no suit or petition shall be brought after the expiration of two years from the date of the recording of the taking as herein provided; and in all other cases no suit or petition shall be brought after the expiration of two years from the time when the cause of action accrues.

Description of lands, etc., to be recorded.

Damages to be agreed upon,
etc.

Suits, when to be brought.

Damages, how
paid, etc.

SECTION 5. In every case of a petition for the assessment of damages or for a jury said town may at any time file in the office of the clerk of the courts an offer to pay the petitioner a sum therein specified as damages; and if the petitioner does not accept the same within thirty days after notice of such offer, and does not finally recover a sum greater than that offered, not including interest, from the date of the offer, on the sum so recovered, the town shall recover costs from the date of said notice; and the petitioner shall be entitled to costs only to that date.

Apportionment of cost.

Proviso.

SECTION 6. The town shall by vote determine what proportion of the cost of said system or systems of sewerage and sewage disposal the town shall pay: provided, that it shall pay not less than one third nor more than one half of the whole cost. In providing for the payment of the remaining portion of the cost of said system or systems the town may avail itself of any or all of the methods permitted by general laws, and at the same meeting at which it determines the proportion of the cost which is to be borne by the town, it may by vote determine by which of such methods the remaining portion of said cost shall be provided for. In case it determines that such remaining portion shall be provided for wholly or in part by assessments upon the owners of estates situated within the territory embraced by said system or systems and benefited thereby, then said owners shall be assessed by the board of sewer commissioners their proportional parts, respectively, of the said portion, but no estate shall be deemed to be benefited until a sewer is constructed into which it can be drained. For the purpose of fixing the amounts of such assessments the said board shall determine the value of the special benefit to each of said estates, respectively, from the said system or systems of sewers, taking into account all the circumstances of the case; and the proportionate part to be paid by the owners of said estates, respectively, shall be based upon the amount of the special benefit to each estate, determined as aforesaid, and in no case shall exceed such special benefit, and every such owner shall, within three months after written notice of the assessment, served on him or on the occupant of his estate, or sent by mail to the last address of the owner known to the board of sewer commissioners, pay the sum so assessed to the collector of taxes of said town: provided, that said board shall, on the written request of any such owner, made within the said three months, apportion the assessment into ten equal parts or assessments; and the board shall certify the apportionment to the assessors of the town, and one of said parts or instalments, together with the interest at six per cent per annum on all unpaid apportionments, shall be added by the assessors to the annual tax on such estate for each year next ensuing, until all the said parts have so been added, unless sooner paid as hereinafter provided; and provided, further, that nothing herein Proviso. contained shall be construed to prevent the payment at any time in one payment, notwithstanding its prior apportionment, of any balance due; but interest on such balance at the rate of six per cent per annum shall be paid to the date of the payment, and thereupon the collector of taxes of said town shall receive the same and shall certify the payment or payments to the assessors, who shall preserve a record thereof. In case of corner lots abutting on more than one Corner lots, how assessed. sewered street the same area shall not be assessed more than once.

SECTION 7. The town, for the purpose of paying the necessary expenses and liabilities incurred under this act, may incur indebtedness in accordance with the provisions of chapter seven hundred and nineteen of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and thirteen and all acts in amendment thereof or in addition thereto. May incur indebtedness.

SECTION 8. The town shall, at the time of authorizing the said indebtedness, provide for the payment thereof in such annual payments as will extinguish the same in accordance with the provisions hereof; and when a vote to that effect has been passed the amount required thereby, less the amount that may be appropriated therefor as provided in the following section, shall annually thereafter, without further vote be assessed by the assessors of the town in the same manner as other taxes, until the debt incurred by said loan is extinguished. Payment of loan.

SECTION 9. The receipts from sewer assessments and from payments made in lieu thereof, shall be applied to the payment of charges and expenses incident to the maintenance and operation of said system of sewerage, or to the extension thereof, except that any part of such receipts may be applied to the payment of interest upon notes or bonds issued hereunder, and not otherwise provided for, or to the payment or redemption of such bonds or notes as the town shall by vote determine, and the said receipts shall be used for no other purpose. If the said receipts shall not in any year be sufficient Receipts, how applied, etc.

for the purposes aforesaid the town shall raise forthwith by taxation, in the same manner in which money is raised for other town purposes, the balance required therefor.

Assessment,
etc., to constitute a lien, etc.

SECTION 10. Any assessment or charge made hereunder shall constitute a lien upon the estate which shall continue for two years after the certificate thereof is filed, and after the demand aforesaid is made, or in case of apportionment until the expiration of two years from the time when the last instalment is committed to the collector. Said assessment, together with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, with incidental costs and expenses, may be satisfied by the sale of the estate or so much thereof as shall be sufficient to discharge the assessment and interest and intervening charges, if the assessment is not paid within three months after the service of said notice, or, if it has been apportioned, within three months after any portion has become due. Such sale and all proceedings connected therewith shall be conducted in the same manner as sales for the nonpayment of taxes, and real estate so sold may be redeemed in the same manner as if sold for the nonpayment of taxes. The said assessments or parts thereof may be collected also by an action of contract in the name of the town of Nahant against the owner of the estate, brought at any time within two years after the same become due.

Sale of estate,
how conducted,
etc.

Persons aggrieved may apply for a jury, etc.

SECTION 11. Any person aggrieved by any such assessment may, at any time within three months after the service of the demand mentioned in section six of this act, apply to the superior court for said county for a jury to revise the same, but before making such application he shall give to said commissioners fourteen days' notice in writing, and shall therein specify particularly his objection to the assessment, to which specification he shall be confined in the jury trial.

Clerk and superintendent, appointment, etc.

SECTION 12. Said board of sewer commissioners shall annually appoint a clerk, and may appoint a superintendent of sewers, who shall not be a member of the board, and may remove the clerk or superintendent at its pleasure, and may fix the pay of the clerk and superintendent and define their duties. The commissioners may, in their discretion, prescribe such annual rentals or charges for the users of said sewer system, based on the benefits derived therefrom, as they shall deem proper. The compensation of the commissioners shall be fixed by the town.

To prescribe
rentals, etc.,

Compensation.

Contracts,
how made.

SECTION 13. All contracts made by the board of sewer commissioners shall be made in the name of the town and shall be signed by the board, but no contract shall be made or obligation incurred by the commissioners for any purpose in excess of the amount of money appropriated by the town therefor.

SECTION 14. Said commissioners may from time to time prescribe rules and regulations for the connection of estates and buildings with main drains and sewers, and for inspection of the materials, the construction, alteration, and use of all connections and drains entering into such main drains or sewers, and may prescribe penalties not exceeding twenty dollars for every violation of any such rule or regulation. Such rules and regulations shall be published not less than once a week for three successive weeks in some newspaper published in the town of Nahant, if there be any, and if not, then in some newspaper published in the county of Essex, and shall not take effect until such publication has been made.

Rules and regulations not to take effect until published.

SECTION 15. No act shall be done under authority of the preceding sections, except in the making of surveys and other preliminary investigations, until the plans for the said system of sewerage have been approved by the state department of health. Upon application to said department for such approval the department shall give a hearing, after due notice to the public. At the hearing plans showing in detail all the work to be done in constructing said system of sewerage shall be submitted for the approval of the state department of health.

Plans to be approved by state department of health, etc.

SECTION 16. Until the board of sewer commissioners shall have been elected as provided in this act the town may carry on the construction of the system of sewerage by a duly authorized committee of the town, but not longer than until the annual meeting next but one after the commencement of said work of construction. The committee shall serve without pay and shall have all the powers and authority given to the board of sewer commissioners in this act or by the general laws relating to boards of sewer commissioners.

Special committee to serve until board is elected, etc.

SECTION 17. This act shall take effect upon its passage, but no expenditure shall be made and no liability incurred hereunder until it has been accepted by vote of a majority of the voters of said town voting thereon at a legal meeting called for the purpose.

To be submitted to voters, etc.

Approved April 3, 1917.

Chap. 254 AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR PREFERENTIAL VOTING AT MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS IN THE CITY OF GLOUCESTER.Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

NOMINATION BY PETITION OF TEN VOTERS.

Preferential voting established at municipal elections in Gloucester.

SECTION 1. The mode of nomination and election of all elective officers of the city of Gloucester to be voted for at any municipal election shall be as provided in this act. The name of a candidate shall be printed upon the ballot when a petition of nomination shall have been filed in his behalf in the manner and form and under the conditions hereinafter set forth.

Form of petition, how signed,
etc.

The petition of nomination for each candidate shall be signed by not less than ten qualified voters of the city either on individual certificates in form substantially as follows, or on joint papers to the same purport:

PETITION OF NOMINATION.

Individual Certificate.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts,
City of Gloucester

I hereby join in a petition for the nomination of.....
.....whose residence is at No.Street, Gloucester, for the office of....., to be voted for at the municipal election to be held in the city of Gloucester, on the.....day of....., 19.....; and I certify that I am qualified to vote for a candidate for said office, and am not at this time a signer of any other certificate nominating any other candidate for the above named office;
that my residence is at No.Street,
Gloucester.

Witness: (Signed)

Residence of witness, No.Street, Gloucester.

The petition of nomination, of which this certificate forms a part, shall, if found insufficient, be returned to
.....at No.Street, Gloucester.

FORM OF CERTIFICATE.

SECTION 2. It shall be the duty of the city clerk to furnish upon application a reasonable number of forms of individual certificates or joint nomination petitions, and of acceptances of nomination. Each certificate shall be a separate paper. All certificates shall be of uniform size as determined by the city clerk. Each certificate shall contain the name and signature of one signer thereof and no more. Each certificate shall contain the name of one candidate and no more. In case a voter has signed two or more conflicting petitions only that one of his conflicting signatures which was included in the petition first presented to the city clerk, as provided in the following section, shall be valid. The witness in each case may be any qualified voter of Gloucester, except the candidate named in the certificate.

Form of certificate, etc.

NOMINATING PETITIONS.

SECTION 3. Petitions of nomination shall be presented to the city clerk not earlier than thirty, nor later than twenty, days, before the election. The city clerk shall indorse on each petition the date upon which it was presented to him, and by whom it was presented. All papers constituting a petition of nomination shall be presented to the city clerk at one time, except as is provided in the following section.

Nominating petitions, when presented to city clerk.

AMENDMENT OF NOMINATING PETITIONS.

SECTION 4. When a petition of nomination is presented to the city clerk for filing, he shall forthwith examine the same and ascertain whether it conforms to the provisions of this act. If found not to conform thereto, he shall then and there in writing on the petition state the reason why the petition cannot be filed, and shall within three days, return the same to the person therein designated for the purpose. The petition may then be amended and again, but not later than three days after it was returned, presented to the city clerk, as in the first instance. The city clerk shall forthwith proceed to examine the amended petition as hereinbefore provided. If either the original or the amended petition of nomination is found properly signed and witnessed as here-

Proviso. inbefore provided, the city clerk shall file the same forthwith: provided, that no petition, amended or otherwise, shall be presented later than twenty days before the election.

DATE OF FILING NOMINEE'S ACCEPTANCE.

Date of filing nominee's acceptance.

SECTION 5. A person nominated under this act shall file his acceptance, his signature thereto being witnessed by a qualified voter of Gloucester, with the city clerk not later than twenty days before the day of election, and in the absence of such acceptance the name of the candidate shall not appear on the ballot. The acceptance shall be substantially in the following form:

FORM OF NOMINEE'S ACCEPTANCE.

Form of acceptance.

City of Gloucester,

I,....., having heretofore been nominated for the office of....., in the city of Gloucester, to be voted for at the municipal election to be held in said city on the.day of....., 19....., hereby accept the said nomination, and I hereby declare that I am a qualified voter of said city, that my residence is at No.Street, Gloucester, and that I have not become and am not a candidate for any other office to be voted for at said election.

Witness: (Signed)

(Signed).....

Residence of witness:

No.Street, Gloucester.

Petitions, etc., to be preserved.

SECTION 6. The city clerk shall preserve in his office for a period of four years from the time of the respective filing of the same all petitions of nomination and all certificates, acceptances, and memoranda belonging thereto, filed under this act, but shall thereafter destroy the same.

PUBLICATION OF LISTS OF CANDIDATES.

Publication of lists of candidates.

SECTION 7. The city clerk shall, not later than the fifteenth day before every city election, certify the list of candidates, with their residences, whose names are entitled to appear on the ballot, as being the list of candidates nominated as required by this act, together with the offices for which they are respectively candidates, designating whether each election is for a full or an unexpired term: and shall file in his office said certified list of names and offices, and shall cause to be published before the election, in two successive issues of at least one newspaper of general circulation published in the city of Gloucester, or in any different or supplementary manner that may be required by ordinance, an election notice which shall contain said certified list of names of candidates and offices to be filled, and the time and the places of holding such election.

Election notice may be required by ordinance, etc.

Provision may also be made by ordinance for supplying the voters with information regarding the qualifications of candidates.

Qualifications of candidates to be supplied to voters.

PREPARATION OF BALLOTS.

SECTION 8. The city clerk shall cause ballots for each general and special municipal election to be prepared, printed, and authenticated as provided by the laws of the commonwealth, except as is otherwise required by this act. The ballots shall contain the full list and correct names of all the offices to be filled, and the names and residences of all the candidates nominated, respectively, therefor.

Preparation of ballots.

FORM OF BALLOT AND METHOD OF VOTING.

SECTION 9. On the ballot at the top of each group of candidates for an office shall be stated the number to be elected to that office, and in the heading of the first column in which choices are designated for every such group shall appear the words "First Choice" or, if the number to be elected to that office is more than one, "First Choices". In the heading for the second column for every such group shall in like manner appear the words "Second Choice" or "Second Choices". After the word "Choice" or "Choices" in the heading of the first and second columns for every such group shall appear the words "Not more than (here insert the number to be elected to that group)". In the heading of the third column for every such group, shall appear the words "Other Choices; as many as you wish to express": provided, however, that when there are but three candidates for any office, the ballot shall contain columns for the first SECTION 10. As many spaces shall be left below the printed names of the candidates for each office to be voted for as there are candidates to be elected to that office, wherein the voter may write the names and residences of any person for whom he may wish to vote.

WHAT SHALL APPEAR ON THE BALLOT.

SECTION 11. The names and residences of candidates for the same office shall be printed on the ballot in the order in which they may be drawn by the city clerk, whose duty it shall be to make such drawing and to give each candidate an opportunity to be present thereat personally or by one representative. Nothing on the ballot shall be indicative of the source of the candidacy or of the support of any candidate. No ballot shall have printed thereon any party or political designation or mark, and there shall not be appended to the name of any candidate any such party or political designation or mark, or anything indicating his views or opinions. There shall also appear on the ballot all questions required by law, or by this act, to be submitted to the qualified voters of the city.

DISTRIBUTION OF SAMPLE BALLOTS.

Distribution of sample ballots.

SECTION 12. The city clerk shall, at least ten days before the election, cause to be printed a sufficient number of sample ballots, upon paper of different color, but otherwise identical with the ballot to be used at the election, and, until other provision for their distribution is made by ordinance, shall mail a copy of the same to each registered voter.

CANVASS OF RETURNS AND DETERMINATION OF RESULTS OF ELECTION.

Canvass of returns.

SECTION 13. When the polls are closed, the precinct officers shall immediately open the ballot boxes, take therefrom and count the ballots in public view, and enter the total number thereof on the tally sheet provided therefor by the city clerk. They shall also count and enter on said tally sheet the number of the first-choice, second-choice and other-choice votes for each candidate, and make return thereof to the city clerk as provided by law.

Manner of counting votes.

Only one vote shall be counted for any candidate on any one ballot, all but the highest of two or more choices on one ballot for one and the same candidate being void.

If the number of choices voted for any one office does not exceed the number to be elected to that office, such choices shall, except as hereinbefore in this section otherwise provided, be counted as first choices.

If upon any ballot more candidates are voted for in the first-choice column for any one office than there are candidates to be elected to that office, but not more than twice that number, all such votes in the first-choice column shall be counted as votes expressing second choice for such candidates, and all votes in the second-choice column of the ballot in question for that office shall be counted as if marked in the third column. If a choice is expressed after the name of but one candidate for a given office, that choice shall be counted as a first choice for such candidate, regardless of the column in which it is marked.

If upon any one ballot candidates are voted for in the first-choice column for any one office exceeding in number twice the number of candidates to be elected to that office,

all votes upon the ballot in question for that office shall be counted as if marked in the third column. Same subject.

If upon any one ballot more candidates are voted for in the second-choice column for any one office than the number of candidates to be elected to that office, such votes shall be counted as if marked in the third column.

Except as hereinbefore provided all choices shall be counted and returned as marked on the ballot.

SECTION 14. The city clerk shall then determine the successful candidates in the following manner: — Determination of results.

The candidate or candidates for any office receiving a majority of the first-choice votes cast for candidates for that office shall, to the number required and in the order of the number of their first-choice votes beginning with the highest, be elected to that office: provided, that if the candidates who receive such a majority are fewer in number than the number of candidates to be elected to that office, the second-choice votes received by each candidate for that office who shall not have received a majority of first-choice votes, as aforesaid, shall then be added to the first-choice votes received by every such candidate, and the candidate or candidates receiving a majority in said first-choice and second-choice votes combined shall, to the number required and in the order of the number of first-choice and second-choice votes combined received by such candidates, beginning with the highest, be elected to that office; and provided, further, that if the candidates then elected are fewer in number than the number of candidates to be elected to that office, the other-choice votes received by each candidate who shall not have been elected as aforesaid, shall then be added to the first-choice and the second-choice votes received by every such candidate, and a candidate or candidates, to the number required and in the order of the number of first-choice, second-choice and other-choice votes combined beginning with the highest, shall be elected to that office. Provides.

A tie between two or more candidates shall be decided in favor of the one having the largest number of first-choice votes. If two or more are equal in that respect, then the candidate among them having the largest number of second-choice votes shall be elected. If this will not decide, a special election shall be held. Tie votes, how decided.

choice votes cast at the election and counted and returned, as hereinbefore provided, for candidates for the office in question: provided, that whenever the number of candidates to be chosen to an office is two or more, the word "majority" shall mean more than half the total number of ballots on which a first choice was counted and returned for candidates for that office.

Proviso.

"Voter"
term defined.

SECTION 15. The term "voter", wherever it is used in this act, means a voter qualified by law to vote for candidates for the office or offices to be filled.

To be submitted to voters at next
state election.

SECTION 16. This act shall be submitted to the voters of the city of Gloucester at the next state election in the form of the following question on the official ballot: — "Shall an act passed by the general court in the year nineteen hundred and seventeen, to authorize preferential voting at municipal elections in the city of Gloucester, be accepted?" And if a majority of the votes cast thereon are in the affirmative, this act shall take full effect beginning with the next regular municipal election in said city; otherwise it shall be void.

City clerk,
etc., duty of,
to carry out provisions of the act.

SECTION 17. It shall be the duty of the city clerk and of other city officials to carry out the provisions of this act to the end that all things may be done necessary for the election of the officers next to be elected under the provisions hereof.

Certain laws, ordinances,
etc., to continue in force, until, etc.

SECTION 18. All laws, ordinances and regulations in force in said city when this act takes effect, not inconsistent herewith, shall continue in full force and effect until it is otherwise provided by law, ordinance or vote.

political designations
prohibited.

SECTION 8. No ballot used at any annual or special city election or at any city primary election shall have printed thereon any party or political designation or mark, and there shall not be appended to the name of any candidate any such party or political designation or mark, or anything showing how he was nominated, or indicating his views or opinions.

Who are qualified to vote.

SECTION 9. Voters qualified to vote at city elections shall be qualified to vote at the city primary elections.

SECTION 10. The election officers shall immediately, upon the closing of the polls at city primary elections, count the ballots and ascertain the number of votes cast in the voting places where they officiate, for each person for nomination for each office, and shall make return thereof to the city clerk forthwith upon blanks to be furnished as in city elections.

Counting of votes, etc.

SECTION 11. On the first day, not being Sunday or a legal holiday, following the city primary election, the city clerk shall canvass the returns so received from the election officers, and shall forthwith publish the result of the canvass in one or more newspapers published in said city.

Canvassing the returns and publication of result.

SECTION 12. Except as is otherwise provided herein, the two persons receiving at a city primary election the highest number of votes for nomination for an office shall be the candidates, and the only candidates, for that office whose names shall be printed on the official ballots to be used at the annual or special city election for the making of nominations for which the city primary election was held, and if two or more persons are to be elected to the same office at such annual or special city election the several persons, to a number equal to twice the number so to be elected, receiving at such city primary election the highest number of votes for nomination for that office shall be the candidates, and the only candidates, for that office whose names shall be printed on the official ballots to be used at the annual or special city election.

Nominations, how determined.

If the primary election results in a tie vote among candidates for nomination receiving the smallest number of votes, which, but for the tie vote, would entitle the person receiving such number to have his name printed upon the official ballots for the election, all candidates participating in such tie vote shall have their names printed upon the official ballots, although thereby there be printed upon them the names of candidates to a number exceeding twice the number to be elected.

Tie vote, among certain candidates to cause name to be printed upon ballot.

SECTION 13. If, at the expiration of the time for filing statements of candidates to be voted for at any city primary election, not more than twice as many such statements have been filed with the city clerk for the office of mayor, alderman or school committee as there are persons to be elected to said offices respectively, then the candidates whose statements have thus been filed shall be deemed to have been nominated for said offices respectively, and their names shall

And if in any ward, at the expiration of the time for filing statements of candidates to be voted for at any city primary election, not more than twice as many such statements have been filed with the city clerk for the office of councilman as there are persons to be elected to said offices respectively, then the candidates whose statements have thus been filed shall be deemed to have been nominated for said offices respectively, and their names shall be printed on the official ballot to be used at such annual or special city election, and the city clerk shall not print said names upon the ballot to be used at said primary election, and no other nominations for said offices shall be made. And if it shall appear that no names are to be printed upon the official ballot to be used at any city primary election in any ward or wards of the city, or in the city at large, then no primary election shall be held in any such ward or wards, or in the city at large.
When no primary need be held.
Acceptance not required.	SECTION 14. No acceptance of a nomination made at a city primary election shall be necessary for its validity.
Election, how determined.	SECTION 15. At city elections, other than the above described city primary elections, the person receiving the highest number of votes for an office shall be deemed and declared elected to that office; and if two or more persons are to be elected to the same office, the several persons, to the number to be chosen to the office, receiving the highest number of votes shall be deemed and declared to be elected; but persons receiving the same number of votes shall not be deemed to be elected if thereby a greater number would be elected than are by law to be chosen. On ballots to be used at annual or special city elections blank spaces shall be left at the end of each list of candidates for the different offices, equal to the number to be elected thereto, in which the voter may insert the name of any person not printed on the ballot for whom he desires to vote for such office.
Number of blank spaces to be left on ballots.
Certain laws pertaining to elections to apply.	SECTION 16. Except as is otherwise provided in this act, the laws of the commonwealth governing annual city elections, special elections of city officers and special elections in cities shall, so far as they may be applicable, govern such elections in the said city.
Repeal.	SECTION 17. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith, affecting only the city of Everett, are hereby repealed, and no acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith shall hereafter apply to the said city.

SECTION 18. This act shall be submitted to the voters of the city of Everett at the annual state election in November, nineteen hundred and seventeen, and the form of the question to be placed upon the ballot shall be as follows:— "Shall chapter _____ of the Special Acts of the year nineteen hundred and seventeen, being 'An Act relative to primary elections in the city of Everett', be accepted?" and if a majority of the voters voting thereon shall vote in the affirmative this act shall take effect.

To be submitted to voters at the next state election.

SECTION 19. So much of this act as authorizes its submission to the voters of the said city shall take effect upon its passage, but it shall not take further effect until accepted by the voters of the city as herein provided.

Time of taking effect.

Approved April 5, 1917.

Chap. 262 AN ACT RELATIVE TO THE WATER SUPPLY OF THE CITY OF LYNN.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

Certain terms defined.

SECTION 1. The words "works", "means", "appliances", and "fixtures", or any of them, as used in section one of chapter five hundred and eight of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and one, shall be taken to include a power transmission line with necessary and convenient poles, conductors, and other apparatus for the construction and maintenance of the same, for the purpose of conducting electric current to any pumping station or stations erected by the city of Lynn under the provisions of said act: provided, however, that no easement for the purpose of constructing or maintaining such power transmission line shall be taken in private lands other than those in which an easement may have been taken by the city of Lynn for the purpose of constructing a pipe line or conduit to convey the waters of Ipswich river, or for the purpose of erecting said pumping station or stations as provided by said chapter five hundred and eight.

City of Lynn may acquire land in town of North Reading.

SECTION 2. The city of Lynn may purchase or take by eminent domain, in the town of North Reading any land or lands necessary for the construction and maintenance of a proper and convenient way or bridge, to connect any pumping station or stations of said city with a public way.

Description of lands, etc., to be recorded.

SECTION 3. The said city shall, within sixty days after the taking of any lands, rights of way, or easements, for any of the purposes set forth in section one of this act, file and cause to be recorded in the registry of deeds for the county and district within which such lands or other property are situated, a description thereof sufficiently specific for identification, with a statement of the purposes for which the same are taken, signed by the mayor of said city; and the city shall pay all damages to property sustained by any person by the taking of any land or easement under authority of this act. Any person sustaining damages as aforesaid, who fails to agree with the said city as to the amount thereof, may have the same assessed and determined in the manner provided by law in the case of land taken for highways, on application at any time within the period of one year from the taking of such land or easement.

Damages, how assessed and determined.

SECTION 4. The provisions of any existing law authorizing the city of Lynn to sell bonds, notes, or scrip for the purpose of extending and improving its water supply, shall apply to any expenditures authorized by the provisions of this act: provided, however, that nothing herein shall be construed as empowering the said city to issue bonds in excess of the amount already authorized by existing law for said purpose.

Certain provisions of law to apply to expenditures hereunder.

SECTION 4. The said corporation shall, within sixty days after the taking of any land, rights of way, water rights, water sources or easements as aforesaid, file and cause to be recorded in the registry of deeds for the county and district within which such land or other property is situated, a description thereof sufficiently specific for identification, with a statement of the purpose for which the same was taken, signed by the president of the corporation.

Damages
to be paid.

SECTION 5. The said corporation shall pay all damages to property sustained by any person or corporation by the taking of any land, right of way, water, water source, water right or easement, or by any other thing done by said corporation under the authority of this act. Any person or corporation sustaining damages as aforesaid, who fails to agree with said corporation as to the amount thereof, may have the same determined in the manner provided by law in the case of land taken for the laying out of highways, on application at any time within the period of two years after the taking of such land or other property or the doing of other injury under the authority of this act; but no such application shall be made after the expiration of said two years. No assessment of damages shall be made for the taking of any water, water right, or for any injury thereto, and said period of two years shall not begin to run, until the water is actually withdrawn or diverted by said corporation under the authority of this act.

Damages, how determined, upon failure to agree, etc.

SECTION 6. The said corporation may distribute water through the town of Monterey, may regulate the use of said water and fix and collect rates to be paid for the use of the same; and may make such contracts with any individual or corporation to supply water for the extinguishment of fires, or for other purposes, as may be agreed upon by any individual or corporation and said corporation.

May fix water rates, etc.

SECTION 7. The said corporation may, for the purposes set forth in this act, hold real estate not exceeding in value ten thousand dollars; and the whole capital stock of said corporation shall not exceed ten thousand dollars, to be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each.

May hold real estate.

AN ACT RELATIVE TO THE TIME OF SUBMISSION OF PLANS TO THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF FALL RIVER RELATING TO THE ABATEMENT OF NUISANCES IN AND ALONG QUEQUECHAN RIVER.

Chap. 273

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. Section four of chapter three hundred and eleven of the Special Acts of the year nineteen hundred and sixteen is hereby amended by striking out the word "April", in the fifteenth line, and inserting in place thereof the word: — October, — so as to read as follows: — Section 4. The commission shall give one or more public hearings on the proposed work to all persons interested, which shall be held in the city of Fall River, after notice of the time and place thereof has been advertised in one or more newspapers published in said city. Thereafter the commission shall adopt definite plans, and shall cause to be prepared careful estimates of the total cost of acquiring necessary property, easements, or rights, and the cost of constructing the various works, and shall then give further public hearing to persons interested, with like notice. The said plans, and any modifications thereof, shall be submitted to, and before construction is begun, shall be approved by, the state department of health. The commission shall submit to the city council of Fall River, not later than the first day of October in the year nineteen hundred and seventeen, a full report, giving in detail plans and estimates of the total cost of the proposed work. Within thirty days after the receipt of the report the city council shall take such action thereon as shall seem proper, or may refer the same to the commission for revision or suggested changes. If they are so referred, the commission shall reconsider the plans, and may resubmit them with such changes and modifications as it shall approve. The plans may be referred and resubmitted as many times as the city council may deem necessary. If the plans as originally submitted, or as changed, are finally approved other taxes, until the debt incurred by the said loan or loans is extinguished.

Penalty for pollution of water.

SECTION 7. Whoever wilfully or wantonly corrupts, pollutes or diverts any water taken or held under this act, or injures any structure, work or other property owned, held or used by said town under authority of this act, shall forfeit and pay to the town three times the amount of damages assessed therefor, to be recovered in an action of tort; and upon being convicted of any of the above wilful or wanton acts shall be punished by a fine not exceeding three hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year.

Board of water
commissioners,
election, etc.

SECTION 8. Said town shall, after its acceptance of this act, at the same meeting at which the act is accepted or at a subsequent meeting called for the purpose, elect by ballot three persons to hold office, one until the expiration of three years, one until the expiration of two years and one until the expiration of one year from the next succeeding annual town meeting, to constitute a board of water commissioners; and at each annual town meeting thereafter one such commissioner shall be elected by ballot for the term of three years. All the authority granted to the said town by this act, and not otherwise specifically provided for, shall be vested in said water commissioners, who shall be subject however to such instructions, rules and regulations as the town may impose by its vote. A majority of said commissioners shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Any vacancy occurring in said board from any cause may be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term by said town at any legal town meeting called for the purpose. Any such vacancy may be filled temporarily by a majority vote of the selectmen, and the person so appointed shall hold office until the town fills the vacancy in the manner specified herein. If said town does not elect a board of water commissioners, the board of selectmen shall constitute said board.

for such new construction as the water commissioners may determine upon, and in case a surplus should remain after payment for such new construction the water rates shall be reduced proportionately. No money shall be expended in new construction by the water commissioners except from the net surplus aforesaid, unless the town appropriates and provides money therefor. Said commissioners shall annually, and as often as the town may require, render a report upon the condition of the works under their charge and an account of their doings, including an account of receipts and expenditures.

Expenditure of money on new construction limited, unless, etc.

SECTION 10. This act shall take effect upon its acceptance by a majority of the legal voters of the town of Sturbridge present and voting thereon at any legal meeting called for the purpose within three years after its passage; but the number of meetings so called in any one year shall not exceed three; and for the purpose of being submitted to the voters as aforesaid this act shall take effect upon its passage.

AN ACT TO INCORPORATE THE CITY OF METHUEN.

Chap. 289

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. The inhabitants of the town of Methuen, shall continue to be a body corporate and politic, under the name of the City of Methuen, and as such shall have, exercise and enjoy all the rights, powers, privileges and immunities, and shall be subject to all the duties and obligations provided for herein or by statute or otherwise pertaining to cities as municipal corporations.

City of Methuen, incorporated.

Re-division into wards, etc.

SECTION 2. Upon the acceptance of this act the selectmen of the town then in office shall forthwith divide the territory thereof into five wards, so that the wards will contain, as nearly as may be consistent with well defined limits, an equal number of voters, and they shall designate the wards by number. The wards may in any year fixed by law for a new division of wards in cities, be changed by a vote of the municipal council with the assent of the mayor; but the number of the wards shall never be less than five.

First municipal election, date,
etc.

The selectmen, for the purpose of the first preliminary election held according to the provisions of this act and of the first municipal election which shall take place on the third Tuesday of December next succeeding the acceptance of this act, shall provide suitable polling places and give notice thereof, and shall at least ten days before said preliminary election appoint all proper election officers therefor; and they shall in general have the powers and perform the duties of the mayor and board of aldermen in cities under chapter eight hundred and thirty-five of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and thirteen, and acts in amendment thereof and in addition thereto, the provisions of which, so far as they may be applicable, shall apply to said election; and the town clerk shall perform the duties therein assigned to city clerks. The registrars shall cause to be prepared and published according to law lists of qualified voters in each of the wards established by the selectmen.

committee.

SECTION 3. The selectmen shall notify the persons elected at the said first election, and shall provide and appoint a place for the first meeting of the mayor and council on the first Monday in January next ensuing; and shall, by written notice left at their respective places of residence at least twenty-four hours prior to such meeting, notify the mayor elect and councilmen elect, who shall immediately proceed to organize and carry into effect the provisions of this act, which shall thereupon have full force and effect. The selectmen shall, in like manner, appoint a place and time for the first meeting of the school committee, and shall notify the members thereof.

Mayor, election, term, etc.

SECTION 4. There shall be a mayor, elected by and from the qualified voters of the city, who shall be the chief executive officer of the city. He shall hold office for the term of two years from the first Monday in January following his election and until his successor is elected and qualified.

SECTION 5. The legislative powers of the city shall be vested in a city council, composed of seven members, one of whom shall be elected from each of the five wards by and from the qualified voters of that ward, and the remaining members shall be elected at large by and from the qualified voters of the city. One of the members shall be elected annually by the council as its president. At the first city election after the acceptance of this act the councillors elected from each ward shall serve for one year and those elected at large, for two years from the first Monday of January following their election and until their successors are elected and qualified. And at each annual city election thereafter their respective successors shall be elected to serve for two years.

City council,
of office, etc.

SECTION 6. All heads of departments and members of municipal boards, trustees of the Nevins Memorial, but excluding the school committee, and officials appointed by the governor, shall be appointed by the mayor, subject to confirmation by the city council; but the city solicitor shall be appointed by the mayor without such confirmation.

Mayor to appoint certain heads of departments, etc.

SECTION 7. The mayor, with the approval of a majority of the members of the city council, may remove any head of a department or member of a board before the expiration of his term of office, except members of the school committee and officials appointed by the governor. The person so removed shall receive the reasons for his removal in writing, and he may contest the same at a hearing to be given by the city council, at which he shall have the right to be represented by counsel.

May remove certain officials,
except, etc.

SECTION 8. The mayor shall receive for his services such salary as the city council by ordinance shall determine, not exceeding fifteen hundred dollars a year, and he shall receive no other compensation from the city. His salary shall not be increased or diminished during the term for which he is elected. The council may, by a two thirds vote of all its members, taken by call of the yeas and nays, establish a salary for its members not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars each a year. Such salary may be reduced, but no increase therein shall be made to take effect during the year in which the increase is voted.

city council, shall be presented to the mayor for his approval. If he approves it he shall sign it; if he disapproves it he shall return it, with his objections in writing, to the city council, which shall enter his objections at large on its records, and again consider it. If the city council, notwithstanding such disapproval of the mayor, shall again pass the order, ordinance, resolution or vote by a two thirds vote of all the members of the city council, it shall then be in force, but the vote shall not be taken for seven days after its return to the city council. Every such order, ordinance, resolution and vote shall be in force if it is not returned by the mayor within ten days after it is presented to him. Nothing in this section shall be construed as superseding or in any way affecting any provision of chapter seven hundred and nineteen of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and thirteen.

SECTION 10. Except as is otherwise provided herein, there shall not be printed on the official ballots to be used at any annual or special city election the name of any person as a candidate for any office mentioned in this act unless such person be nominated as such candidate at a preliminary election for nominations, to be held as provided in this act. There shall not be printed on the official ballots to be used at a preliminary election for nominations the name of any person as a candidate for nomination at such preliminary election, unless such person shall have filed, within the time limited by section twelve of this act, the statement described in section twelve.

SECTION 11. On the third Tuesday preceding every city election at which any officer mentioned in this act is to be elected, there shall be held a preliminary election for the purpose of nominating candidates for such offices as, under the provisions of this act, are to be filled at such city election. Voters qualified to vote at a city election shall be qualified to vote at a preliminary election. No special election for mayor or any other officer shall be held until after the expiration of forty days from the calling of the preliminary election, except as is otherwise provided herein. At every annual, preliminary, and special election the polls shall be opened at forty-five minutes past five o'clock in the forenoon and shall be kept open until four o'clock in the afternoon. The laws of the commonwealth relative to annual city elections shall apply to all preliminary, special and annual elections held under this act, except as is otherwise specifically provided herein, but nothing herein shall be held to prohibit the sale of liquors on days of preliminary elections.

SECTION 12. Any person who is qualified to vote for a candidate for any office mentioned in this act, and who is a candidate for nomination for that office, may have his name as such candidate printed on the official ballot to be used at a preliminary election: provided, that, at least ten days prior to the preliminary election, he shall file with the city clerk a statement in writing of his candidacy, and with it the petition of at least fifty voters of the city, qualified to vote for a candidate for the said office. Said statement and petition shall be in substantially the following form: —

SECTION 14. On the first day, not being Sunday or a legal holiday, following the expiration of the time for filing the above described statements and petitions, the city clerk shall post in a conspicuous place in the city hall the names and residences of the candidates for nomination who have duly filed the above mentioned statements and petitions, as they are to appear on the official ballots to be used at the preliminary election, except as to the order of the names, and shall cause the ballots to be printed, and the ballots so prepared shall be the official ballots and the only ballots used at the preliminary election. They shall be headed as follows: —

OFFICIAL PRELIMINARY BALLOT.

Official preliminary ballot, heading.

Candidates for nomination for the offices of (_____) in the city of Methuen. At a preliminary election to be held on the _____ day of _____ in the year nineteen hundred and _____. (The heading shall be varied in accordance with the offices for which nominations are to be made.)

Names, etc.,

SECTION 15. The name of each person, and of none other, who has filed a statement and accompanying petition as aforesaid with his residence and the title and term of the office for which he is a candidate for nomination, shall be printed on said ballots under the designation of said office in the order in which they may be drawn by the city clerk, whose duty it shall be to make such drawing and to give each candidate an opportunity to be present in person or by one representative. Blank spaces shall be left at the end of each list of candidates for nomination for the different offices equal to the number to be nominated therefor, in which the voter may insert the name of any person not printed on the ballot for whom he desires to vote for nomination for such office. There shall be printed on said ballots such directions as will aid the voter, as for example, "vote for one", "vote for two", and the like.

for women,
heading, etc.

Then shall follow the names and residences of the same candidates for nomination for school committee as are on the regular official ballot for such preliminary election, and the titles and term of that office. The said ballots shall be prepared in like manner and printed for the use of women qualified to vote for members of the school committee.

SECTION 16. No ballot used at any preliminary, special or annual city election shall have printed thereon any party or other political designation or mark, and there shall not be appended to the name of any candidate any such party or other political designation or mark, or anything showing how he was nominated, or indicating his views or opinions.

Political or party designations, etc.,
prohibited.

SECTION 17. The election officers shall, immediately upon the closing of the polls at preliminary elections, count the ballots and ascertain the number of votes cast in the voting places where they officiate for each person for nomination for each office, and shall forthwith make return thereof to the city clerk upon blanks to be furnished as in city elections.

SECTION 19. If any person receives at a preliminary election a majority of all the votes cast for the office for nomination to which he was a candidate, he shall be deemed and declared elected thereto, provided that at said election at least eighty per cent of the total registered vote of the city shall be cast; otherwise the two persons receiving at a preliminary election the highest and second highest number of votes, respectively, for any office, shall be the candidates and the only candidates for that office whose names shall be printed on the official ballots to be used at the succeeding annual or special city election. If two or more persons are to be elected to the same office at such annual or special election, the several persons, to a number equal to twice the number so to be elected to such office, receiving the highest number of votes for nomination for that office, or all such persons if less than twice the number of those so to be elected, shall be candidates, and the only candidates, for that office whose names shall be printed on the official ballots to be used at such annual or special city election. The names shall be printed on the ballots under the designation of the respective offices for which they are candidates in the order in which they may be drawn by the city clerk as provided in section fifteen. In case two or more persons should receive an equal number of votes for the same office at any preliminary election held under this act, the names of all such persons shall be placed on the ballot.

Official ballots,
order of names,
etc.

Acceptance not necessary.

SECTION 20. No acceptance of a nomination made at a preliminary election shall be necessary for its validity.

City election,
date of, etc.

SECTION 21. The first city election shall take place on the third Tuesday of December following the acceptance of this act, and thereafter the city election shall take place annually on the Tuesday next following the first Monday of December, and the municipal year shall begin and end at ten o'clock in the morning of the first Monday of January in each year.

Officials to be sworn,
when, etc.

SECTION 22. On the first Monday in January at ten o'clock in the forenoon, the mayor-elect and the councillors-elect shall meet and be sworn to the faithful discharge of their duties. The oath may be administered by the city clerk or by any justice of the peace, and a certificate that the oath has been taken shall be entered on the journal of the city council. At any meeting thereafter the oath may be administered, in the presence of the city council, to the mayor, or to any councillor absent from the meeting on the first Monday in January.

SECTION 23. Except as is specifically provided in this section, the legislative powers of the city council may be exercised as provided by ordinance or rule adopted by it.

Legislative powers of city council.

1. Every member of the council shall have the right to vote on any question coming before it. A majority of the council shall constitute a quorum, and the affirmative vote of a majority of all the members of the council shall be necessary to adopt any motion, resolution or ordinance.

Voting powers, quorum, etc.

2. The city council shall, from time to time, establish rules for its proceedings. Regular and special meetings of the council shall be held at a time and place fixed by ordinance. All legislative sessions shall be open to the public, and every matter coming before the council for action shall be put to vote, the result of which shall be duly recorded. A full and accurate journal of the proceedings of the council shall be kept, and shall be open to the inspection of any registered voter of the city.

Rules, meetings, sessions, etc.

3. The council shall, by a majority vote, elect a city clerk to hold office for the term of three years and until his successor is elected and qualified. He shall have such powers and perform such duties as the council may from time to time prescribe in addition to such duties as may be prescribed by law. He shall keep the records of the meetings of the council.

City clerk, election, term, etc.

The person holding the office of town clerk at the time when this act is accepted shall continue to hold office until the city clerk is elected and qualified.

Town clerk to act until, etc.

SECTION 24. The city council may at any time request from the mayor specific information on any municipal matter within its jurisdiction, and may request him to be present to answer written questions relating thereto at a meeting to be held not earlier than one week after the date of the receipt by the mayor of said questions. The mayor shall personally, or through the head of a department or a member of a board, attend such meeting and publicly answer all such questions. The person so attending shall not be obliged to answer questions relating to any other matter. The mayor at any time may attend and address the city council in person or through the head of a department or a member of a board, upon any subject.

City council may request information of mayor, etc.

Passage of ordinances.

SECTION 25. No ordinance shall be passed finally on the date on which it is introduced, except in cases of special emergency involving the health or safety of the people or their property.

Emergency measures to be defined, etc.

Granting of franchises,
how made.

No ordinance making a grant, renewal or extension, whatever its kind or nature, of any franchise or special privilege shall be passed as an emergency measure, and except as is provided in chapter one hundred and twenty-two of the Revised Laws and sections one hundred and twenty-six and one hundred and twenty-seven of chapter seven hundred and forty-two of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and fourteen and acts in amendment thereof and in addition thereto, no such grant, renewal or extension shall be made otherwise than by ordinance.

Amendment of ordinances,
how made.

SECTION 26. No ordinance or part thereof shall be amended or annulled except by another ordinance adopted in accordance with the provisions of this act.

Passage at one session.

SECTION 27. Except as provided in sections twenty-five and twenty-eight, any ordinance, order or resolution may be passed through all its stages of legislation at one session: provided, that no member of the council objects thereto; but if any member of the council objects, the measure shall be postponed to a subsequent meeting.

Proviso.

Ordinances,
etc., to be published.

SECTION 28. Every proposed ordinance or loan order, except emergency measures as hereinbefore defined, shall, at least ten days before its final passage, be published once in full in at least one newspaper of the city, and in any additional manner that may be provided by ordinance. After such final passage, it shall, in the same manner as before, again be published once, as amended and completed, except in the case of an emergency ordinance which may be passed as hereinbefore provided and which shall take effect on its passage, and shall be published in the manner specified above, at the earliest practicable moment.

Existing obligations, etc., to continue in force.

SECTION 29. All official bonds, recognizances, obligations, contracts and all other instruments entered into or executed by or to the town of Methuen before this act takes effect, and all taxes, special assessments, fines, penalties and forfeitures incurred or imposed, due or owing to the town shall be enforced and collected, and all writs, prosecutions, actions and causes of action, except as is otherwise provided herein shall continue without abatement and remain unaffected by this act; and no legal act done by or in favor of the town shall be rendered invalid by the acceptance of this act. The city council may at its discretion publish and circulate at such times and in such manner as it may deem advisable a municipal bulletin or publication in which may be printed any ordinances or proposed ordinances and any notices required by this act to be published in one or more newspapers, and also any information which is deemed by the city council to be of benefit to the citizens by giving them knowledge of the administration of the city and of its needs and welfare, and such publication in said municipal bulletin of such ordinances and proposed ordinances and other notices required by this act to be published shall be deemed sufficient publication without the publication thereof in one or more newspapers as herein otherwise required.

SECTION 30. The civil service laws shall not apply to the appointment of the mayor's secretaries or of the stenographers, clerks, telephone operators and messengers connected with his office, and the mayor may remove such appointees without a hearing and without making a statement of the cause for their removal.

Civil service laws not to apply to certain appointees of the mayor.

SECTION 31. If a vacancy occurs in the office of mayor or in the city council before the last six months of the term of office, the city council shall order an election to fill the same for the unexpired term; and if such vacancy occurs in the office of mayor in the last six months of said term, the president of the city council shall succeed thereto for the unexpired term. If the mayor is absent or temporarily unable from any cause to perform his duties they shall be performed by the president of the city council, who shall for the time being be designated "acting mayor", and shall possess the powers of mayor only in matters not admitting of delay, but shall have no power to make permanent appointments.

officer or employee of the city, directly or indirectly to make a contract with the city, or to receive any commission, discount, bonus, gift, contribution, or reward from or any share in the profits of any person or corporation making or performing such a contract, unless the mayor, such member, officer or employee, immediately upon learning of the existence of the contract, or that such a contract is proposed, shall notify in writing as the case may be the mayor, city council or school committee of the nature of his interest in the contract, and shall abstain from doing any official act on behalf of the city in reference thereto. In case of such interest on the part of an officer whose duty it is to sign the contract on behalf of the city, the same may be signed by any other officer of the city duly authorized thereto by the mayor, or if the mayor has such interest, by the city clerk: provided, however, that when a contractor with the city is a corporation or a voluntary stock association, the ownership of less than five per cent of the stock or shares actually issued shall not be considered as involving an interest in the contract within the meaning of this section, and such ownership shall not affect the validity of the contract unless the city officer or employee is also an officer or agent of the corporation or association, or solicits or takes part in the making of the contract.

A violation of this section shall render the contract in respect to which such violation occurs voidable at the option of the city. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

SECTION 33. No contract for construction work or for the purchase of apparatus, supplies or materials, whether the same shall be for repairs or original construction, the estimated cost of which amounts to or exceeds two hundred dollars, except in cases of special emergency involving the health or safety of the people or their property, shall be awarded unless proposals for the same shall have been invited by advertisements in at least one newspaper published in the city once a week for at least two consecutive weeks, the last publication to be at least one week before the time specified for the opening of the proposals. Such advertisements shall state the time and place where plans and specifications of the proposed work or supplies may be had, and the time and place for opening the proposals in answer to said advertisements, and shall reserve to the city the right to reject any or all proposals. All such proposals shall be opened in public. No bill or contract shall be split or divided for the purpose of evading any provision of this act.

"Split" contracts forbidden.

SECTION 34. All contracts made by any department, board or commission in which the amount involved is two hundred dollars or more shall be in writing, and no such contract shall be deemed to have been made or executed until the approval of the mayor and of the department or board making the contract is affixed thereto. Any contract made as aforesaid may be required to be accompanied by a bond with sureties satisfactory to the board or official having the matter in charge, or by a deposit of money, certified check or other security conditioned on the faithful performance thereof, and such bonds or other securities shall be deposited with the city treasurer until the contract has in all respects been carried out; and no such contract shall be altered except by a written agreement of the contractor, the sureties on his bond, and the officer, department or board making the contract, with the approval of the mayor affixed thereto.

Bond or other security to accompany contract, etc.

SECTION 35. At the request of any department, and with the approval of the mayor and the city council, the city council may take in fee, in the name of the city, for any municipal purpose any land within the limits of the city not already appropriated to public use. Whenever the price proposed to be paid for a lot of land for any municipal purpose is more than twenty-five per cent higher than its average assessed valuation during the previous three years, the land shall not be purchased but shall be taken by right of eminent domain and paid for in the manner provided for the taking of, and the payment of damages for, land taken for highways. No land shall be taken until an appropriation by loan or otherwise for the general purpose for which the land is needed shall have been made by the mayor and city council, by a two thirds vote of all its members; nor shall a price be paid in excess of the appropriation, unless a larger sum is awarded by a court of competent jurisdiction. All proceedings in the taking of land shall be under the advice of the law department, which shall keep a record thereof.

City council may take land for municipal purposes, etc.

Right of eminent domain, when to be exercised, etc.

SECTION 36. The school committee shall consist of the mayor, who shall be the chairman, and six members who shall be elected at large. At the first annual city election there shall be elected two members to serve for one year,

School committee, election, term, etc.

two for two years and two for three years, and annually thereafter there shall be elected two members to serve for the term of three years and until the election and qualification of their successors.

Superintendent of schools, election, etc., and appointment of certain subordinates, etc.

SECTION 37. The school committee shall elect annually a superintendent of schools, and may, under the civil service laws and regulations, appoint, suspend or remove at pleasure such subordinate officers or assistants, including janitors of school buildings, as it may deem necessary for the proper discharge of its duties and the conduct of its business; shall define their terms of service and their duties, and shall fix their compensation. No member of the school committee, except the mayor, shall, during the term for which he is elected, hold any other office or position the salary or compensation for which is payable out of the city treasury. The committee shall organize annually on the first Monday in January, and shall elect one of its members as vice chairman, whose duty it shall be to preside at all meetings of the committee at which the mayor is not present.

School committee, organization, etc.

Powers and duties.

SECTION 38. The school committee, in addition to the powers and duties conferred and imposed by law on school committees, shall have power to provide, when they are necessary, temporary accommodations for school purposes, and shall have the control of all school buildings and of the grounds connected therewith, and shall have power to make all repairs the expenditures for which are made from the regular appropriation for the school department, except as is otherwise provided herein.

To approve plans, etc., for school buildings.

SECTION 39. No site for a school building shall be acquired by the city unless the approval of the site by the school committee is first obtained. No plans for the construction of or alterations in a school building shall be accepted, and no work shall be begun on the construction or alteration of a school building, unless the approval of the school committee and the mayor therefor is first obtained. Nothing herein contained shall require such approval for the making of ordinary repairs.

To make rules and regulations.

Proviso.

SECTION 40. The school committee shall make all reasonable rules and regulations for the management of the public schools of the city and for conducting the business of the committee: provided, that such rules are not inconsistent with any laws of the commonwealth.

Meetings to be open to public, except, etc.

SECTION 41. All meetings of the school committee shall be open to the public, except that, when requested by not less than four members of the committee, any particular meeting shall be private. The vote on any particular measure shall be by call of the yeas and nays, when it is so requested by not less than two members of the committee.

Yea and nay vote, when.

SECTION 42. If a vacancy occurs in the school committee by failure to elect, or otherwise, the city council and the remaining members of the school committee shall meet in joint convention and elect a suitable person to fill the same until the next annual city election. The mayor, if present, shall preside at the convention.

mittee, how filled.

SECTION 43. A petition meeting the requirements hereinafter specified and requesting the city council to pass an ordinance, resolution, order or vote, except an order granted under the provisions of chapter one hundred and twenty-two of the Revised Laws and sections one hundred and twenty-six and one hundred and twenty-seven of chapter seven hundred and forty-two of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and fourteen and acts in amendment thereof and in addition thereto, or requesting the school committee to pass a resolution, order or vote, all of these four terms being hereinafter included in the term "measure", therein set forth or designated, shall be termed an initiative petition, and shall be acted upon as hereinafter provided.

Initiative
petition for passage of a "measure."

SECTION 44. Signatures to initiative petitions need not be all on one paper. All such papers pertaining to any one measure shall be fastened together and shall be filed in the office of the city clerk as one instrument, with the endorsement thereon of the names and addresses of three persons designated as filing the same. With each signature to the petition shall be stated the place of residence of the signer, giving the street and number, if any. Within five days after the filing of the petition the registrars of voters shall ascertain by what number of registered voters the petition is signed, and what percentage that number bears to the total number of registered voters, and shall attach thereto their certificate showing the result of such examination.

petitions.

The city clerk shall forthwith transmit the said certificate with the said petition to the city council or to the school committee, as the case may be, and at the same time shall send a copy of the certificate to one or more of the persons designated on the petition as filing the same.

Certification of registered voters.

SECTION 45. If any initiative petition be signed by registered voters equal in number, except as is otherwise provided in this act, to at least twenty per cent of the whole to voters.

2. The city council shall call a special election to be held on a Tuesday fixed by it not less than thirty nor more than forty-five days after the date of the certificate herein-before mentioned, and shall submit the proposed measure without alteration to a vote of the registered voters of the city at that election: provided, however, that if any city election is otherwise to occur within ninety days after the date of said certificate the city council may, at its discretion, omit calling the special election and submit the proposed measure to the voters at such other approaching election.

Proviso.

Referendum, when petition
fails.

SECTION 46. If an initiative petition be signed by registered voters equal in number to at least eight per cent but less than twenty per cent of the total number of registered voters, and said measure be not passed without alteration within twenty days by the city council or the school committee, as provided in the preceding section, then such proposed measure, without alteration, shall be submitted by the city council to a vote of the registered voters of the city at the next annual city election.

SECTION 47. If within twenty days after the final passage of any measure by the city council or by the school committee a petition signed by registered voters of the city, equal in number to at least twelve per cent of the total number of registered voters, be presented to the city council or to the school committee, as the case may be, protesting against such measure or any part thereof, the same shall thereupon and thereby be suspended from taking effect; and the city council or the school committee, as the case may be, shall immediately reconsider such measure or part thereof; and if such measure or part thereof be not entirely annulled, repealed or rescinded, the city council shall submit the same, by the method herein provided, to a vote of the qualified voters of the city, either at the next regular city election, or at a special election which may, in its discretion, be called for the purpose, and such measure or part thereof shall forthwith become null and void unless a majority of the qualified voters voting on the same at such election shall vote in favor thereof. The petition provided for by this section shall be termed a referendum petition.

The procedure in respect to the referendum petition shall be the same as that provided by section forty-six of this act, except that the words "measure or part thereof protested against" shall for this purpose be understood to replace the word "measure" in that section wherever it may occur, and that the word "referendum" shall be understood to replace the word "initiative" in that section. Procedure, etc.

SECTION 48. For the purposes of this act, the number of registered women voters shall be counted in fixing the requisite number of signatures for initiative and referendum petitions as to measures affecting the public schools, and in respect to such measures they shall have the right to vote and to sign initiative and referendum petitions. But the number of such women voters shall not be counted in fixing the number of signatures on such petitions relating to other than school matters. Women voters to be counted, on petitions relating to school matters only.

SECTION 49. The city council may, of its own motion, and shall, upon request of the school committee in case of a measure originating with that committee and pertaining to the affairs under its administration, submit to a vote of the registered voters of the city for adoption or rejection at a general or special city election any proposed measure, or a proposal for the annulment, repeal or amendment of any measure, in the same manner and with the same force and effect as are hereby provided for submission on petition. City council may submit measures to voters of its own motion, etc.

SECTION 50. If two or more proposed measures passed at the same election contain conflicting provisions, that one of the measures which received the larger number of affirmative votes shall take effect, and the other, to the extent of the inconsistency, shall be void. Measures with conflicting provisions.

SECTION 51. The ballots used in voting upon any such proposed measure shall state the nature thereof in terms sufficient to show its substance. No measure shall go into effect unless it receives the affirmative votes of at least a third of the whole number of registered voters. Ballots to show nature of measure, etc.

SECTION 52. The passage or acceptance of this act shall not affect any rights accruing or accrued, or any suit or prosecution, or any penalty or forfeiture previously incurred or other legal proceeding pending at the time when this act takes effect, wherein the town of Methuen is a party or in any way interested. All persons then holding office in said town shall continue to hold the same, notwithstanding the Rights, legal proceedings, etc., not to be affected, etc.

passage thereof, until the organization of the city government shall be effected, and until their successors shall be elected, or appointed, and qualified. All laws, by-laws, rules and regulations, general or special, relating to the town of Methuen, in force at the time of the passage of this act, shall, until altered, amended or repealed, continue in force in the city of Methuen, so far as the same are not inconsistent herewith.

Certain terms defined.

SECTION 53. The words "officer", "officers", "administrative officers", "ordinance" and the terms "registered voter" and "regular municipal election", as used in this act shall have the same meaning which they have in section one of Part I of chapter two hundred and sixty-seven of the General Acts of the year nineteen hundred and fifteen.

To be submitted to voters at next
state election.

SECTION 54. This act shall be submitted to the legal voters of said town at the state election in the year nineteen hundred and seventeen for their acceptance or rejection. At such election the polls shall be open not less than eight hours and the vote shall be taken by ballot in answer to the following question to be placed thereon: — "Shall an act passed by the general court in the year nineteen hundred and seventeen, entitled 'An Act to incorporate the city of Methuen' be accepted?" And if a majority of the votes cast thereon are in the affirmative, the same shall thereupon take full effect; but not otherwise. So much hereof as provides for its submission to the voters of said town shall take effect upon its passage.

Chap.290 AN ACT TO INCORPORATE THE NORTH READING WATER COMPANY.

North Reading
Water Company incorporated.

SECTION 1. Willard C. Carpenter, Albert G. Barber, Rufus B. Gage, Joseph D. Gowing, Henry A. Upton, Jared B. McLane, Henry W. Weymouth, Lawrence C. Monroe, Lewis A. Bigelow, Charles A. Quint, Foster R. Batchelder and James A. Glass, their associates and successors, are hereby made a corporation by the name of North Reading Water Company, for the purpose of supplying the inhabitants of the town of North Reading, or any part thereof, with water for domestic, manufacturing and other purposes, including the extinguishment of fires. Said corporation shall have all the powers and privileges and shall be subject to all the duties, restrictions and liabilities set forth in all general laws now or hereafter in force applicable to water companies.

SECTION 2. Said corporation may purchase water for any or all of its corporate purposes from the town of Reading, or from any other town or corporation at the time engaged in supplying water to the inhabitants of any town adjoining the town of North Reading, and the town of Reading or any other town or corporation now or hereafter engaged in supplying water to the inhabitants of any town adjoining the town of North Reading may sell water to the corporation created by this act for any or all of its corporate purposes: provided, however, that the plans for such supply and the sources thereof shall first be approved by the state department of health.

water from town of Reading, etc.

Proviso.

SECTION 3. Said corporation, for the purpose aforesaid, may lease, take or acquire by purchase or otherwise, and hold and convey the waters, or so much thereof as may be necessary, of any ponds, springs or streams, or of any ground sources of supply, within the limits of the town of North Reading, together with any water rights connected therewith, and also all lands, rights of way and easements necessary for holding and preserving the water and for conveying the same to any part of said town; and may erect on the lands thus taken or held proper dams, buildings, standpipes, fixtures and other structures, and may make excavations, procure and operate machinery, and provide such other means and appliances, and may do such other things as may be necessary for the establishment and maintenance of complete and effective water works: provided, however, that no source of water supply and no lands necessary for preserving the quality of the water shall be taken or used under this act without first obtaining the advice and approval of the state department of health, and that the location of all dams, reservoirs, wells or other works for collecting or storing water under this act shall be subject to the approval of said department.

certain lands,
etc.

Proviso.

SECTION 4. Said corporation, for the purposes aforesaid, may construct, lay and maintain aqueducts, conduits, pipes and other works, under or over any land, water courses, canals, dams, railroads, railways and public or other ways, and along any highway or other way in the town of North Reading, in such manner as not unnecessarily to obstruct the same; and for the purpose of constructing, laying, maintaining and repairing such aqueducts, conduits, pipes and other works, and for all purposes of this act, said corporation may dig up, raise and embank any such lands, highways or other ways in such manner as to cause the least hindrance to public travel; but all things done upon any such way shall be subject to the direction and approval of the selectmen. Said corporation shall not enter upon, construct or lay any conduits, pipes or other works within the location of any railroad corporation except at such time and in such manner as it may agree upon with such corporation, or in case of failure so to agree, as may be approved by the public service commission.

Not to enter,
etc., upon railroad location, except, etc.

Description of land, etc., to be recorded.

SECTION 5. Said corporation shall, within sixty days after voting to take any lands, rights of way, water rights, water sources, or easements as aforesaid, file and cause to be recorded in the registry of deeds for the county and district in which the same are situated, a description thereof sufficiently specific for identification, with a statement of the purpose for which the same were taken, signed by the president of the corporation. The recording shall operate as a taking of the real estate and rights and easements therein described.

assessed and determined.

SECTION 6. Said corporation shall pay all damages to property sustained by any person, firm or corporation by the taking of any land, right of way, water, water source, water right or easement, or by any other thing done by said corporation under the authority of this act. Any person, firm or corporation sustaining damages as aforesaid, and failing to agree with said corporation as to the amount thereof, may have the same assessed and determined in the manner provided by law in the case of land taken for the laying out of highways, on application at any time within two years from the taking of such land or other property, or the doing of any other injury under the authority of this act. No assessment of damages shall be made for the taking of any water or water right, or for any injury thereto and said period of two years shall not begin to run, until the water is actually withdrawn or diverted by said corporation under the authority of this act.

May distribute water, fix water rates, etc.

SECTION 7. Said corporation may distribute water through the town of North Reading, or any part thereof, and may regulate the use of said water, and may fix the rates to be paid for the use of the same, subject, however, to the power now vested in the board of gas and electric light commissioners to regulate said rates; and may collect such rates, and may make contracts with the said town, acting by their selectmen, and with any fire or water supply district now or hereafter established therein, and with any individual, corporation, department of the commonwealth or of the United States therein, to supply water for the extinguishment of fires and for domestic, manufacturing or other purposes: provided, that in case a contract is to be made with the town, the selectmen shall first be authorized to act by a majority vote of the voters of the town qualified to vote upon a question of raising and appropriating money.

Proviso.

SECTION 8. The amount of the capital stock of the corporation shall be fixed and limited at the meeting for its organization, but the corporation shall issue only such amounts of stock and bonds as may from time to time be authorized by the general laws now or hereafter in force applicable thereto.

Capital stock, amount, issue, etc.

SECTION 9. The town of North Reading, or any one or more fire districts in said town, upon obtaining appropriate legislation to enable them to act as a water supply district, or otherwise, may purchase the property of said water company owned by it and used in supplying water, upon payment of the fair market value thereof: provided, however, that the said property shall not, without the consent of said water company, be purchased at less than the actual cost thereof; and in case the dividends earned and paid by said corporation, since its creation, on its stock, shall have been less than six per cent per annum, there shall be added to said cost such sum as will make the return to the stockholders equal in the aggregate to six per cent per annum on the amount paid in on the capital stock. If the water supply district or the said town, as the case may be, and the water company shall be unable to agree upon the value of said property, either party, with notice to the other, may apply to the supreme judicial court for the determination of said value. The court shall refer the application to the board of gas and electric light commissioners, who shall hear the parties and determine the value of said property, in accordance with the provisions herein prescribed, and the award of said board, when accepted by the court, shall be final. The award shall not be set aside or recommitted for error in law, unless the court is satisfied that such error has substantially affected the interests of the party complaining thereof, and in that event the court may recommit the award to the board, with such directions as justice may require. Upon the acceptance of the award by the court the right of the corporation to supply water within the town of North Reading shall cease, and the town, or fire district, shall thereafter have and enjoy all the rights and privileges of the corporation necessary for the maintenance and operation of the property acquired.

SECTION 10. Whoever wilfully or wantonly corrupts, pollutes or diverts any water taken or held under authority of this act, or injures any structure, work or other property owned, held or used by said corporation under authority of this act, and for the purposes of this act, shall forfeit and pay to said corporation three times the amount of damages assessed therefor, to be recovered in an action of tort; and upon conviction of any of the above wilful or wanton acts, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding three hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year.

SECTION 11. A sworn report of the cost of the system to date and of the year's receipts and expenses shall be made annually by the said corporation to the selectmen of the town of North Reading, within sixty days after the close of its fiscal year.

SECTION 12. This act shall take effect upon its passage, but shall be null and void unless the North Reading Water Company shall have begun to distribute water through its pipes to consumers in said town within three years after the date of its passage.

Approved April 17, 1917.

Chap. 291 AN ACT RELATIVE TO THE DISTRIBUTION OF THE PROCEEDS OF THE TAX ON INCOMES TO THE TOWNS OF MILLVILLE AND BLACKSTONE.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

Distribution of proceeds of the tax on incomes to the towns of Millville and Blackstone, in 1917.

SECTION 1. In the distribution of taxes for the year nineteen hundred and seventeen under section twenty-three of chapter two hundred and sixty-nine of the General Acts of the year nineteen hundred and sixteen, the treasurer and receiver general shall pay to the town of Blackstone an amount equal to the difference between the amount of the tax levied upon personal property in the year nineteen hundred and sixteen in that part of said town which now constitutes said town, and the amount, computed by the tax commissioner, that would be produced by a tax upon Same subject. the personal property actually assessed in the said town for the year nineteen hundred and seventeen, at the same rate of taxation which prevailed in the town of Blackstone in the year nineteen hundred and sixteen, and shall pay to the town of Millville an amount equal to the difference between the amount of the tax levied upon personal property in that part of the town of Blackstone which is now the town of Millville, in the year nineteen hundred and sixteen and the amount, computed by said commissioner, that would be produced by a tax upon the personal property actually assessed in the town of Millville for the year nineteen hundred and seventeen, at the same rate of taxation which prevailed in the town of Blackstone in the year nineteen hundred and sixteen.

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE TOWN OF GARDNER TO MAKE Chap. 293
AN ADDITIONAL WATER LOAN.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. The town of Gardner, for the purposes mentioned in chapter two hundred and eighty-seven of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and two, may, in addition to the amounts heretofore authorized by law for the same purposes, borrow money from time to time and issue therefor negotiable bonds or notes to an amount not exceeding fifty thousand dollars, which shall bear on their face the words, Town of Gardner Water Loan, Act of 1917, shall be payable by such annual payments, beginning not more than one year after the date thereof, as will extinguish each loan within thirty years after its date; and the amount of the annual payment of any loan in any year shall not be less than the amount of the principal of the loan payable in any subsequent year. Each authorized issue of bonds or notes shall constitute a separate loan. Said bonds or notes shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding four and one half per cent per annum, payable semi-annually; and shall be signed by the treasurer of the town and countersigned by a majority of the selectmen. The town may sell the said securities at public or private sale, upon such terms and conditions as it may deem proper, but not for less than their par value, and the proceeds shall be used only for the purposes herein specified.

Town of Gardner may make additional water loan.

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE BARNSTABLE WATER COMPANY TO FURNISH WATER TO THE TOWN OF YARMOUTH AND TO THE INHABITANTS THEREOF.

Chap. 296

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. The Barnstable Water Company, a corporation created by chapter two hundred and eighty-six of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and eleven, may extend its mains into and through the town of Yarmouth, and

Barnstable Water Company may furnish water to town of Yarmouth, etc.

may supply the inhabitants of said town, or any part thereof, with water for domestic, manufacturing and other purposes, including the extinguishment of fires.

Water supply, sources of.

SECTION 2. Said corporation, for the purpose aforesaid, may use the same sources of water supply which it now uses or may hereafter use in supplying water to the inhabitants of the town of Barnstable under the provisions of said chapter two hundred and eighty-six.

May lay pipes, etc.

SECTION 3. Said corporation may construct, lay and maintain aqueducts, conduits, pipes and other works under or over any land, water courses, canals, dams, railroads, railways and public or other ways, and along any highway or other way in the town of Yarmouth, in such a manner as not unnecessarily to obstruct the same; and for the purpose of constructing, laying, maintaining and repairing such aqueducts, conduits, pipes and other works, and for all purposes of this act, said corporation may dig up, raise and embank any such lands, highways or other ways in such manner as to cause the least hindrance to public travel; but all things done in or upon any public way or place shall be subject to the direction and approval of the selectmen of said town. Said company shall not enter upon, construct or lay any conduit, pipe or other works within the location of any railway corporation except at such times and in such manner as it may agree upon with such corporation, or, in case of failure so to agree, as may be approved by the public service commission.

Not to enter,
etc., upon railway location, except,
etc.

May fix water
rates, etc.

SECTION 4. Said corporation may distribute water through the town of Yarmouth, or any part thereof, may regulate the use of the same and may establish and fix from time to time and collect, the rates for the use of said water; and may make such contracts with said town or with any fire district now or hereafter established therein, or with any individual or corporation, to supply water for the extinguishment of fires or for such other purposes as may be agreed upon.

Town of Yarmouth
may purchase
property, etc.

SECTION 5. The town of Yarmouth shall have the right at any time to acquire by purchase or by right of eminent domain the property of said corporation in the town of Yarmouth, its franchise to do business therein, and all its rights and privileges with respect thereto, on payment to said corporation of the actual cost of said franchise and of its works and property of every kind in said town; and, unless the corporation's net earnings from its business in said town shall have been equal to at least five per cent of the said cost, multiplied by the number of years during which the corporation has then been operating in said town, there shall be added to the amount to be paid by the town a sum which when added to said net earnings will equal five per cent of the said cost multiplied by the number of years during which the corporation has been operating in said town. "Net earnings" as herein used, shall mean the corporation's gross receipts from its business in said town, minus all operating and other expenses properly chargeable to said business, including reasonable amounts for maintenance and depreciation. The town, on taking the property of said corporation as herein provided, shall assume all of its outstanding obligations incurred in the construction or improvement of its property in the said town, including bonds secured by mortgage on such property, and the amount thus assumed shall be deducted from the total amount to be paid by the town to the corporation. Said corporation shall furnish to the town of Yarmouth, under oath, an itemized statement of the actual cost of the water supply system installed by the corporation in said town, together with a copy of all contracts made for providing and constructing said water supply system and any extension thereof, and shall furnish to said town, annually, in the month of January, an itemized statement under oath of its receipts from and expenditures made in connection with its business in said town, which statement shall be submitted by the selectmen to the citizens of the town at the annual town meeting. This authority to acquire the said franchise and property is granted on condition that the same is assented to by a two thirds vote of the voters of the said town present and voting thereon at a meeting legally called for that purpose; and if the property is taken by right of eminent domain, the declaration of the taking, which shall include a certified copy of the article in the warrant under which the town acted, and of the vote of the town thereon showing that it was passed by a two thirds vote, as herein required, shall be filed in the registry of deeds for the county of Barnstable. In case the town and the corporation shall be unable to agree upon the amount to be paid by the town for said property, the supreme judicial court shall, upon application of either party and notice to the other, appoint three commissioners who shall determine the actual cost of said property, and whose award, when

Water Loan,
Act of 1917.

SECTION 6. Said town may, for the purpose of paying the cost of said franchise and corporate property and the necessary expenses and liabilities incurred under the provisions of this act, issue from time to time bonds or notes to an amount not exceeding one hundred and fifty thousand dollars. The said bonds or notes shall bear on their face the words, Yarmouth Water Loan, Act of 1917, shall be payable at the expiration of periods not exceeding thirty years from the date of issue, shall bear interest, payable semi-annually, at a rate not exceeding five per cent per annum, and shall be signed by the treasurer of the town and countersigned by the water commissioners hereinafter provided for. The town may sell such securities at public or private sale upon such terms and conditions as it may deem proper, but not for less than their par value, and the proceeds, except premiums, shall be used only for the purposes herein specified.

loan.

SECTION 7. Said town shall, at the time of authorizing said loan or loans, provide for the payment thereof in accordance with the provisions of section fourteen of chapter seven hundred and nineteen of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and thirteen, and all acts in amendment thereof or in addition thereto, in such manner that any loan or loans issued under authority of this act shall be paid within the period specified by section six of this act; and when a vote to the foregoing effect has been passed, a sum which, with the income derived from water rates, will be sufficient to pay the annual expense of operating its water works and the interest as it accrues on the bonds or notes issued as aforesaid, and to make such payments on the principal as may be required under the provisions of this act, shall, without further vote, be assessed by the assessors of the town annually thereafter, in the same manner as other taxes, until the debt incurred by said loan is extinguished.

commissioners,
election, term,
etc.

SECTION 8. Said town shall, after purchasing or taking the said franchise and corporate property, as provided in this act, at a legal meeting called for the purpose elect by ballot three persons to hold office, one until the expiration of three years, one until the expiration of two years, and one until the expiration of one year from the next succeeding annual town meeting, and until the election and qualification of their respective successors, to constitute a board of water commissioners; and at each annual town meeting thereafter one such commissioner shall be elected by ballot for the term of three years and until the election and qualification of a successor. All authority granted to the said town by this act, and not otherwise specifically provided for, shall be vested in said water commissioners, who shall be subject, however, to such instructions, rules and regulations as the town may impose by its vote. A majority of said commissioners shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Any vacancy occurring in said board for any cause may be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term by the town at any legal town meeting called for the purpose. Any such vacancy may be filled temporarily by a majority vote of the selectmen, and the person so appointed shall hold office until the town fills the vacancy in the manner provided herein. If the town does not elect a board of water commissioners, the board of selectmen shall constitute the board of water commissioners.

Vacancy in board, how filled.

Selectmen to act, when.

SECTION 9. Said commissioners shall fix just and equitable prices and rates for the use of water, and shall prescribe the time and manner of payment. The income of the water works shall be applied to defraying all operating expenses, interest charges, and payments on the principal as they accrue, upon any bonds or notes issued under authority of this act. If there should be a net surplus remaining after providing for the aforesaid charges, it shall be used for such new construction as the water commissioners may determine upon, and in case a surplus should remain after payment for such new construction, the water rates shall be reduced proportionately. No money shall be expended in new construction by the water commissioners except from the net surplus aforesaid, unless the town appropriates or provides money therefor. Said commissioners shall annually, and as often as the town may require, render a report upon the condition of the works under their charge, and an account of their doings, including an account of receipts and expenditures.

Net surplus to be used for new construction, etc.

Commission to render annual report.

SECTION 10. Any fire district now existing or hereafter established within the town of Yarmouth for the purpose of supplying the inhabitants thereof with water for the extinguishment of fires, for domestic, manufacturing and other purposes, shall have all the rights and privileges herein granted to, and be subject to all the obligations, duties and liabilities herein imposed upon, said town.

To apply to certain fire districts.

Act to be submitted to voters, etc.

SECTION 11. This act shall take effect upon its acceptance by a majority of the legal voters of the town present and voting thereon at any legal meeting called for the purpose within three years after its passage, but the number of meetings so called in any one year shall not exceed three; and for the purpose of being submitted to the voters as aforesaid this act shall take effect upon its passage.

SECTION 1. The town of Milton may, at an annual meeting, elect by ballot a board of trustees consisting of three persons, male or female, for the purpose of managing and controlling the property, real and personal, bequeathed and devised to the town by the will of Edwin D. Wadsworth, late of Milton, and of expending the same in accordance with the terms of said will and for the other purposes hereinafter specified. When such board is first chosen, one third thereof shall be elected for one year, one third for two years and one third for three years, and thereafter one third shall be elected annually for a term of three years: pro- Proviso.

vided, however, that the town may, at any annual meeting, or at any special meeting called for the purpose increase the number of the board by an additional number, divisible by three, which number shall, at the next annual meeting thereafter, be elected one third for one year, one third for two years and one third for three years, and thereafter one third annually for a term of three years. The board shall, Board officers, election, appointment, etc.
 from its own number, annually choose a chairman, a secretary and a treasurer. The treasurer shall give a bond similar to that given by the town treasurer, in an amount and with sureties to the satisfaction of the selectmen. The board may appoint such other officers and agents as it thinks fit. Whenever a vacancy shall occur in said board by reason of death, resignation or otherwise, the remaining trustees shall fill the vacancy for the unexpired term. Vacancy, how filled.

SECTION 2. The board shall have the custody and management of said property, and shall invest and reinvest the same, and may add the income thereof to the principal and allow said property to accumulate until the same, with any other funds and revenues received by the board, shall, in the opinion of the board, be sufficient to establish and maintain a public hospital within the town of Milton, and when said property, funds and revenues in the custody and management of the board shall, in the opinion of the board, be sufficient for the purpose, or when the town at an annual meeting, or at a special meeting called for the purpose, shall direct the board so to do, the board shall establish a public hospital in said town, to be maintained under rules and regulations made by the board, from time to time, and may expend so much as may be necessary of the funds at any time in its custody and management in the purchase, in the name of the town, of such real and personal property as may be necessary for the establishment and maintenance of the hospital; and the hospital together with all funds and other property owned by the town relating thereto shall be in the custody and management of the board. Chap. 309 AN ACT RELATIVE TO THE NEW YORK, NEW HAVEN AND HARTFORD RAILROAD COMPANY, ITS HOLDING OF THE STOCKS AND SECURITIES OF OTHER CORPORATIONS AND ITS RELATION TO CERTAIN SUBSIDIARY COMPANIES.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

New York,
New Haven and Hartford Railroad Company authorized to hold stocks, etc., of certain other corporations.

SECTION 1. Subject to the conditions and restrictions hereinafter set forth, the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad Company (hereinafter called the New Haven company) is hereby authorized to own and hold the shares of capital stock, bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness which were in its treasury on the thirty-first day of December, nineteen hundred and sixteen, of the following corporations: —

Boston and Providence Railroad Corporation.
Central New England Railway Company.
Hartford and Connecticut Western Railroad Company.
The Harlem River and Port Chester Railroad Company.
Holyoke and Westfield Railroad Company.
New York Connecting Railroad Company.
New York, Ontario and Western Railway Company.
New York, Westchester and Boston Railway Company.
Norwich and Worcester Railroad Company.
Old Colony Railroad Company.
Providence and Worcester Railroad Company.
Providence, Warren and Bristol Railroad Company.
Rutland Railroad Company.
Wood River Branch Railroad Company.

Authority conditioned upon performance of certain duties.

The authority hereby given to own and hold the aforesaid stock, bonds, notes and other evidences of indebtedness is conditioned upon the performance by the New Haven company of the duties hereinafter imposed and said authority shall cease upon the failure of said company at any time to perform any of said duties.

SECTION 2. The New Haven company is hereby authorized, on or before the first day of January, nineteen hundred and eighteen, to take over and thereafter to hold and possess the assets, and to assume the liabilities other than capital stock and demand notes held by the New Haven company, of the New England Navigation Company, and shall thereupon cause said navigation company to be dissolved and its capital stock and the aforesaid notes to be cancelled: provided, however, that this authority shall not be exercised if said navigation company shall have added to its assets, other than cash and current assets, or shall have increased the book values of said assets subsequent to the thirty-first day of December, nineteen hundred and sixteen, or shall have added to its liabilities, other than current liabilities, subsequent to said date. Said assets shall be taken over by the New Haven company, without increase in book values, and the New Haven company, upon possession thereof, shall cause to be cancelled bonds of the New England Steamship Company included among said assets and amounting at par to three million dollars. So long as the New Haven company shall continue to hold, directly or indirectly, a controlling interest in the stock of the New England Steamship Company and in the stock of the Hartford and New York Transportation Company, it shall not permit either of said companies to exercise any corporate powers and franchises except such as are reasonably required for the management, operation, maintenance or improvement of steamship and barge lines and lighters; nor shall the New Haven company, so long as it continues to hold, directly or indirectly, a controlling interest in the stock of the Providence Securities Company, permit said company to exercise any corporate powers or franchises except such as are reasonably required to perform its obligation of transferring its registered debentures upon its books.

SECTION 3. The authority hereby given to own and hold stock, bonds, notes and other evidences of indebtedness of the Rutland Railroad Company shall cease at the expiration of five years from the date on which this act takes effect: provided, however, that the time within which the authority shall be effective may in either case, upon appli-

SECTION 4. The New Haven company is hereby authorized, on or before the first day of January, nineteen hundred and eighteen, to take over and possess the assets, and to assume the liabilities, other than capital stock and demand notes held by the New Haven company of the Millbrook Company, and shall thereupon cause said Millbrook Company to be dissolved and its capital stock and the aforesaid demand notes to be cancelled: provided, however, that this authority shall not be exercised if said Millbrook Company shall have added to its assets, other than cash and current assets, or shall have increased the book values of said assets subsequent to the thirty-first day of December, nineteen hundred and sixteen, or shall have added to its liabilities, other than current liabilities, subsequent to said date. Said assets shall be taken over by the New Haven company at a value determined by decreasing their book value by an amount equal to the difference between the face value of the demand notes of said Millbrook Company held by the New Haven company, plus accrued interest thereon, and the value of said demand notes and accrued interest as carried upon the books of the New Haven company.

Massachusetts street railway companies may purchase certain lines in Connecticut.

Proviso.

SECTION 5. Any Massachusetts street railway company operating a line of railway which connects with any one of the following street railway lines now owned by the New Haven company and situated in the state of Connecticut, may purchase or lease, hold and operate such line of railway with which it connects and the franchise thereof: provided, that the terms of the purchase or lease shall be agreed to by a majority of the directors and two thirds in interest of the stockholders of such Massachusetts street railway company, and shall be approved by the public service commission after notice and a public hearing: —

(a) The line extending from Canaan to the Massachusetts-Connecticut state line.

(b) The line extending from Suffield to the Massachusetts-Connecticut state line.

(c) The line extending from West Thompson to the Massachusetts-Connecticut state line.

SECTION 6. The purchase by the New Haven company in the year nineteen hundred and eight of the properties of the Roxbury Central Wharf and the South Bay Wharf and Terminal Company is hereby ratified and confirmed, upon condition, however, that the New Haven company shall cause said Roxbury Central Wharf and said South Bay Wharf and Terminal Company to be dissolved as soon as practicable.

Certain purchase by New Haven company ratified and confirmed. Dissolution.

SECTION 7. The New Haven company shall appoint a special committee of its directors to have charge of the sale of all real estate owned by it which is not used for the purposes of a common carrier and said committee shall report to the public service commission at the end of each fiscal year, in such detail as the commission may prescribe, the amount and character of such real estate owned within the commonwealth and the steps which have been taken during the year to effect a sale. If said commission shall at any time be of the opinion that the delay in disposing of said real estate within the commonwealth is unreasonable, it shall notify the attorney-general to that effect.

Company to appoint special committee of directors, etc.

Unreasonable delay may be reported to attorney-general.

SECTION 8. The New Haven company is hereby prohibited from declaring or paying dividends upon its common stock in excess of five per cent per annum until (a) all the sales have been made of stock, bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness of other corporations or associations or of other property required by the decree of the United States court for the southern district of New York, entered the seventeenth day of October, nineteen hundred and fourteen, as the same is now or may hereafter be modified; until (b) it shall have caused to be cancelled the bonds of the New York, Westchester and Boston Railway Company which it held on the thirty-first day of December, nineteen hundred and sixteen, amounting at par to two million one hundred and ninety thousand dollars, and shall have reduced the book value of the notes of said railway company which it holds to one dollar, and the book value of the stock of said railway company which it holds by three million dollars; and until (c) the public service commission shall have certified that, beginning with the thirtieth day of June, nineteen hundred and thirteen, an amount has been appropriated from the earnings of the New Haven company, or has been paid on notes of the New York, Westchester and Boston Railway Company reduced to the book value of one dollar, and has been used for additions and improvements to the property of the New Haven company, or for the retirement of floating indebtedness which said company may lawfully fund by an issue of stock or bonds, which is equal to the net amount of any losses upon the sale of securities under the aforesaid decree of the United States court, plus the net amount of any book loss resulting from the dissolution of the New England Navigation Company and of the Millbrook Company, plus the amount of the reduction in the book value of the holdings of the New Haven company in the securities of the New York, Westchester and Boston Railway Company hereinbefore provided for.

Subsidiary companies restricted in issues of stocks, bonds, etc., unless, etc.

SECTION 9. The New Haven company shall not permit any company which it controls, directly or indirectly, through the ownership of stock to issue any additional shares of capital stock, bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness payable at periods of more than twelve months after the date thereof, unless such issue shall have been approved by a commission of the state in which such company is incorporated having jurisdiction thereof, or, in the absence of statutory provision for such approval, unless such issue shall have been approved as consistent with the public interest by the public service commission.

Public service commission to approve acquisition of additional stock by New Haven company.

SECTION 10. The New Haven company may hereafter acquire and hold additional stock, bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness of any corporation whose stocks and securities it is authorized by sections one and two of this act to hold; but no such acquisition shall be made until the public service commission, after notice and a public hearing, shall have approved the acquisition and the conditions thereof as consistent with the public interest: provided, however, that such approval shall not be required if such corporation is incorporated or organized in another state or states in which the New Haven company is incorporated and not in this commonwealth, and if such acquisition is authorized by the laws of such other state or states and shall have been approved by a commission or commissions in such other state or states having jurisdiction thereof; but all such acquisitions shall be reported to the public service commission. The New Haven company may make loans to any such corporation without securing the approval of the public service commission, but only for the purpose of enabling such corporation to meet operating expenses, to pay dividends guaranteed by the New Haven company upon stock in the hands of the public, to pay interest on outstanding indebtedness or to pay taxes or assessments; provided, however, that the value of the evidence of any such indebtedness of any such corporation shall be reduced upon the books of the New Haven company to a value of not more than one dollar by a charge to profit and loss. Proviso.

SECTION 11. Nothing contained in this act shall be construed as authorizing the New Haven company to continue to hold any assets of the New England Navigation Company which must be disposed of in accordance with the decree of the district court of the United States for the southern district of New York, entered on the seventeenth day of October, nineteen hundred and fourteen, beyond the dates specified for such disposition; nor shall anything contained in this act be construed as authorizing the New Haven company to continue to hold, directly or indirectly, any shares of stock, bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness of the New England Steamship Company, of the Hartford and New York Transportation Company, or of the New Bedford, Martha's Vineyard and Nantucket Steamboat Company if the New Haven company is at any time required to dispose of its interest in these companies under the provisions of the act of congress of August twenty-fourth, nineteen hundred and twelve, known as the "Panama Canal Act"; nor shall anything in sections eight, nine and ten of this act be construed as placing on the New Haven company any duty or obligation or restriction contrary to any law of the United States now or hereafter in force, or as abridging the rights of said company to avail itself of any rights and powers which may be conferred upon it by any such law. Not to apply to assets of certain corporations now in litigation, etc.

SECTION 12. Nothing contained in this act shall be construed as a finding by the commonwealth that the book values at which the New Haven company is permitted by this act to hold certain assets are the intrinsic values of said assets, or that the New Haven company may justly and reasonably charge such rates and fares as may be necessary to enable it to pay dividends of five per cent per annum upon its common stock. Act, how construed.

SECTION 13. Chapter seven hundred and sixty-five of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and thirteen is hereby repealed. Repeal.

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE TOWN OF GOSNOLD TO SUPPLY ITSELF WITH WATER. Chap.314

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. The town of Gosnold may supply itself and its inhabitants with water for the extinguishment of fires and for domestic and other purposes; may establish fountains and hydrants, and re-locate or discontinue the same; and may regulate the use of such water, and fix and collect rates to be paid therefor.

Town of Gosnold may supply itself with water.

SECTION 2. The said town, for the purposes aforesaid, may take, or acquire by purchase or otherwise, and hold the waters of any pond or stream, or of any ground sources of supply, by means of driven, artesian, or other wells within the limits of the town, and the water rights connected with any such water sources, and may also take, or acquire by purchase or otherwise, and hold, all lands, rights of way or easements, necessary for collecting, storing, purifying and preserving the water and for conveying the same to any part of said town: provided, however, that no source of water supply and no lands necessary for preserving the quality of the water shall be taken without first obtaining the advice and approval of the state department of health, and that the situation of all dams, reservoirs and wells to be used as sources of water supply under this act shall be subject to the approval of said department. Said town may construct on the lands acquired or held under the provisions of this act, proper dams, reservoirs, stand-pipes, tanks, buildings, fixtures, or other structures, and may make excavations, procure and operate machinery, and provide such other means and appliances, and do such other things as may be necessary for the establishment and maintenance of complete and effective water works; and for the said purposes may construct wells and reservoirs and establish pumping works, and may construct, lay and maintain aqueducts, conduits, pipes and other works under or over any land, water courses, public or other ways, and along such ways in the town of Gosnold, in such manner as not unnecessarily to obstruct the same; and for the purpose of constructing, laying, maintaining, operating and repairing such conduits, pipes and other works, and for all the purposes of this act, said town may dig up or raise and embank any such lands, highways or other ways in such manner as to cause the least hindrance to public travel. Said town shall have the right to enter upon any lands for the purpose of making surveys, test pits, and borings, and may occupy temporarily any lands necessary for the construction of any works, or for any other purposes authorized by this act.

SECTION 3. Said town shall, within ninety days after the taking of any lands, rights of way, water rights, water sources or easements, as aforesaid, file and cause to be recorded in the registry of deeds for Dukes County a description thereof sufficiently specific for identification with a statement of the purpose for which the same were taken, signed by the water commissioners hereinafter provided for. The title to all land purchased or taken under the provisions of this act shall vest in the town of Gosnold, and the land so acquired may be managed, improved and controlled by the water commissioners, hereinafter provided for, in such manner as they shall deem for the best interest of the town.

SECTION 4. Said town shall pay all damages to property sustained by any person or corporation by the taking of any land, right of way, water, water source, water right or easement, or by any other thing done by the town under authority of this act. Any person or corporation sustaining damages as aforesaid, who fails to agree with the town as to the amount thereof, may have the same determined in the manner provided by law in the case of land taken for the laying out of highways on application at any time within the period of two years after the taking of such land or other property, or the doing of other injury under the authority of this act; but no such application shall be made after the expiration of the said two years, and no assessment of damages shall be made for the taking of any water or water right, or for any injury thereto, and said period of two years shall not begin to run until the water is actually withdrawn or diverted by the town under the authority of this act. Said town may by vote from time to time determine what amount of water it proposes to take under this act; in which case any damages caused by such taking shall be based upon the said amount until the same shall be increased by vote or otherwise, and in that event the town shall be liable further only for the additional damages caused by such additional taking. Damages, how determined, etc.

SECTION 5. Said town, for the purpose of paying the necessary expenses and liabilities incurred under the provision of this act, may appropriate a sufficient sum of money, and raise the same by taxation; and for the purposes aforesaid the town may borrow a sum not exceeding ten thousand dollars, and may issue therefor, from time to time, bonds or notes. Such bonds or notes shall bear on their face the words, Town of Gosnold Water Loan, Act of 1917, and shall be payable by such annual payments, beginning not more than one year after their respective dates, as will extinguish each loan within thirty years after its date; and the amount of such annual payment of any loan in any year shall not be less than the amount of the principal of said loan payable in any subsequent year. Each authorized issue of bonds or notes shall constitute a separate loan. Said bonds or notes shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding five per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, and shall be signed by the treasurer of the town and countersigned by a majority of the water commissioners hereinafter provided for. The town may sell the said securities at Town of Gosnold Water Loan, Act of 1917.

public or private sale upon such terms and conditions as it may deem proper, but not for less than their par value, and the proceeds shall be used only for the purposes herein specified.

Payment of
loan.

SECTION 6. Said town shall, at the time of authorizing said loan or loans, provide for the payment thereof in accordance with section five of this act; and when a vote to that effect has been passed, a sum, which, with the income derived from water rates, will be sufficient to pay the annual expense of operating its water works and the interest as it accrues on the bonds or notes issued as aforesaid, and to make such payments on the principal as may be required under the provisions of this act, shall, without further vote, be assessed by the assessors of the town annually thereafter, in the same manner as other taxes, until the debt incurred by said loan or loans is extinguished.

water, etc.

SECTION 7. Whoever wilfully or wantonly corrupts, pollutes, or diverts any water taken or held under this act, or injures any structure, work, or other property owned, held, or used by said town under the authority of this act shall forfeit and pay to the town three times the amount of damages assessed therefor, to be recovered in an action of tort; and upon being convicted of any of the above wilful or wanton acts shall be punished by a fine not exceeding three hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in jail for a term not exceeding one year.

Selectmen to constitute a
commissioners.

SECTION 8. The selectmen of the town of Gosnold shall constitute a board of water commissioners. All the authority granted to said town by this act or by the provisions of general or special laws in relation to a public water supply, and not otherwise specifically provided for, shall be vested in said water commissioners, who shall be subject, however, to such instructions, rules, or regulations as the town may impose by its vote. A majority of said commissioners shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

To fix water
rates, etc.

SECTION 9. Said commissioners shall fix just and equitable prices and rates for the use of water, and shall prescribe the time and manner of payment, but such rates may be increased or reduced by vote of the town. The income of the water works shall be applied to defraying all operating expenses, interest charges, and payments on the principal as they accrue on any bonds or notes issued under authority of this act. If there is a net surplus remaining after providing for the aforesaid charges, it shall be used for such new construction as the water commissioners shall determine upon, and in case a surplus should remain after payment for such new construction the water rates shall be reduced proportionately. No money shall be expended in new construction by the water commissioners except from the net surplus aforesaid, unless the town appropriates and provides money therefor. Said commissioners shall annually, and as often as the town may require, render a report upon the condition of the works under their charge, and an account of their doings, including an account of receipts and expenditures.

Annual report.

SECTION 10. This act shall take effect upon its acceptance by a majority of the legal voters of the town of Gosnold present and voting thereon at a legal meeting called for the purpose within three years after its passage; but the number of meetings so called in any one year shall not exceed three. For the purpose of being submitted to the voters as aforesaid this act shall take effect upon its passage.

To be submitted to voters, etc.

TITLE II.

TOWN OFFICERS.

ARTICLE I. ELECTIVE TOWN OFFICERS.

Selectmen.

Selectmen,
election,
vacancies,
how filled, etc.

SECTION 4. At the annual town election in the year nineteen hundred and eighteen, the voters of the town shall elect, by ballot, five selectmen, two of whom shall be chosen for the term of three years, two for the term of two years, and one for the term of one year; and, at each annual meeting thereafter, they shall elect, for the term of three years, either one or two selectmen, accordingly as the term of one or two selectmen is about to expire. Should a vacancy occur in the office of selectmen, the remaining selectmen shall within fourteen days thereafter, call a town meeting to fill it for the residue of the term. If, however, it occurs on or after the first day of November, and if as many as three selectmen remain in office, it shall not be filled until the next annual meeting.

Transfer of Powers and Abolition of Offices.

SECTION 5. Upon the election and qualification of the five selectmen, as provided in section four, all the powers, rights, duties and liabilities conferred or imposed by general laws, or by special laws relating to the town of Winchester, or by the by-laws of said town, upon the water and sewer board, the park commissioners, the cemetery commissioners, the surveyors of highways, and the tree warden shall be transferred to, and conferred and imposed upon the selectmen. Thereupon, the offices of water and sewer board, park commissioners, cemetery commissioners, surveyors of highways and tree warden shall be abolished in the town of Winchester. In acting as cemetery commissioners, however, it shall not be necessary for the selectmen, or a majority thereof, to be owners of lots in Wildwood or any other public cemetery, anything in section one of chapter one hundred and forty-six of the acts of the year eighteen hundred and eighty-nine to the contrary notwithstanding.

Finance Commission.

SECTION 6. At the annual town election in the year nineteen hundred and eighteen, the voters shall elect, by ballot, five voters of the town to be members of the finance commission, one of whom shall be chosen for the term of three years, two for the term of two years and two for the term of one year; and, at each annual meeting thereafter, they shall elect, for the term of three years, either one or two finance commissioners accordingly as the term of one or two of such commissioners is about to expire. A vacancy in said commission shall be filled in the manner provided in section four hundred and twenty-nine of chapter eight hundred and thirty-five of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and thirteen for filling vacancies in a board consisting of two or more members. Upon the election and qualification of the finance commission first chosen after the acceptance of this act, the finance committee authorized by section two of article two of the by-laws of the town of Winchester shall be abolished.

Finance commission,
election, terms
of office, etc.

Duties of Finance Commission.

SECTION 7. The finance commission shall, annually, on or before the thirty-first day of December, prepare and publish with the warrant for the annual town meeting, an estimate in writing of the probable amount required for the expenditures of the town government for the next ensuing fiscal year, stating in detail the amounts of maturing bonds or notes, the amount required for interest or other outstanding indebtedness of the town and the amount necessary to be provided for each fund and department. It shall also, at the same time, prepare and publish as aforesaid an estimate in writing of the amount of income from all sources of revenue, and of the probable amount required to be levied and raised by taxation to defray all the expenses and liabilities of the town. It shall consider such articles in the warrant for any town meeting as contemplate, directly or indirectly, the appropriation or expenditure of money, and shall report its recommendations thereon, in print, to the meeting. It shall have the same powers as the finance or appropriation committee to vote transfers from the reserve fund authorized by the provisions of chapter six hundred and forty-five of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and thirteen. It shall make an annual report, which shall be published as a part of the annual town report, setting forth the matters considered by it during the fiscal year preceding that in which the report is published, and making such recommendations as appear to be necessary or appropriate respecting the finances of the town and the measures to be taken with reference thereto. Three members of said commission shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Estimates and Information to be Given to Commission.

Estimates,
etc., to be submitted.

SECTION 8. All officers, boards and committees of the town shall, annually, on or before the thirtieth day of November, submit to the finance commission in writing a detailed estimate of appropriations required for the administration of their respective boards, committees or departments during the next ensuing fiscal year, and shall, at any time, upon its request in writing, furnish to it all information in their possession relative to the administration of their respective boards, committees or departments.

Powers to Compel Attendance and Testimony of Witnesses.

May compel attendance of witnesses, etc.

SECTION 9. The finance commission shall have power to require the attendance and testimony of witnesses before it, and the production of all books and documents which may be necessary or material to the performance of its duties or relevant to any matter within the scope of such investigations as it is authorized or required to make. Such witnesses may be summoned in the same manner, and be paid the same fees, as witnesses before police, district and municipal courts. The chairman or any other member of the commission may administer oaths or take the affirmations of witnesses who appear before it. The commission may prescribe reasonable rules for the despatch of its business, for the conduct of hearings and the giving of testimony before it. If any person so summoned and paid shall refuse to attend, or to be sworn, or to affirm, or to answer any question, or to produce any book or document which is material to a matter under consideration by the finance commission, a justice of the supreme judicial court or of the superior court may, in his discretion, upon application by said commission, compel such person to give testimony before it, in the same manner and to the same extent as before said courts. Failure to comply with an order of the court made under the provisions of this section may be punished by the court as a contempt thereof.

Penalty for failure to comply, etc.

Employment of Assistance.

SECTION 10. The finance commission may employ such experts, counsel and other assistants and incur such other expenses as it may deem necessary, to an amount not exceeding three hundred dollars in any one year unless a larger amount shall be appropriated for that purpose by the town.

Employment of assistance.

Investigation of Excessive or Invalid Claims.

SECTION 11. If any pay roll, bill or other claim against the town is presented to the selectmen or school committee, which they deem to be of doubtful validity, excessive in amount, or detrimental to the interests of the town, they shall refer it to the finance commission which shall forthwith investigate the matter and report thereon to the board or committee by whom it was referred; and pending their report, payment of said claim shall be withheld.

Excessive or invalid claims.

Investigation.

School Committee.

SECTION 12. At the annual town election in the year nineteen hundred and eighteen, the voters shall elect by ballot, five members of the school committee, two of whom shall be chosen for the term of three years, one for the term of two years, and two for the term of one year; and annually, thereafter, they shall elect, for the term of three years, either one or two members accordingly as the term of one or two members is about to expire. A vacancy in the school committee shall be filled in the manner provided in section four hundred and twenty-nine of chapter eight hundred and thirty-five of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and thirteen for filling vacancies in a board consisting of two or more members.

School committee, election, terms of office, etc.

Powers and Duties of School Committee.

SECTION 13. Upon the election and qualification of the five members of the school committee, all the powers, rights, duties and liabilities, except as hereinafter provided, which now are, or may hereafter be, conferred or imposed by law upon school committees shall pertain to the school committee so elected under the provisions of the preceding section.

Powers and duties.

ARTICLE II. APPOINTIVE TOWN OFFICERS.

Town Clerk.

Appointive
town officers,
town clerk.

SECTION 14. The selectmen shall annually in February, beginning with the year nineteen hundred and eighteen, appoint a town clerk for the term of one year from the following first day of March; and shall, within thirty days after a vacancy occurs in the office, fill the same by appointment for the residue of the term. The town clerk shall, in addition to his duties prescribed by general laws, act as clerk, and keep the records of the board of selectmen, the assessors and the board of relief and perform such other duties as the selectmen may require of him. He may, in accordance with the provisions of section sixty-two of chapter twenty-five of the Revised Laws, appoint an assistant clerk. He may under the direction of the selectmen employ such clerical assistance as may be necessary for the proper performance of his duties, but he shall incur no expense therefor on behalf of the town in excess of the amount appropriated therefor.

Treasurer and Collector.

Treasurer and collector.

SECTION 15. The selectmen shall annually in February, beginning with the year nineteen hundred and eighteen, appoint a treasurer and collector of taxes for the term of one year from the following first day of March; and shall, within thirty days after a vacancy occurs in said office, fill the same by appointment for the residue of the term.

Auditor.

Auditor.

SECTION 16. The finance commission shall annually in February, beginning with the year nineteen hundred and eighteen, appoint an auditor for the term of one year from the following first day of March; and shall, within thirty days after a vacancy occurs in said office, fill the same by appointment for the residue of the term.

Assessors.

SECTION 17. The selectmen shall, in February of the year nineteen hundred and eighteen, appoint three assessors, one of whom shall be appointed for the term of one year, one for the term of two years, and one for the term of three years from the first day of March of that year; and annually thereafter, the selectmen shall, in February, appoint an assessor for the term of three years from the following first day of March; and may at any time appoint one or more assistant assessors for a term not exceeding one year. A vacancy in the board of assessors shall forthwith be filled by appointment for the residue of the term. Each assessor and assistant assessor shall, within seven days after his appointment, and before he enters upon the performance of his official duties, take the oath required by section sixty-eight of chapter twenty-five of the Revised Laws, except that he shall substitute the word — appointed — for the word “chosen”; and, if he neglects to take the oath within the required time, the selectmen shall declare the appointment void and proceed forthwith to make a new appointment. The oath may be administered by the chairman or any other member of the board of selectmen, and a record thereof shall be made in the records of the selectmen.

Board of Relief.

SECTION 18. The selectmen shall, in February of the year nineteen hundred and eighteen, appoint a board of relief consisting of three persons, one of whom shall be appointed for the term of one year, one for the term of two years and one for the term of three years from the first day of March in that year; and annually thereafter, in February, the selectmen shall appoint a member of the board of relief for the term of three years from the following first day of March. A vacancy in the board shall be filled by appointment for the residue of the term. Women shall be eligible to appointment to the board. Said board shall succeed to, and perform the duties and exercise the powers of, overseers of the poor, and may employ one or more persons qualified by training or experience to act as agents or assistants.

Board of Health.

health.

SECTION 19. The selectmen shall, in February of the year nineteen hundred and eighteen, appoint a board of health consisting of three persons, one of whom shall be a registered physician, and one of whom shall be appointed for the term of one year, one for the term of two years and one for the term of three years from the first day of March in that year; and annually, thereafter, in February, the selectmen shall appoint a member of the board of health for the term of three years from the following first day of March. A vacancy in the board shall be filled by appointment for the residue of the term.

Library Trustees.

Library
trustees.

SECTION 20. The selectmen shall, in February of the year nineteen hundred and eighteen, appoint three library trustees, one of whom shall be appointed for the term of one year, one for the term of two years, and one for the term of three years from the first day of March in that year; and annually thereafter, in February, the selectmen shall appoint a library trustee for the term of three years from the following first day of March. A vacancy in the board of library trustees shall be filled by appointment for the residue of the term.

Planning Board.

Planning board.

SECTION 21. The selectmen shall in February of the year nineteen hundred and eighteen appoint a planning board consisting of five persons, two of whom shall be appointed for the term of three years, two for the term of two years, and one for the term of one year; and, annually thereafter, the selectmen shall, in February, appoint for the term of three years one or two members of said board, accordingly as the term of one or two members thereof is about to expire. A vacancy in the board shall be filled by appointment for the residue of the term.

Constables.

Constables.

SECTION 22. The selectmen shall annually, in February, beginning with the year nineteen hundred and eighteen, appoint two constables, each for the term of one year from the following first day of March; and may, at any time, appoint so many additional constables as, in their opinion, may be necessary, who shall hold office during the pleasure of the selectmen.

Town Manager.

SECTION 23. The selectmen shall, as soon as may be in the year nineteen hundred and eighteen, and from time to time thereafter as the office becomes vacant, appoint an agent who shall be known as town manager. He shall be chosen without regard to his political opinions and with particular reference to his professional or scientific education and training as well as to his administrative capacity and experience; and, at the time of his appointment he need not be a resident either of the town of Winchester or of the commonwealth. He shall hold the office at the pleasure of the selectmen, and, during such time, he shall hold no other elective or appointive office, nor shall he be engaged in any other business or occupation. He shall be, subject to the supervision, direction and control of the selectmen, the executive head of all departments of the town government the control of which is by the general laws or by the provisions of this or any other special act relating to the town of Winchester vested in the board of selectmen, and he shall be responsible for their efficient administration. The selectmen may, from time to time, delegate such executive duties to, or withdraw them from, the town manager as they deem expedient. Before entering upon the performance of his official duties he shall be sworn to the faithful performance thereof by the chairman of the selectmen or by the town clerk, and a record thereof shall be made in the records of the selectmen or of the town clerk, as the case may be. He shall give bond to the town in such sum, upon such conditions and with such surety or sureties as the selectmen may require and approve. The expense of procuring a surety company as surety on his bond shall be defrayed by the town. Pending the appointment of a town manager or the filling of a vacancy, the selectmen may employ a temporary town manager who shall have all the powers of a permanent town manager during a vacancy in the office and who shall be removable at the pleasure of the selectmen.

Powers and Duties of the Town Manager.

Powers and duties of town manager.

SECTION 24. The duties of the town manager shall be:

(a) To organize, continue, or discontinue, such divisions or departments as the selectmen may from time to time determine; or, in default of such determination, as he himself may determine to be required for the efficient administration of town affairs; and to exercise control over them.

(b) To keep full and complete records of his official acts, and to publish a succinct and comprehensive report thereof in the annual town report.

(c) To keep the selectmen fully informed as to the needs of the town so far as they relate to such of its affairs as are under his supervision or control, and to make a full report to them on any matters relating to such affairs whenever they so require.

(d) To submit to the selectmen, annually, on or before the thirtieth day of November, a detailed estimate in writing of the appropriations required during the next ensuing fiscal year for the administration of all divisions or departments under his supervision or control.

(e) To attend regular meetings of the selectmen whenever his attendance would be, in his opinion, expedient, and to attend regular and special meetings of the selectmen, whenever his attendance is required by them, and to recommend to them the adoption of such measures as he may deem necessary.

(f) Except as is otherwise provided by this act, to make all appointments and fix all salaries and wages in the divisions or departments under his supervision or control which the selectmen may or are required to make or fix under the provisions of law or of the by-laws of the town, but he shall make such appointments upon merit and fitness alone and irrespective of political opinion.

(g) To remove for sufficient cause any persons whom he is authorized to appoint or employ, except such as may be under the civil service rules of the commonwealth, but not to remove superintendents or chiefs of divisions or departments, except after seven days' notice in writing to them, and to the selectmen, of the reason for the removal.

(h) To suspend forthwith from the performance of his official duties, if the public service so requires, a chief of division or department who has been notified of his removal. Same subject.

(i) To keep in repair all buildings belonging to the town.

(j) To purchase all the supplies for every department of the town, except books for the public library, school books and school supplies.

(k) To examine or cause to be examined, with or without notice, as he may deem best, the affairs of any division or department under his control, or the conduct of any officer or employee thereof.

(l) To perform such other duties consistent with his office as may be required of him by the selectmen.

ARTICLE III. GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATIVE TO TOWN OFFICERS.

Plurality of Offices Regulated.

SECTION 25. A member of the board of selectmen, of the school committee or of the finance commission shall, during the term for which he has been elected, be ineligible, either by election or appointment to any other town office except under a temporary appointment as provided by section thirty. The acceptance of the office of selectman, school committee or finance commissioner by a person holding any appointive town office, shall, of itself, operate as a resignation of the appointive office then held by him. Any person, except the town manager, who may be appointed by the selectmen to any town office under the provisions of the general laws or of this act, shall be eligible during the term of said office to appointment to any other town office. Plurality of offices regulated.

General Powers and Duties.

SECTION 26. All the officers, boards, committees or commissions of the town of Winchester whose election or appointment is authorized or required by this act shall have and enjoy all such powers, rights and privileges, and be subject to all such duties, liabilities and penalties, as now are or may hereafter be conferred or imposed by general laws upon similar officers, boards, committees or commissions, so far as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this act. General powers and duties of town officers, etc.

Tenure of Office.

Tenure of office of certain officials.

SECTION 27. Selectmen, members of the school committee and members of the finance commission, whether chosen for a full term or to fill a vacancy, shall serve until their successors are chosen and qualified; and all other officers, members of boards or committees, whether appointed for a full term or to fill a vacancy, shall serve until their successors are appointed and qualified.

Selectmen,
how removed by the voters.

Any selectman may be removed at any time by the voters qualified to vote in town affairs. The procedure to effect his removal shall be as follows: A petition signed by legal voters, equal in number to at least twenty-five per cent of the total vote cast at the last preceding annual town election, demanding an election of a successor to the person sought to be removed, shall be filed with the town clerk, which petition shall contain a general statement of the grounds on which the removal is sought. Each signer shall add to his signature his place of residence, giving the street, and number, if any. One of the signers of the petition shall make oath before the town clerk that the signatures thereon are true as he believes, and that each signature appended is the genuine signature of the person whose name it purports to be. Within ten days after the filing of the petition, the registrars of voters shall examine and ascertain whether or not the petition is signed by the requisite number of qualified voters, and shall attach to the petition their certificate showing the result of their examination. If the petition shall be deemed to be sufficient, the registrars of voters shall submit the same to the selectmen without delay, whereupon the selectmen shall fix a date for holding the election, not less than thirty nor more than forty days after the date of the registrars' certificate to the selectmen that a sufficient petition is filed. The selectmen shall cause proper notice of the election to be published, and shall make all necessary arrangements for holding the election. The election shall be conducted in all respects as are other town elections. The successor of any selectman so removed shall hold office during the unexpired term of his predecessor. Any person sought to be removed may be a candidate to succeed himself, and, unless he request otherwise in writing, his name shall be placed on the official ballot without nomination. In any such removal election the candidate receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected.

Registrars of voters, duties when petition
is filed, etc.

Person sought to be removed may be a candidate.

If at such election some other person than the incumbent receives the highest number of votes, the incumbent shall be deemed removed from office upon the qualification of his successor. If the incumbent receives the highest number of votes, he shall continue in office. No removal petition shall be filed against any selectman within three months after his election, nor, in the case of a selectman re-elected in a removal election, within three months after his re-election.

Choice at election, how decided.

Resignation of Town Officers.

SECTION 28. Any town officer may resign his office by filing a resignation thereof in the office of the town clerk, and the resignation shall be effective forthwith unless a different time is specified therein. The selectmen may however, under the provisions of the following section, remove an appointive town officer whose resignation is made to take effect in the future, if they see fit so to do.

Resignation of town officers.

Removal of Appointive Officers.

SECTION 29. The selectmen or the finance commission may, for sufficient cause, remove from office any town officer whose appointment by them is specifically authorized by this act. The reasons for such removal shall be set forth in detail in the records of the selectmen, or of the finance commission, as the case may be, and shall forthwith be communicated in writing to the officer so removed, but the removal shall not take effect until seven days after the vote therefor, although the officer may forthwith be suspended from the performance of his official duties. If within the said seven days, he so requests, the selectmen or finance commission, as the case may be, shall give him a hearing, in which case the removal shall not take effect until after a decision in writing adverse to him is filed with the town clerk. If the decision is favorable to him, and he has been suspended, he shall forthwith be reinstated in his office. A decision by a majority of the selectmen or of the finance commission, as the case may be, shall be final.

Removal of appointive officers.

Appointment of Temporary Officers.

SECTION 30. If, by reason of removal from office, or otherwise, a vacancy occurs in a town office, which the selectmen or finance commission are authorized by the Appointment of temporary officers.

Temporary appointment,
renewal, etc.

provisions of this act to fill by appointment, the selectmen or finance commission, as the case may be, may, pending the permanent filling of such vacancy, make a temporary appointment to the office for a period of not more than thirty days; and may, for sufficient cause, renew such temporary appointment for a further period of not more than thirty days. An officer so appointed temporarily shall be subject to all requirements of law which apply to the permanent incumbent of the office.

Salaries and Compensation.

Salaries, etc.

SECTION 31. The town clerk, treasurer and collector, assessors and town manager shall receive such compensation for their services as the selectmen shall determine, not exceeding the amounts appropriated therefor by the town. The compensation of the auditor shall be determined by the town. Members of boards, committees or commissions shall receive no salary or compensation, unless the town determines otherwise.

Chairmen.

Chairmen,
how chosen.

SECTION 32. The board of selectmen, the school committee and the finance commission shall, in February of each year, and the assessors, board of relief, board of health, library trustees and planning board shall, in March of each year, choose a chairman from their own number.

Town Officers to Receive no Gifts or Bonus.

Town officers not to make contracts with the town, or receive any gift, bonus, etc.

SECTION 33. No officer of the town of Winchester whose election or appointment is authorized by the provisions of this act shall, directly or indirectly, make a contract with the town, or receive any commission, discount, bonus, gift, contribution or reward from, or share in the profits of, any contract with the town made by any other person or by a corporation, unless he shall, immediately upon learning that such contract has been made or is proposed to be made, give notice in writing to the finance commission thereof and of the nature of his interest therein, and shall thereafter abstain from performing any official act on behalf of the town relative thereto. If it becomes the duty of any such officer of the town to make a contract on behalf of the town in which he would have a pecuniary interest, it may, if he is a member of a board or committee, be made by the remaining members of such board or committee, if they are disinterested and impartial, and if he is a sole officer, it shall be made by such other town officer as the selectmen may designate. Any contract made in violation of the provisions of this section shall be voidable at the election of the selectmen and finance commission acting jointly, and whoever violates the provisions of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

TITLE III.

EFFECT OF ACT.

Acceptance of Act.

SECTION 34. This act shall be submitted to the registered voters of the town of Winchester for their acceptance or rejection at the state election in November in the year nineteen hundred and seventeen. The vote shall be taken in answer to the following question which shall be printed on the official ballot: — "Shall an act passed by the general court in the year nineteen hundred and seventeen entitled 'An Act to change the time of holding the annual meeting of the town of Winchester, to enlarge the powers and duties of the selectmen, to abolish certain offices and to provide for the administration of town affairs' be accepted?" If it shall be accepted by a majority of the registered voters voting thereon by ballot, it shall thereupon take effect; otherwise it shall be void.

SECTION 35. The town clerk shall, not less than two weeks before the election required by the preceding section, transmit to every registered voter in the town a copy of this act; and, if this act is accepted as above provided, the town clerk, the selectmen, and every other town officer upon whom, by virtue of his office, a duty devolves or is imposed by the provisions of this act shall comply with all its requirements relative to elections to the end that all things may be done which are necessary for the nomination and election of the officers first to be elected hereunder.

SECTION 36. Upon the election and qualification of the selectmen and school committee chosen in the year nineteen hundred and eighteen, the offices of the then selectmen and school committee shall forthwith cease and determine. All other officers of the town at that time shall hold office and continue to serve until the following first day of March and until their successors provided for by this act shall have been appointed and qualified.

Existing Rights Preserved.

Existing rights
preserved.

SECTION 37. The provisions of this act shall not affect any act heretofore done, ratified or confirmed by the town of Winchester or any of its officers, nor any right accrued or established, nor any action, suit or proceeding commenced or had in a civil case, nor shall it affect the acceptance by the voters of said town of any acts of the legislature except such acts as are partly or wholly repealed hereby, nor shall it impair the validity of any of the notes, bonds or other outstanding obligations of the town of Winchester at the time when it takes effect.

Repeal.

Repeal.

SECTION 38. So much of section four of chapter two hundred and sixty-five of the acts of the year eighteen hundred and seventy-two as requires the choice of commissioners, chapter three hundred and fifty-seven of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and six, and all other acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are, so far as they relate to the town of Winchester, hereby repealed; and section one of article one, section two of article two and sections one, two and three of article six of the by-laws of the town of Winchester are hereby annulled. All other by-laws of the town or regulations made by any of its officers or boards, so far as they are consistent with this act, shall continue in full force and effect until it is otherwise provided by law, by a by-law, by vote of the town, or by such officers or boards.

Date of Taking Effect.

Time of taking effect.

SECTION 39. So much of this act as requires the submission of the question of its acceptance to the voters of said town shall take effect upon its passage.

Revocation of Acceptance.

SECTION 40. At any time after the expiration of three years and within six years from the date on which this act is accepted, and not less than ninety days before the date of an annual meeting, a petition, signed by not less than fifteen per cent of the registered voters of the town, may be filed with the selectmen requesting that the question of revoking the acceptance of this act be submitted to the voters. Thereupon the selectmen shall call a town meeting to be held at a date not later than forty-five days after the filing of the petition, but not between or on the first day of June and the first Tuesday of September. At such meeting, the vote shall be taken in answer to the following question which shall be printed on the official ballot:— "Shall the acceptance by the town of Winchester of an act passed by the general court in the year nineteen hundred and seventeen, entitled 'An Act to change the time of holding the annual meeting of the town of Winchester, to enlarge the powers and duties of the selectmen, to abolish certain offices, and to provide for the administration of town affairs' be revoked?" If such revocation is favored by a majority of the voters voting thereon by ballot, the acceptance of this act shall be revoked from and after the date of the annual town meeting next following such vote. Such revocation shall not affect any contract then existing, or any action at law or suit in equity or other proceeding then pending. If such acceptance shall be revoked, as aforesaid, this act shall become null and void and thereafter all general laws respecting town government and town officers shall apply to the town of Winchester; and any special laws relative to said town which are repealed by this act shall be revived by such revocation. Any by-law in force when such revocation takes effect, so far as consistent with general laws respecting town government and town officers and with said special laws, shall not be affected thereby.

AN ACT RELATIVE TO THE DISPOSITION OF SEWAGE FROM
THE WORCESTER STATE HOSPITAL. Chap. 337

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one of chapter three hundred and sixty-three of the Special Acts of the year nineteen hundred and sixteen is hereby amended by inserting after the word "hospital", in the third line, the words:—subject to the approval of the commission on mental diseases, by striking out all after the word "purposes", in the tenth line, down to and including the word "dollars", in the fifteenth line, and inserting in place thereof the words:—In constructing the said system of sewerage the said trustees, subject to the approval of the commission on mental diseases, may expend a sum not exceeding nine thousand dollars; and by adding at the end thereof the words:—Said city shall not enter upon, construct or lay any conduits, pipes or other works within the location of a railroad corporation, except at such time and in such manner as it may agree upon with such corporation, or, in case of failure so to agree, as may be approved by the public service commission, — so as to read as follows:—Section 1. Upon the acceptance by the city of Worcester of the provisions of this act, as hereinafter

§ 1, amended.

Disposition of sewage from the state hospital.

provided, the trustees of the Worcester state hospital, subject to the approval of the commission on mental diseases, shall construct a system of sewerage connecting said hospital with the system of sewerage for said city, and may carry such sewers, drains, pipes and conduits as may be necessary for the purposes of this act under and along any street, railroad, railway, highway or other way, in such manner as not unnecessarily to obstruct the same, and may do any other thing necessary and proper for said purposes. In constructing the said system of sewerage the said trustees, subject to the approval of the commission on mental diseases, may expend a sum not exceeding nine thousand dollars: provided, however, that no such connection between the said hospital and the Worcester system of sewerage shall be made unless the state department of health, after making a thorough investigation of the sewerage conditions of the Blackstone river and the conditions surrounding the present method of disposal of the sewage of the said hospital, shall certify to the auditor of the commonwealth that it is desirable from the point of view of the public health that the Worcester state hospital shall be connected with the sewerage system of the city of Worcester. Said city shall not enter upon, construct or lay any conduits, pipes or other works within the location of a railroad corporation, except at such time and in such manner as it may agree upon with such corporation, or, in case of failure so to agree, as may be approved by the public service commission.

AN ACT TO REVISE THE CHARTER OF THE CITY OF LYNN. Chap.340

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. The inhabitants of the city of Lynn shall continue to be a body corporate and politic, under the name of the City of Lynn, and as such shall have, exercise and enjoy all the rights, powers, privileges and immunities, and shall be subject to all the duties and obligations provided for herein or by statute or otherwise pertaining to cities as municipal corporations. In addition to the powers enumerated above it shall have the power to own, buy, erect, maintain, lease and regulate wharves and docks, and charge wharfage and dockage.

Charter of city of Lynn revised.

SECTION 2. The territory of the city shall continue to be divided into seven wards, which shall retain their present boundaries until the same shall be changed in accordance with general law, but the number of wards shall never be less than seven.

Number of wards to remain seven.

SECTION 3. The chief executive officer of the city shall be a mayor, elected by and from the qualified voters of the election, etc.

city, for the term of two years from the first Monday of January following his election and until his successor is elected and qualified, except as is provided in section fifty-seven.

City council,
election, etc.

SECTION 4. The legislative powers of the city shall be vested in a city council, composed of eleven members, four of whom shall be elected at large by and from the qualified voters of the whole city, and seven from the several wards, to wit, one by and from the qualified voters of each ward. At the city election next after the acceptance of this act the two councillors elected at large who stand highest in respect to the number of votes cast at such election shall serve for two years, and the two next highest, for one year, from the first Monday of the following January. At said election, of the councillors elected from the several wards, four shall serve for one year, and three for two years, from said first Monday, as determined by lot drawn by the city clerk. At each annual election thereafter their respective successors shall be elected to serve for two years. A councillor shall, in all cases, serve until the election and qualification of his successor, except as is provided in section fifty-seven. The city council shall annually from its membership elect a president. Its clerk shall be the city clerk.

President and clerk.

Powers, etc., of mayor and
city council,
how exercised.

SECTION 5. The mayor and city council shall, except as is otherwise provided herein, have and exercise such powers and authority as are vested in mayors and city councils by the general laws of the commonwealth.

Preliminary election for nominating candidates,
etc.

SECTION 6. On the third Tuesday preceding every annual election at which any office mentioned in this act is to be filled, except as is otherwise provided in section fourteen, there shall be held a preliminary election for the purpose of nominating candidates therefor. No special election for mayor or any other officer shall be held until after the expiration of forty days from the calling of a preliminary election, except as is otherwise provided herein. At every annual, preliminary and special election the polls shall be opened at forty-five minutes past five o'clock in the forenoon, and shall remain open until four o'clock in the afternoon, and the laws of the commonwealth relative to annual city elections shall apply thereto, except as is otherwise specifically provided herein.

No other names to appear on official ballot.

SECTION 7. Except as is otherwise provided herein, there shall not be printed on the official ballot to be used at any annual or special election the name of any person as a candidate for any office unless such person has been nominated as such at a preliminary election for nomination, held as provided herein. There shall not be printed on the official ballot for use at such preliminary election the name of any candidate for nomination at such preliminary election, unless he shall have filed, within the time limited by section eight, the statement therein described.

SECTION 8. Any person who is qualified to vote for a candidate for any elective municipal office, and who is a candidate for nomination thereto, shall be entitled to have his name as such candidate printed on the official ballot to be used at a preliminary election: provided, that at least ten days prior to such preliminary election he shall file with the city clerk a statement in writing of his candidacy, and with it the petition of at least fifty voters, qualified to vote for a candidate for the said office. Said statement and petition shall be in substantially the following form: —

Who may be candidates.

Proviso.

Whereas (name of candidate) is a candidate for nomination for the office of (state the office) for (state the term), we the undersigned, voters of the city of Lynn, duly qualified to vote for a candidate for said office, do hereby request that the name of said (name of candidate) as a candidate for nomination for said office be printed on the official ballot to be used at the preliminary election to be held on the Tuesday of _____, nineteen hundred and _____

Petition accompanying candidate's statement.

We further state that we believe him to be of good moral character and qualified to perform the duties of the office.

Acceptance and oath not required.

No acceptance by a candidate for nomination named in the said petition shall be necessary to its validity or its filing, and the petition, which may be on one or more papers, need not be sworn to.

Women may vote for school committee.

Proviso.

SECTION 9. Women qualified to vote for school committee may be candidates for nomination to membership therein at any preliminary election at which candidates therefor are to be nominated: provided, that they file the above described statement and accompanying petition, and at such preliminary election may vote for candidates for said committee, but for no others.

Names of
to be posted.

SECTION 10. On the first day, other than Sunday or a legal holiday, following the expiration of the time for filing the above described statement and petition, the city clerk shall post in a conspicuous place in the city hall the names and residences of the candidates for nomination who have duly qualified as candidates for nomination, as they are to appear on the official ballots to be used at the preliminary election, except as to the order of the names, and shall cause the ballots which shall contain said names, in their order as drawn by the clerk, and no others, with a designation of residence, and of the office and term of service, to be printed, and the ballots so printed shall be official and no others shall be used at the preliminary election. In drawings for position on the ballot the candidates shall have an opportunity to be present in person or by one representative. Blank spaces shall be left at the end of each list of candidates for nomination for the different offices equal to the number to be nominated therefor, in which the voter may insert the name of any person not printed on the ballot for whom he desires to vote for nomination for such office. There shall be printed on such ballots such directions as will aid the voter, as, for example: "vote for one", "vote for two", and the like, and the ballots shall be headed as follows: —

There shall also be a special ballot printed for the use of women qualified to vote for members of the school committee, and headed as follows: —

Official Preliminary Ballot for Women.

Candidates for nomination for members of school committee of the city of Lynn. At a preliminary election held on the day of in the year Official preliminary ballot for women.
 nineteen hundred and

Then shall follow a reproduction of so much of the regular ballot as relates to the school committee.

SECTION 11. No ballot used at any preliminary, special or annual election shall have printed thereon, or appended to the name of any candidate, any party or other political designation or mark, or anything showing how any candidate was nominated, or indicating his views or opinions. Party or political designations prohibited.

SECTION 12. The election officers shall, immediately upon the closing of the polls at preliminary elections, count the ballots and ascertain the number of votes cast in the several voting places for each candidate, and forthwith make return thereof upon blanks to be furnished, as in annual elections, to the city clerk who shall canvass said returns and shall forthwith determine the result thereof, publish the same in one or more newspapers published in the city, and post the same in a conspicuous place in the city hall. Counting of ballots, canvass of returns, etc.

SECTION 13. The two persons receiving at a preliminary election the highest number of votes for nomination for an office shall be the sole candidates for that office whose names may be printed on the official ballot to be used at the annual or special election at which such office is to be filled, and no acceptance of a nomination at a preliminary election shall be necessary to its validity. Nominations, how determined.

If two or more persons are to be elected to the same office at such annual or special election the several persons in number equal to twice the number so to be elected receiving What candidates' names are to be printed on official ballot.

at such preliminary election the highest number of votes for nomination for that office, or all such persons, if less than twice the number of those so to be elected, shall be the sole candidates for that office whose names may be printed on the official ballot.

Tie vote.

If the preliminary election results in a tie vote among candidates for nomination receiving the lowest number of votes, which, but for said tie vote, would entitle a person receiving the same to have his name printed upon the official ballot for the election, all candidates participating in said tie vote shall have their names printed upon the official ballot, although in consequence there be printed thereon candidates to a number exceeding twice the number to be elected.

When less than required
number of statements have been filed.

SECTION 14. If at the expiration of the time for filing statements of candidates to be voted for at any preliminary election not more than twice as many such statements have been filed with the city clerk for the office of mayor, councillor at large, or school committee as are to be elected to said offices respectively, the candidates whose statements have thus been filed shall be deemed to have been nominated to said offices respectively, and their names shall be used at such annual or special election, and the city clerk shall not print said names upon the ballot to be used at said preliminary election, and no other nomination to said offices shall be made. And if in any ward, at the expiration of the time for filing statements of candidates to be voted for at any preliminary election, not more than twice as many such statements have been filed with the city clerk for the office of councillor from such ward as are to be elected, the candidates whose statements have thus been filed shall be deemed to have been nominated, and their names shall be printed on the official ballot to be used at such annual or special election, and the city clerk shall not print said names upon the ballot to be used at said preliminary election, and no other nominations to said offices shall be made. And if it shall appear that no names are to be printed upon the official ballot to be used at any preliminary election in any ward or wards of the city, no preliminary election shall be held in any such ward or wards.

Mayor and
elect to be sworn.

SECTION 15. On the first Monday in January in each year, the mayor-elect and the councillors-elect shall meet and be sworn to the faithful discharge of their respective duties. The oath may be administered by the city clerk or by any justice of the peace, and a certificate thereof shall be entered on the journal of the city council. At any subsequent meeting of the council, the oath may be administered to the mayor or to any councillor not in attendance at the initial meeting.

SECTION 16. I. A majority of the council shall constitute a quorum, and the affirmative vote of a majority of all the members of the council shall be necessary to adopt any motion, order, resolution or ordinance, except a motion to adjourn, except as is otherwise provided herein.

II. Special meetings shall be called in the manner, and held at the time and place fixed by ordinance. Notice stating the time and place of the meeting, and, in substance, the matters then to be considered shall be given each councillor by service in hand, or by leaving the same at his last and usual place of abode, not less than six hours before the time fixed therefor.

SECTION 17. The mayor shall receive in full compensation for all services to the city such salary, not exceeding thirty-five hundred dollars a year, as the city council by ordinance shall determine, which shall not be increased or diminished during the term for which he is elected. The council may, by yea and nay vote, establish a salary for its members, not exceeding five hundred dollars a year, which shall not be increased or diminished to take effect during the current municipal year.

SECTION 18. All appropriations or loans shall be made in accordance with the provisions of chapter seven hundred and nineteen of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and thirteen and the amendments thereof. The vote of the city council thereon shall be taken by yeas and nays. All meetings of the council shall be public.

SECTION 19. Neither the mayor nor any member of the city council shall, during the term for which he is elected, hold any other office or position the salary or compensation for which is payable from the city treasury; nor shall he act as counsel or attorney before the city council or any committee thereof, or before any board or department of the city.

SECTION 20. There shall be the following administrative officers who shall exercise the powers and discharge the duties respectively conferred or imposed by law upon such by city council.

Each of the officers above mentioned shall be elected by the city council, as soon as may be after the first day of March, for the term of three years, beginning on the first day of April following.

Commissioner of public health.

11. A commissioner of public health to be appointed by the mayor subject to confirmation by the city council for the term of three years at a compensation to be fixed by ordinance. He shall be a physician of good standing, licensed to practice medicine in this commonwealth. Said commissioner shall have supervision and control of the city chemist, inspectors of milk, the veterinary inspector and the health inspectors, with power to make such rules and regulations relative thereto, not inconsistent with statute or ordinance, as he deems advisable, subject, however, to the approval of the city council. He shall have and exercise all the powers and duties conferred or imposed by general law upon boards of health.

12. A board of assessors consisting of three members, who shall be elected by the city council as soon as may be after the first Monday of February, for terms, beginning as of February first, of one, two and three years respectively, and thereafter their successors shall be elected for terms of three years. The assessors shall appoint from the qualified voters, and may prescribe the duties of, and remove at pleasure, one or more assistant assessors.

soon as may be after the first day of March, for the terms stated and until their respective successors have qualified; and their terms of office, except as is otherwise provided, shall begin as of April first, but no compensation shall be allowed or paid for any period prior to qualification. And if the date of the qualification of any officer falls on a legal holiday the same shall occur on the next secular day, except as is otherwise provided.

Commission
on ways and drainage.

SECTION 22. The mayor, city engineer, superintendent of streets and sewers, commissioner of water supply, and one member to be elected by and from the city council, shall constitute a commission on ways and drainage, of which the mayor shall be chairman. Said commission shall have cognizance and general direction and control of the construction, repair, care, sprinkling and lighting of streets, ways and sidewalks, and of all wires in or over the same, and of all shade and ornamental trees growing therein; of the construction, alteration, repair and care of main drains, common sewers and catch basins; of the construction, alteration, repair, care and maintenance of public bridges, and the laying of water pipes; the collection of ashes and waste and of house offal; the care, superintendence and management of the public grounds, except the common, and public parks and playgrounds, and of such grounds as are appurtenant to buildings in charge of other departments, as is provided elsewhere herein. The said commission shall, except as otherwise provided herein, be exclusively vested with the powers, and shall be subject to the liabilities and penalties conferred or imposed by law on surveyors of highways. No person, department of the city or corporation, except in case of emergency, shall dig up or open for any purpose any public street or way in said city without first obtaining permission in writing from said commission.

streets.

All persons, firms, corporations, departments or others opening a street with the permission of said commission, shall restore the street to its former condition to the satisfaction of said commission, which otherwise shall make such restoration at the expense of the delinquent person, firm, corporation, department or others who made such opening, and said commission may require a bond or other security for the performance of any contract relative thereto.

Commission
to report recommendations.

The said commission shall annually, not later than the second Monday in January, prepare and furnish to the city council a complete and detailed report containing its recommendations relative to general highway and sewer improvements in the city for the current fiscal year, which shall also include its recommendations as to the acceptance, laying out and construction of streets and general sidewalk improvements, its recommendations as to the location, installation and construction of new sewers during the said fiscal year, all of which shall be accompanied by estimates of costs and outline plans of the proposed work. The recommendations for sidewalk and street and sewer construction shall be accompanied by specific data as to the material to be used and the method of construction. Said report shall include also all plans for the installation of new water pipes or mains, other than house connections, in any streets or ways in said city during the said fiscal year, and for that purpose the water commissioner shall furnish the said commission with the necessary information upon which to base so much of the report as relates to water pipes or mains. All petitions and orders not reported by said commission for the laying out and acceptance of streets, the construction of sidewalks and sewer construction, shall in the first instance be referred by the city council to said commission, which shall return the same to the city council with its recommendations thereon, not later than one month from the time of reference, unless the time is extended by the city council upon the written request of said commission stating sufficient cause therefor. If in any such report the commission shall recommend new construction work or the taking of land within the fiscal year in which the report is made, estimates of cost shall be included therein.

Certain petitions, etc., shall first be referred by city council to the commission.

SECTION 23. There shall be a committee on finance, consisting of the mayor, the president and one other member of the city council, to be elected by the members thereof.

Committee on finance.

SECTION 24. The school committee shall consist of the mayor, who shall be chairman, and six members elected at large. At the first annual election after the acceptance of this act the two candidates who receive the highest number of votes, shall serve for terms of three years, the two receiving the next highest number for terms of two years, and the two receiving the next highest number, for terms of one year, from the first Monday in January following, and until their respective successors are elected and qualified.

SECTION 26. The school committee, in addition to the powers and duties conferred and imposed by law on school committees, shall have power to provide, when they are necessary, temporary accommodations for school purposes, to make all repairs, the expenditures for which are made from the regular appropriation for the school department, except as is otherwise provided herein, or by statute, shall have the control of all school buildings and of the grounds connected therewith, and may make all reasonable rules and regulations, not inconsistent with any laws of the commonwealth, for the management of the public schools of the city and for conducting the business of the committee.

sites.

SECTION 27. No site for a school building shall be acquired or designated, no plans for the construction or alteration of a school building shall be accepted, or work thereon begun, and no furnishings or equipment shall be purchased or installed, by the city, without first having obtained in each case the approval of the school committee signified by order.

committee
public, except.

SECTION 28. All meetings of the school committee shall be public, except that, when it is so requested by not less than four members, any designated meeting shall be private. A majority thereof shall constitute a quorum. The vote on any particular measure shall be by yea and nay, when it is so requested by not less than two members.

Vacancies.

SECTION 29. Vacancies in the school committee shall be filled until the next annual election by joint convention of the city council and school committee, presided over by the mayor, if present.

Reports to be made by commission on

SECTION 30. No ordinance, order, resolution or vote relative to any matter within the supervision or control of the commission on ways and drainage as provided in section twenty-two, except an order adopted under the provisions of chapter one hundred and twenty-two of the Revised Laws and sections one hundred and twenty-six and one hundred and twenty-seven of chapter seven hundred and forty-two of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and fourteen and acts in amendment thereof and in addition thereto, shall be passed until the council has received from said commission, in response to a written request of the council, a written report and recommendation, with reasons, relative to the advisability thereof, from the standpoint of the public interest, which shall be furnished not later than the regular meeting of the city council next after the expiration of ten days from the date of the receipt of said request, unless further time is allowed by vote of the city council. The record of adoption of any ordinance, order, resolution or vote relative to any such matter by the city council shall contain said report, which shall be transmitted therewith to the mayor as hereinbefore provided. If said report is adverse no vote to pass the same shall be taken within less than seven days after its receipt.

drainage.

SECTION 31. Every order, ordinance, resolution or vote adopted or passed by the city council, involving the expenditure of money, shall be presented to the mayor for his approval. If he approves it, he shall sign it; if he disapproves it, he shall return it, with his objections thereto in writing, to the city council, which shall enter his objections at large on its records, and again consider it, and the same shall be deemed approved and be in force if it is not returned by the mayor, as herein provided, within ten days after it was presented to him. If the city council, notwithstanding such disapproval by the mayor, shall again pass the order, ordinance, resolution or vote by a two thirds yea and nay vote of all the members, it shall then be in force, but the vote thereon shall not be taken before ten days, nor after thirty days, from the date of its return to the city council.

Orders,
ordinances,
etc., to be approved by the mayor.

SECTION 32. The city council shall require the city treasurer, the collector of taxes, the city auditor and any other municipal officers intrusted with the receipt, care or disbursement of money, to give bond, with such surety or sureties as it shall deem adequate, for the faithful discharge of their respective duties.

Certain

matter within its jurisdiction, and the mayor may personally, or through the head of a department or a member of a board, respond to the same, but without obligation to answer questions relating to any other matter. The mayor may at any time attend and address the city council in person or through the head of a department or a member of a board, upon any subject relating to the affairs of the city or of its inhabitants.

Emergency ordinances.

SECTION 34. No ordinance shall be passed finally on the date of its introduction except in cases of special emergency involving the health or safety of the people or affecting their property or property rights.

"Emergency measure", term defined.

No ordinance shall be regarded as an emergency measure unless the emergency is defined and declared in a preamble thereto separately voted on and adjudged so to be by the affirmative vote of two thirds of the members of the city council.

No ordinance making a grant, renewal or extension, whatever its kind or nature, of any franchise or special privilege shall be passed as an emergency measure, and except as is provided in chapter one hundred and twenty-two of the Revised Laws and sections one hundred and twenty-six and one hundred and twenty-seven of chapter seven hundred and forty-two of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and fourteen and acts in amendment thereof and in addition thereto, no such grant, renewal or extension shall be made otherwise than by ordinance.

Amendment of ordinances.

SECTION 35. No ordinance or part thereof shall be amended or annulled except by another ordinance adopted in accordance with the provisions of this act.

Time required for passage.

SECTION 36. Except as is provided in section thirty-four, no ordinance, order or resolution shall be passed through all its stages of legislation at one session, nor within seven days after it is first presented to the city council.

SECTION 37. Every proposed ordinance or loan order, except emergency measures as hereinbefore defined, shall, at least seven days before its final passage, be published once in full in at least one newspaper of the city, and in any additional manner that may be provided by ordinance. After such final passage, it shall, in the same manner as before, be published once, as amended and completed, provided that an emergency ordinance may be passed as hereinbefore provided and shall take effect upon its passage, and shall be published in the manner above specified as soon as is practicable.

In case there is a general revision of the ordinances and the same are published by the city in pamphlet form or otherwise, the newspaper publication may be dispensed with.

SECTION 38. It shall be unlawful for the mayor or any member of the city council or school committee, or for any officer or employee of the city receiving compensation from the city, directly or indirectly, to make a contract with the city, or to receive any commission, discount, bonus, gift, contribution or reward from or any share in the profits of any person or corporation making or performing such a contract, unless immediately upon learning of the existence or proposal of the contract, he shall notify in writing, as the case may be, the mayor, city council or school committee of the nature and extent of his interest therein, and shall abstain from doing any act, official or otherwise, on behalf of the city in relation thereto. In case of such interest on the part of an officer whose duty it is to sign the contract on behalf of the city, the same may be signed by any other officer of the city duly authorized thereto by the mayor, or if the mayor has such interest, by the city clerk: provided, however, that when a contractor with the city is a corporation or a voluntary stock association, the ownership of less than five per cent of the stock or shares actually issued shall not be considered as involving an interest in the contract within the meaning of this section, and such ownership shall not affect the validity of the contract unless the city officer or employee is also an officer or agent of the corporation or association or solicits or takes part in the making of the contract, otherwise than by signing the same in his official capacity.

Certain officials not to make or share in contracts, etc., with the city.

Proviso.

This provision shall not apply to officers who are officers or directors of banks or trust companies, chartered under the laws of the United States or of the commonwealth, in respect to dealings between the city and such banks or trust companies: provided, however, that not more than twenty-five per cent of the total deposits of the city shall be placed in any bank or trust company wherein a city officer is an officer or director, nor at a rate of interest less than the maximum rate of interest allowed for similar deposits of the city by any other bank or trust company, without express authority from the city council approved by the mayor.

Not to apply to certain bank officers.

Proviso.

A violation of this section shall render the contract in respect to which such violation occurs voidable at the option of the city. Any person violating the provisions of this bids, except.

SECTION 39. No contract for construction work, repairs or for the purchase of apparatus, supplies or materials, the estimated cost of which amounts to or exceeds five hundred dollars, except in cases of special emergency involving the health or safety of the people, or the safety of their property, shall be awarded unless proposals therefor shall have been invited by advertisement once a week for at least two consecutive weeks in at least one newspaper published in the city, the last publication to be at least one week before the time specified for the opening of the proposals. Such advertisements shall state the time and place where plans and specifications of the proposed work or supplies may be had, and the time and place for opening the proposals all of which shall be opened in public in answer to said advertisements, and shall reserve to the city the right to reject any or all proposals. No bill or contract shall be split or divided for the purpose of evading any provision of this act.

Split contract
prohibited.

Mayor to approve certain contracts.

SECTION 40. All contracts made by any department, board or commission in which the amount involved is five hundred dollars or more, or contracts involving less than five hundred dollars when required by ordinance shall be in writing, and no such contract shall be deemed to have been made or executed until the approval of the mayor and of the department or board making the contract is affixed thereto. Any party to a contract made as aforesaid may be required to furnish a bond, with sureties satisfactory to the board or official executing the same, or secured by a deposit of money, certified check or other security, conditioned on the faithful performance of the contract, and such bond or other security shall be deposited with the city treasurer until the contract has in all respects been performed; and no such contract shall be altered except by a written agreement of the contractor, the sureties on his bond, and the officer, department or board making the contract, with the approval of the mayor affixed thereto.

land for municipal purposes.

SECTION 41. The mayor and the city council may take in fee, in the name of the city, for any municipal purpose any land within the limits of the city not already appropriated to public use. Whenever the price proposed to be paid for a lot of land for any municipal purpose is more than twenty-five per cent higher than its average assessed valuation during the previous three years, the land shall not be purchased, but shall be taken by right of eminent domain and paid for in the manner provided for the taking of, and the payment of damages for, land taken for highways. No land shall be taken until an appropriation by loan or otherwise for the general purpose for which the land is needed shall have been made by the mayor and city council, by a two thirds vote of all its members; nor shall a price be paid in excess of the appropriation, unless a larger sum is awarded by a court of competent jurisdiction. All proceedings in the taking of land shall be under the advice of the law department, which shall keep a record thereof.

SECTION 42. The mayor, with the approval of a majority of the members of the city council, may remove any head of a department or member of a board or other officer or employee, before the expiration of his term of office, except members of the school committee. But such removal shall not take effect until such officer or employee has been given a hearing by the city council, at which he shall have the right to be represented by counsel, and seven days prior to which, he shall be furnished in writing with the reasons for his removal.

Mayor may remove certain officers.

Hearing.

SECTION 43. The city council shall establish by ordinance the salary or compensation of every administrative officer, not otherwise herein provided for, but after the first municipal year following the acceptance of this act no ordinance changing any such salary or compensation shall take effect until the municipal year succeeding that in which the ordinance is passed. And no ordinance increasing directly or indirectly the salary, wages or compensation of any official or employee of the city shall be valid unless the same shall be finally passed at least four calendar months next prior to the commencement of the fiscal year.

Salaries.

SECTION 44. The removal of a member of the city council elected from a ward, to another ward of the city shall not disqualify him from discharging the duties of his office for the remainder of his term.

Member of
city council
may remove to another ward.

SECTION 45. All official bonds, recognizances, obligations, contracts, and all other instruments entered into or executed by or to the city of Lynn before this act takes effect, and all taxes, special assessments, fines, penalties and forfeitures incurred or imposed, due or owing to the city, shall be enforced and collected, and all writs, prosecutions, actions and causes of action, except as is otherwise provided herein, shall continue without abatement and remain unaffected by this act; and no legal act done by or in favor of the city shall be rendered invalid by the acceptance of this act.

Civil service laws not to apply to certain appointees.

SECTION 46. The civil service laws shall not apply to the appointment of the mayor's secretaries or to the stenographers, clerks, telephone operators and messengers connected with his office, and the mayor may remove such appointees without a hearing and without making a statement of the cause for their removal.

Vacancy in office of mayor.

SECTION 47. If a vacancy occurs in the office of mayor or in the city council prior to the last six months of the term in question, the city council shall order an election to fill the same for the unexpired term; and if a vacancy occurs in the office of mayor during the last six months of his term, the president of the city council shall succeed thereto for the remainder of the term. If the mayor is absent or temporarily unable from any cause to perform his duties, they shall be performed by the president of the city council, who shall for the time being be designated "acting mayor", and shall possess the powers of mayor only in matters not admitting of delay, and shall have no power to make permanent appointments. If the president is absent or unable to serve, the city council shall elect an acting mayor.

Should an appointive officer of the city be temporarily unable for any cause to perform his duties, the council or the mayor, having the power of original appointment, may designate a temporary appointee to act until such officer shall resume his duties.

Additional boards may be established.

SECTION 48. The city council may from time to time, subject to the provisions of this act and in accordance with the general laws, establish and determine the tenure, and the powers and duties of, additional boards and other offices for municipal purposes, and may, subject to the provisions of section forty-three, fix their compensation by ordinance, and may consolidate or abolish any board or office so established.

Administrative officers to be sworn, etc.

SECTION 49. All administrative officers shall be sworn to the faithful discharge of their respective duties, and certificates of their oaths shall be filed in the office of the city clerk. All administrative boards and officers shall keep a record of their official transactions, which shall be open to public inspection.

Initiative.

SECTION 50. A petition meeting the requirements hereinafter specified and requesting the city council to pass an ordinance, resolution, order or vote, except an order granted under the provisions of chapter one hundred and twenty-two of the Revised Laws and sections one hundred and twenty-six and one hundred and twenty-seven of chapter seven hundred and forty-two of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and fourteen, and acts in amendment thereof and in addition thereto, or requesting the school committee to pass a resolution, order or vote, shall be termed an initiative petition, and shall be acted upon as hereinafter provided. The term "measure" as hereinafter employed shall be taken to mean "ordinance", "resolution", "order", "or vote", as used in this section.

Initiative
petition."Measure",
term defined.

SECTION 51. Signatures to initiative petitions need not all appear on one paper. All such papers pertaining to any one measure shall be fastened together and shall be filed in the office of the city clerk as one instrument, with the endorsement thereon of the names and addresses of three persons designated as filing the same. With each signature to the petition shall be stated the place of residence of the signer, giving the street and number, if any.

SECTION 54. If within five days after the final passage of any measure, except an emergency measure, by the city council or the school committee, a notice of intention to file a referendum petition, as hereinafter provided, signed by not less than one hundred registered voters is filed with the city clerk, and if, within twenty days after the final passage of any such measure, a petition signed by registered voters of the city, equal in number to at least fifteen per cent of the total number of registered voters, including any who have signed the original petition only, be presented to the city council or to the school committee, as the case may be, protesting against such measure or any part thereof, the operation thereof shall thereupon be suspended; and the city council or the school committee, as the case may be, shall immediately reconsider such measure or part thereof; and if such measure or part thereof be not entirely annulled, repealed or rescinded, or the part objected to eliminated by amendment, the city council shall submit the same by the method herein provided, to a vote of the qualified voters of the city, either at the next regular city election, or at a special election which may, in its discretion, be called for the purpose, and such measure or part thereof shall forthwith become null and void unless a majority of the qualified voters voting on the same at such election shall vote in favor thereof, and unless it receives the affirmative vote of at least a third of the whole number of registered voters.

be the same, so far as it may be applicable, as that provided by the foregoing sections relating to initiative petitions, except that the words "measure or part thereof protested against" shall for this purpose be understood to replace the word "measure" wherever it may occur in said section, and that the word "referendum" shall be understood to replace the word "initiative" in said sections.

SECTION 55. For the purposes of this act, the number of registered women voters shall be counted in fixing the requisite number of signatures for initiative and referendum petitions as to measures affecting the public schools, and in respect to the same they shall have the right to vote and to sign initiative and referendum petitions. But the number of such women voters shall not be counted in fixing the number of signatures necessary as to petitions relating to other than school matters. Women voters, when number shall be counted.

SECTION 56. If two or more proposed measures passed at the same election contain conflicting provisions, that one of the measures which received the highest number of affirmative votes shall take effect, and the other, to the extent of the inconsistency, shall be void. Measures with conflicting provisions.

removed at any time by the registered voters in accordance with the following procedure:—A petition signed by a number of such voters equal to at least twenty-five per cent of the number of registered voters participating in the last preceding annual election, demanding the election of a successor to the person sought to be removed, shall be filed in the office of the city clerk.

Petition to give general statement of grounds of removal, etc.

The petition shall contain a general statement of the grounds upon which the removal is sought. It need not be on one paper, but may consist of several distinct papers, each containing the said demand, and substantially upon the same grounds, and all papers containing the said demand and statement, which, in any one day, shall be filed in the office of the city clerk, shall be deemed parts of the same petition. Each signer shall add to his signature his place of residence, giving the street and number, if any. One signer of every such paper shall make oath, upon his information and belief, before a notary public, or a justice of the peace, that the statements therein made are true, and that each signature to the paper is genuine.

Certificate of
city clerk.

Within ten days after the filing of such a petition, the city clerk, with the assistance of the registrars of voters, shall examine the petition to ascertain the numerical sufficiency of the signers, as above defined, and shall attach to the petition his certificate, stating the result of his examination.

Supplementary signatures.

If, from the city clerk's certificate, the petition appears not to have been signed by the requisite number of voters, it may be supplemented, within ten days after the date of such certificate, by other papers, signed and sworn to as aforesaid, and all such other papers, containing a like demand and statement, and signed and sworn to as aforesaid, shall be deemed supplemental to the original petition.

New certificate from city clerk.

The city clerk shall, within ten days after such supplementation, make a like examination of the amended petition, and attach thereto a new certificate and if it appears from such new certificate that the petition is still numerically insufficient, it shall be returned to the person or persons who filed the same, without prejudice, however, to the filing of a new petition seeking a like object.

Special election to be called.

If the petition as originally filed or as supplemented, shall be certified by the city clerk to be sufficient, he shall without delay present the same to the city council which shall call the election so demanded, fix a date and make or cause to be made all arrangements for holding the same, which shall not be less than sixty, nor more than seventy, days after the date of the presentation of the petition by the city clerk. Such election shall be held and conducted, returns thereof made and the results thereof declared in all respects as in the case of other city elections.

Any person sought to be removed may be a candidate at the said election, and, unless he requests otherwise in writing, the city clerk shall place his name on the official ballot without nomination. The person receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected. If some person other than the incumbent receives the highest number of votes, the incumbent shall thereupon be deemed to be removed from office, and such person shall succeed to the office for the remainder of the term. In case a person, other than the incumbent, receiving the highest number of votes, shall fail to make oath before the city clerk or a justice of the peace, within thirty days after his election, faithfully to perform the duties of the office, the office shall be deemed vacant. If the incumbent receives the highest number of votes, he shall continue in office until the end of the term which he was serving at the time of such election, unless sooner removed therefrom by new and like proceedings. The name of no candidate other than the person sought to be removed shall be printed on the official ballots to be used at such election, unless such candidate be nominated as hereinbefore provided at a preliminary election: provided, that if the person sought to be removed is a candidate, the person receiving the highest number of votes at the preliminary election shall be the only other candidate for said office, except in case of a tie vote as hereinbefore provided.

Person sought to be removed may be candidate, etc.

When office is deemed to be vacant.

SECTION 58. The passage or acceptance of this act shall not affect any rights accruing or accrued, or any penalty or forfeiture incurred, or any suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding pending at the time when this act takes effect, wherein the city of Lynn is a party or in any way interested. All persons then holding office in said city shall continue to hold the same, notwithstanding the taking effect hereof, until the organization of the city government is effected, and until their successors have qualified. All laws, by-laws, ordinances, rules and regulations, general or special, relating to the city of Lynn, in force at the time of the taking effect of this act, shall, until altered, amended or repealed, continue in force in the city of Lynn, so far as the same are not inconsistent herewith.

Suits, prosecutions, etc., not to be affected.

SECTION 59. Nothing in this act shall be construed in any way to affect or impair the provisions of chapter seven hundred and nineteen of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and thirteen and acts in amendment thereof or addition thereto relating to municipal finance, or of chapter one hundred and seventy-eight of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and nine, as amended by chapter two hundred and ninety of the Special Acts of the year nineteen hundred and sixteen, relating to appropriations for school purposes.

Terms defined.

SECTION 60. The words "officer", "officers", "administrative officers", "ordinance", "registered voter", as used in this act shall have the same meaning as in chapter two hundred and sixty-seven of the General Acts of the year nineteen hundred and fifteen, as defined by section one of Part I of said chapter.

To be submitted to voters at the annual state election.

SECTION 61. This act shall be submitted to the qualified voters of said city at the annual state election in the year nineteen hundred and seventeen in the form of the following question to be placed upon the official ballot: — "Shall an act passed by the general court in the year nineteen hundred and seventeen, entitled 'An Act to revise the charter of the city of Lynn' be accepted?" And if a majority of the votes cast thereon are in the affirmative, the same shall thereupon take effect, but not otherwise. Section sixty-two and so much hereof as provides for its submission to the voters of said city shall take effect upon its passage.

No other similar question to appear upon ballot.

SECTION 62. At the annual state election for the year nineteen hundred and seventeen, no question relating to the acceptance or adoption of a city charter for the city of Lynn, other than as provided by section sixty-one of this act shall be placed upon the ballot to be used at said election.

Approved May 22, 1917.

Chap. 341 AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE TOWN OF LUDLOW TO CONSTRUCT AND MAINTAIN A SEWERAGE SYSTEM.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

Town of Ludlow may construct, etc., a sewerage system.

SECTION 1. The town of Ludlow is hereby authorized to lay out, construct, maintain and operate a system or systems of main drains and common sewers for a part or the whole of its territory, with such connections and other works as may be required for a system of sewage disposal; and for the purpose of providing better surface or other drainage, guarding against pollution of the water and otherwise protecting the public health, may lay, make and maintain such main drains as it deems best. For the purposes aforesaid the town may, within its limits, deepen, widen, and clear of obstruction any brook, stream or water course, and may straighten or alter the channel or divert the water thereof, and may make and maintain sub-drains, and, with the approval of the state department of health, discharge the water into any brook, stream or water course within the town.

SECTION 2. The town shall elect by ballot, at an annual town meeting, or at a special town meeting duly called for the purpose, a board of three sewer commissioners who shall be citizens of the town, to hold office, one until the expiration of one year, one until the expiration of two years, and one until the expiration of three years from the next succeeding annual town meeting, or until their successors are elected and qualified, and thereafter at each annual town meeting the town shall elect one member of the board to serve for three years, or until his successor is elected and qualified. A selectman or a member of the board of health may be a member of the board of sewer commissioners.

Board of sewer commissioners.

SECTION 3. The board of sewer commissioners, acting in behalf of the town, shall have power to take, or acquire by purchase or otherwise, any lands, water rights, rights of way or easements in said town, public or private, necessary for accomplishing any purpose mentioned in this act, and may construct within the town main drains and sewers under or over any water course, bridge, railroad, railway, highway, boulevard, or other way, or within the location of any railroad, and may enter upon and dig up any private land, street or way or railroad location, for the purpose of laying such drains and sewers and of maintaining and repairing the same, and may perform any other act necessary or proper for the purposes of this act: provided, however, that the said board shall not take in fee any land of a railroad corporation, and that they shall not enter upon or construct any drain or sewer within the location of any railroad corporation except at such time and in such manner as they may agree upon with the corporation, or, in case of failure to agree, as may be approved by the public service commission.

May purchase
lands, etc.

Provido.

SECTION 4. Said board, in order to take in fee any lands, water rights, rights of way or easements, shall cause to be recorded in the registry of deeds for the county of Hampden, a statement signed by a majority of the board containing a description thereof sufficiently specific for identification, and declaring that the same are taken under authority of this act; and upon such recording, the title to the lands, water rights, rights of way or easements described in the statement shall vest in the town of Ludlow, which shall pay all damages therefor and all other damages sustained by any person or corporation through any action of said board under this act, but no registered land, or interest therein, shall be deemed to have been taken until the provisions of chapter one hundred and twenty-eight of the Revised Laws have been complied with. Said board at the time of such taking shall notify the owners thereof in writing, and may agree with any person or corporation upon the damages sustained by such person or corporation; otherwise the damages shall be assessed by a jury in the superior court for said county upon petition of either party, in the manner provided by law for determining damages for land taken for highways; but in case of a taking, no suit or petition shall be brought after the expiration of two years from the date of the recording of the taking as herein provided; and in all other cases no suit or petition shall be brought after the expiration of two years from the time when the cause of action accrues.

Description of

Town may
etc.

SECTION 5. In every case of a petition for the assessment of damages or for a jury said town may, at any time, file in the office of the clerk of the court an offer to pay the petitioner a sum specified therein as damages; and if the petitioner does not accept the same within thirty days after notice of such offer, and does not finally recover a sum greater than that offered, not including interest from the date of the offer on the sum so recovered, the town shall recover costs from the date of said notice; and the petitioner shall be entitled to costs only to said date.

Payment of cost.

Proviso.

General law provisions
etc.

SECTION 6. The town shall by vote determine what proportion of the cost of said system or systems of sewerage and sewage disposal the town shall pay: provided, that it shall pay not less than one quarter nor more than two thirds of the whole cost. In providing for the payment of the remaining portion of the cost of said system or systems the town may avail itself of any or all of the methods permitted by general laws, and at the same meeting at which it determines the proportion of the cost which is to be borne by the town, it may by vote determine by which of such methods the remaining portion of said cost shall be provided for. In case it determines that such remaining portion shall be provided for wholly or in part by assessments upon the owners of estates situated within the territory embraced by said system or systems and benefited thereby, the owners shall be assessed by the board of sewer commissioners their proportional parts, respectively, of such portion of said cost as the town shall have determined is to be provided for by assessment, but no estate shall be deemed to be benefited until a sewer is constructed into which it can be drained. For the purpose of fixing the amounts of such assessments Benefit to estates. the said board shall determine the value of the special benefit to each of said estates from the said system or systems of sewers, taking into account all the circumstances of the case; and the proportionate part to be paid by the owners of said estates, respectively, shall be based upon the amount of the special benefit to each estate, determined as aforesaid, and in no case shall exceed such special benefit, and every such owner shall, within three months after written notice of such assessment, served on him or on the occupant of his estate, or sent by mail to the last address of the owner known to the board of sewer commissioners, pay the sum so assessed to the collector of taxes of said town: provided, that said board shall, on the written request Proviso. of any such owner made within the said three months, apportion his assessment into ten equal parts or assessments; and the board shall certify such apportionment to the assessors of the town, and one of said parts or instalments, together with the interest at six per cent per annum on all unpaid apportionments, shall be added by the assessors to the annual tax on such estate for each year next ensuing, until all the said parts have so been added, unless sooner paid as hereinafter provided; and provided, further, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the payment at any time in one payment, notwithstanding its prior apportionment, of any balance due, but interest on such balance at the rate of six per cent per annum shall be paid to the date of such payment, and thereupon the collector of taxes shall receive the same and shall certify the payment or payments to the assessors, who shall preserve a record thereof. In case of corner lots abutting on more than one sewered street the same area shall not be assessed more than once.

SECTION 7. The town, for the purpose of paying the necessary expenses and liabilities incurred under this act, Town may borrow money. may incur indebtedness in accordance with the provisions of chapter seven hundred and nineteen of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and thirteen and all acts in amendment thereof and in addition thereto.

Payment of
loan.

SECTION 8. The town shall at the time of authorizing any loan under the provisions of section seven provide for the payment thereof in such annual payments as will extinguish the same in accordance with the provisions of said section; and when a vote to that effect has been passed the amount required thereby, less the amount that may be appropriated therefor as provided in the following section, shall annually thereafter without further vote be assessed by the assessors of the town in the same manner as other taxes, until the debt incurred by said loan is extinguished.

Receipts,
how applied.

SECTION 9. The receipts from sewer assessments and from payments made in lieu thereof, shall be applied to the payment of charges and expenses incident to the maintenance and operation of said system of sewerage or to the extension thereof, except that any part of such receipts may be applied to the payment of interest upon notes or bonds issued hereunder, and not otherwise provided for, or to the payment or redemption of such bonds or notes as the town shall by vote determine, and the said receipts shall be used for no other purpose. If the said receipts shall not in any year be sufficient for the purposes aforesaid the town shall raise forthwith by taxation, in the same manner in which money is raised for other town purposes, the balance required therefor.

Assessment to
lien, etc.

SECTION 10. Any assessment levied under the provisions of section six and any charge made as aforesaid shall constitute a lien upon the estate which shall continue for two years after the certificate thereof is filed, and after the demand aforesaid is made, or, in case of apportionment, until the expiration of two years from the time when the last instalment is committed to the collector. Said assessment, together with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, with incidental costs and expenses, may be satisfied by the sale of the estate or so much thereof as will be sufficient to discharge the assessment and interest and intervening charges, if the assessment is not paid within three months after the service of said notice, or, if it has been apportioned, within three months after any portion has become due. Such sale and all proceedings connected therewith shall be conducted in the same manner as sales for the non-payment of taxes, and real estate so sold may be redeemed in the same manner as if sold for the non-payment of taxes. Such assessments or parts thereof may be collected also by an action of contract in the name of the town of Ludlow against the owner of the estate, brought at any time within two years after the same become due.

Assessments,
how collected.

SECTION 11. Any person aggrieved by any such assessment may, at any time within three months after the service of the demand mentioned in section six of this act, apply to the superior court for said county for a jury to revise the same, but before making such application he shall give to said commissioners fourteen days' notice in writing, and shall therein specify particularly his objection to the assessment, to which specification he shall be confined in his hearing before a jury.

Appeal to
etc.

SECTION 12. The board of sewer commissioners shall annually appoint a clerk, and may appoint a superintendent of sewers, who shall not be a member of the board, and may remove the clerk or superintendent at its pleasure, and may fix the pay of the clerk and superintendent and define their duties. The commissioners may in their discretion prescribe such annual rentals or charges for the use of said sewer system, based on the benefits derived therefrom, as they shall deem proper. The compensation of the commissioners shall be fixed by the town.

Clerk, superintendent, appointment,
etc.

SECTION 13. All contracts made by the board of sewer commissioners shall be made in the name of the town and shall be signed by the board, but no contract shall be made or obligation incurred by the commissioners for any purpose in excess of the amount of money appropriated by the town therefor.

Contracts, how made, etc.

SECTION 14. Said commissioners may from time to time prescribe rules and regulations for the connection of estates and buildings with main drains and sewers, and for inspection of the materials, the construction, alteration, and use of all connections and drains entering such main drains or sewers, and may prescribe penalties not exceeding twenty dollars for each violation of any such rule or regulation. Such rules and regulations shall be published not less than once a week for three successive weeks in some newspaper published in the county of Hampden, and shall not take effect until such publication has been made.

Rules and regulations.

SECTION 15. No act shall be done under authority of the preceding sections, except in the making of surveys and other preliminary investigations, until the plans for the said

State department of health

system of sewerage have been approved by the state department of health. Upon application to said department for such approval the department shall give a hearing, after due notice to the public. At such hearing plans showing in detail all the work to be done in constructing said system of sewerage shall be submitted for the approval of the state department of health.

Temporary committee may carry on construction, etc., until.

SECTION 16. Until the board of sewer commissioners shall have been elected as provided in this act the town may carry on the construction of the system of sewerage by a duly authorized committee of the town, but not longer than until the annual meeting next but one after the commencement of said work of construction. The committee shall serve without pay and shall have all the powers and authority given to the board of sewer commissioners in this act or by the general laws relating to boards of sewer commissioners.

SECTION 17. This act shall take effect upon its passage, but no expenditure shall be made and no liability incurred hereunder until it has been accepted by vote of a majority of the voters of the town voting thereon at a legal meeting called for the purpose.

Chap.362 AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE AND REQUIRE THE CITY OF LAWRENCE TO CONSTRUCT AND MAINTAIN BRIDGES OVER THE NORTH AND SOUTH CANALS OF THE ESSEX COMPANY IN SAID CITY.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

City of Lawrence to build bridges over the North and South canals of the Essex Company.

SECTION 1. The city of Lawrence is hereby authorized and required to construct and hereafter maintain and keep in good repair a sufficient bridge over the north canal of the Essex Company at the northerly terminus of the central bridge, so-called, in said city, where said canal crosses said terminus at Amesbury street, and a sufficient bridge over the south canal of the Essex Company at the southerly terminus of the central bridge, so-called, in said city, where said canal crosses said terminus between Merrimack and South Canal streets; and the said Essex Company is hereby relieved and discharged from all duty and liability imposed upon said company by the fourth section of chapter one hundred and sixty-three of the acts of the year eighteen hundred and forty-five or any act in addition thereto, to make and maintain such bridges.

SECTION 2. The agreement of indenture executed by and between the said city of Lawrence and the said Essex Company, on the thirtieth day of April in the year nineteen hundred and seventeen, providing for the construction and maintenance of such bridges by the said city of Lawrence, and the discharge of the said Essex Company from all further duty or liability in respect thereto, is hereby ratified and confirmed.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

Chap.363 AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR AN INVESTIGATION AND PROTECTION OF THE SHORE OF QUINCY BAY.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

Commission on waterways and public land to ascertain cost of building breakwater on shore of Quincy bay.

SECTION 1. The commission on waterways and public lands is hereby authorized and directed to make such surveys, examinations and estimates as it may deem necessary for the purpose of determining the cost of building a breakwater, wall or other structure on the shore of Quincy bay bordering on Manet avenue in the city of Quincy, extending from a point about six hundred feet easterly of Newton street westerly to a point about six hundred feet westerly of said street, for the protection of the shore from encroachment or damage by the sea.

SECTION 2. If, in the judgment of the commission, the probable benefits would be commensurate with the cost, said commission is hereby authorized to build a breakwater, wall or other structure as aforesaid, and the commission may expend in carrying out the provisions of this act a sum not exceeding twenty thousand dollars, of which sum fifteen thousand dollars shall be paid from the ordinary revenue of the commonwealth, and five thousand dollars shall be appropriated and paid into the treasury of the commonwealth by the city of Quincy; and the city of Quincy is hereby authorized to raise the said amount by taxation or otherwise, and pay the same into the treasury of the commonwealth. No expenditures, except for the surveys, examinations and estimates of cost provided for in section one of this act, shall be made for the work hereby authorized until the city of Quincy has made a sufficient appropriation for the filling and grading necessary for the completion and protection of said structure, as may be directed by said commission, in addition to the sums hereby appropriated, nor until satisfactory evidence has been furnished to the auditor of the commonwealth that the city of Quincy has complied with all the requirements of this act.

No expenditures, etc., until Quincy makes appropriation.

SECTION 3. Said commission shall not begin the construction of any breakwater, wall or structure authorized by this act until the owners of the shore where the same is to be situated shall release to the commonwealth all claims for damages which they might have on account of the said work.

Releases to the commonwealth to be made before construction, etc.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

§ 25 (A).

Underground station in Everett.

Construction
to begin before December 31,

Proviso.

so as to read as follows: — Section 25. Unless the company shall, within five years after the acceptance of this act, begin the construction of the subway which the company is authorized to construct by Part II of this act, the location of said company for said subway and all rights of said company to construct, maintain and operate such subway shall, so far as shall be consistent with the provisions of section twenty-five (A), cease and determine; and if the company undertakes the construction of said subway it shall complete the same within two years after the expiration of said five-year period: provided, that if the construction of the subway authorized by Part II of this act is delayed by litigation, unforeseen casualty or other cause, the company may apply to the board for an extension of time therefor, and the board, upon notice to the cities, and upon hearing and proof that such litigation was not collusive, or that such casualty or other cause was not due to the fault of the company, may allow further time for such construction.

SECTION 2. Said chapter seven hundred and seventy-seven is hereby further amended by adding at the end of Part II the following new section, to be numbered twenty-five (A) — Section 25 (A). For the purpose of providing terminal facilities for the operation of the elevated railway to be constructed under the provisions of chapter four hundred and ninety-seven of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and seven, the company shall construct such part of the subway and appurtenances described in section five, together with connections for surface car lines, which shall also constitute appurtenances, as may be necessary to provide an underground station in the vicinity of Broadway and Main street in the city of Everett, north of the Revere beach boulevard, and shall not, by reason of such construction, be under obligation to construct the remainder of said subway. The company shall begin the construction of the said part of the subway and appurtenances on or before the thirty-first day of December, nineteen hundred and eighteen, and shall complete the construction of the same within eighteen months thereafter: provided, that if the construction of said part of the subway and appurtenances is delayed by litigation, unforeseen casualty or other cause, or if the company is unable to obtain capital on reasonable terms, the company may apply to the public service commission for an extension of time therefor, and the commission, upon notice to the cities, and upon hearing and proof that such litigation was not collusive, or that such casualty or other cause was not due to the fault of the company, may allow further time for such construction.

Upon the construction of the said underground station the company may discontinue and remove any temporary station which may have been constructed upon the aforesaid elevated railway south of the eastern division of the Boston and Maine railroad pending the construction of the station hereby authorized.

Temporary station may be removed.

The cost of any such station so discontinued or removed shall, for all purposes, be considered a part of the cost of the company's elevated railway, and both the cost and value of the said elevated railway, for any purpose for which such cost or value may be material, shall be deemed to be the same as if said station had not been discontinued or removed.

Cost of removal, how considered.

The company may also construct under the provisions of this act a subway connection between any terminal constructed hereunder and any shops or yards hereafter constructed upon land of said company near or adjoining the right of way of the eastern division of the Boston and Maine railroad, together with all appurtenances thereto, and may construct such subway in or under private lands or public streets, ways or places, and under the right of way of the Boston and Maine railroad, upon such route and in such manner as the public service commission may approve.

Construction of subway connection with shops, etc.

SECTION 3. Section twenty-six of said chapter seven hundred and seventy-seven is hereby amended by inserting after the word "act", in the third line, the words:— beyond the extent provided for in section twenty-five (A), and by inserting before the word "subway", in the sixth line, the words:— remainder of the, — so as to read as follows:

1913, 777 (III), § 26, amended.

— Section 26. If the company does not, within five years after the date of acceptance of this act, begin to construct the subway authorized by Part II of this act, beyond the extent provided for in section twenty-five (A), the cities of Everett and Malden, acting through the Boston transit commission, hereinafter called "the commission", as herein provided, may construct the remainder of the subway as specified in section five. The commission shall begin the construction of the said subway when, after the expiration of said five-year period without the beginning of the construction of said subway by the company, the commission shall be requested in writing by the mayor and aldermen of each of said cities to undertake the construction of said subway.

Subway may be constructed by Boston transit commission upon request.

Repeal.

SECTION 4. Chapter three hundred and thirty-one of the Special Acts of the year nineteen hundred and sixteen is hereby repealed.

Time of taking effect.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect upon its acceptance by the mayor and board of aldermen of the city of Everett, and by the mayor and board of aldermen of the city of Malden, and by the company by vote of its board of directors, and return thereof made to the secretary of the commonwealth within two months after its passage.

Chap.373 AN ACT RELATIVE TO THE PROPERTY, SERVICE AND CAPITALIZATION OF THE BOSTON ELEVATED RAILWAY COMPANY.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

PART I.

AUTHORIZING THE RETURN TO THE BOSTON ELEVATED RAILWAY COMPANY OF THE DEPOSIT MADE BY IT TO THE COMMONWEALTH.

Boston Elevated Railway Company, need not maintain deposits with treasurer and receiver general, etc.

SECTION 1. The Boston Elevated Railway Company, hereinafter called the "company", shall not be required hereafter to maintain deposits with the treasurer and receiver general, as provided by section thirteen of chapter five hundred and forty-eight of the acts of the year eighteen hundred and ninety-four and by section thirteen of chapter five hundred of the acts of the year eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, and, within ten days after this act takes effect, the treasurer and receiver general shall return to the company the securities or cash by it deposited and now held by him under the provisions of said acts.

SECTION 2. The cash or proceeds of the securities so returned shall be used for no other than those capital purposes for which the company may lawfully issue stock or bonds, to such extent as the public service commission, after a public hearing, shall approve as reasonably necessary for any such purpose or purposes.

PART II.

ENABLING THE BOSTON ELEVATED RAILWAY COMPANY TO PROVIDE ADDITIONAL CARS AND OTHERWISE IMPROVE ITS SERVICE.

May issue bonds, etc.

SECTION 3. In addition to the bonds, coupon notes or other evidences of indebtedness payable at periods of more than twelve months after the date thereof which the company may lawfully issue for capital purposes, it may, in the manner and to such extent as the public service commission, after a public hearing, may approve as consistent with the public interest, issue bonds or coupon notes to an amount not exceeding twenty per cent of the cash paid in by its stockholders, to provide means for, or to fund the reasonable cost of, new and improved cars for the surface lines operated by it, to replace existing equipment and other property, to pay the reasonable cost of replacement or reconstruction of any other existing property owned, leased or operated by it, or to provide means for the payment of the rental of the Dorchester tunnel for the first three years after its opening for use. Such provision shall be made for the retirement of said securities out of earnings as the public service commission shall approve: provided, however, that in the case of bonds or coupon notes issued to provide means for, or to fund the reasonable cost of, replacement or reconstruction of existing property; the period during which they shall so be retired shall not exceed fifteen years. Securities issued under the authority of this section shall not be counted in determining the amount of bonds, coupon notes or other evidences of indebtedness payable at periods of more than twelve months after the date thereof which the company may be authorized to issue under other provisions of law.

Retirement of securities out of earnings, etc.
Proviso.

Securities issued, how counted.

SECTION 4. The public service commission is hereby directed to make such changes as may be necessary in the existing classification of accounts prescribed for the company and street railway companies generally, so that if any such company shall incur any loss in connection with the sale or destruction of property no longer required for its corporate purposes, whether the same is owned by it or by any company which it leases or operates, it may, with the approval of said commission, instead of charging the entire amount of such loss against its earnings or surplus for the year in which such loss may accrue, distribute the same over such period, not exceeding ten years, as said commission shall designate.

Changes in existing classification of accounts, etc., and for street railway companies generally.

SECTION 5. For the purpose of determining whether, under the fifth clause of section sixty-eight of chapter five hundred and ninety of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and eight and the amendments thereof, the company has in any year earned and paid dividends at the rate of five per cent on its outstanding capital stock without an impairment of assets or capital, the expenditures which may have been provided for in the manner authorized by section three hereof shall not be deemed to be a charge for the full amount thereof, on the earnings of the company for the year in which they are made, but shall be charged against the earnings of any particular year only to the extent that the company is required out of earnings in that year to provide for the ultimate payment of bonds or coupon notes issued under the authority of said section three, and in determining whether there has been any impairment of assets or capital, expenditures made from the proceeds of bonds or coupon notes issued under said section three, or losses specified in section four hereof, shall be deemed an asset to the extent that provision is made for the payment of such bonds or coupon notes or the distribution of such losses out of earnings or against the surplus account of succeeding years.

PART III.

AUTHORIZING THE BOSTON ELEVATED RAILWAY COMPANY TO ESTABLISH INCLOSED AREAS, STATIONS OR SHELTERS FOR THE CONVENIENT TRANSFERS OF PASSENGERS.

May establish inclosed areas for transfer of passengers, etc.

SECTION 6. The company may, to the extent and in the manner which the public service commission, after notice and a public hearing, may approve, establish in and upon public and private ways and lands in connection with any lines of railway, or elevated railway station or terminal now or hereafter owned, leased or operated by it, suitable inclosed areas, stations or shelters with approaches, tracks, poles, wires and other structures and connections with existing stations, terminals, tracks and wires, all hereinafter called appurtenances, for the convenient transfer of passengers between surface cars and elevated railway stations or trains, or between surface cars; but the work of construction thereof shall not be begun before plans shall have been approved by said commission showing the general form and method of construction, the extent to which any public or private way or land is to be occupied, and the extent to which public ways or places are to be laid out, widened, altered or discontinued. Any plan so approved may be altered by a new plan approved in like manner.

Plans to be approved by commission.

Company may use public ways, etc.

SECTION 7. For the purposes of the preceding section the company may, but only with the approval of the public service commission as aforesaid, use public ways without paying compensation therefor, and may lease, purchase or otherwise take lands in fee or easements or other rights in land outside the limits of public ways or parks in the same manner in which lands may be leased, purchased or taken for the construction of an elevated railway to Everett under the provisions of chapter four hundred and ninety-seven of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and seven. Any taking under this act, in fee or otherwise, may be made whether the lands taken or affected are held by title derived under eminent domain or otherwise.

In connection with the establishment of any such area, station or shelter or its appurtenances or to increase the convenience of public ways near the same, the public service commission, in the name of the commonwealth and in accordance with any plan approved as above provided, may lay out, widen, alter or discontinue public ways or places or change the grade thereof, by causing to be recorded in the registry of deeds for the county in which the way or place is situated a description of the act of the commission in relation thereto, as certain as is required in a common conveyance of land, signed by a majority of the commission. The work of any such laying out, widening, alteration, discontinuance or change of grade shall be performed by the company.

Public ways may be laid out, altered, etc.

Taking to be recorded, etc.

The company shall pay all damages occasioned by any such taking or by the construction, except upon or in public ways, of any such area, station or shelter or its appurtenances, or by the laying out, alteration, widening or discontinuance of any public way or place or change of the grade thereof by the public service commission under authority of this act, and the same may be recovered upon the petition of any party in interest against the company in the manner provided for the recovery of damages for the taking of land under the provisions of said chapter four hundred and ninety-seven of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and seven.

Damages, how paid.

Recovery of damages.

SECTION 8. With the approval of the public service commission, the company may remove any tracks, conduits, pipes, wires, poles or other property located in public ways or places which it may deem to interfere with the construction or operation of any such area, station or shelter or its appurtenances, and shall relocate and reconstruct the same in new locations to be granted by the commission so far as the commission may deem such relocation practicable. No such discontinuance, removal or reconstruction shall entitle the owner of the property thus affected to recover any damages or compensation therefor. Any gas or electric lighting company shall shut off the gas or current from any pipes or wires affected by any action done hereunder, when and so far as may be necessary to avoid public danger.

May remove tracks, conduits, etc.

Owner not entitled to damages.

Locations for tracks, poles,
etc.

The public service commission may grant such locations for tracks, poles, wires and incidental railway structures in or upon public ways or lands as may be required for the purposes of this act, and may alter or revoke the same.

Transfer of rights.

The rights of the company in any such area, station or shelter or its appurtenances may be transferred by it to the West End Street Railway Company.

To indemnify cities and towns.

The company shall indemnify the cities or towns in which such areas, stations or shelters or their appurtenances are established against all liability for damages arising out of the work authorized by this act upon notice of any claim therefor and opportunity to defend against the same.

Occupation of Boston Common.

Nothing in this act contained shall be construed to authorize the occupation of any part of Boston Common.

May issue
stock, etc.

SECTION 9. The company may, from time to time, in the manner and subject to the requirements prescribed by law, issue and dispose of such amounts of its stock or bonds, in addition to amounts heretofore authorized, as may be necessary to meet and pay all expenditures made or incurred by the company under authority of this act.

Powers of the Boston transit commission
not abridged.

SECTION 10. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to abridge the powers of the Boston transit commission under chapter seven hundred and forty-one of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and eleven, as amended by chapter three hundred and seventy-six of the Special Acts of the year nineteen hundred and fifteen; and the Boston transit commission may hereafter, upon the request of the company, and after notice and a public hearing, and subject to the approval of the public service commission in any case where such authority is to be exercised outside of the limits of the city of Boston, in connection with any stations or terminals either of existing subways and tunnels or subways and tunnels which may hereafter be constructed, provide means for a convenient interchange of passengers between any subway or tunnel and street railway lines; and for that purpose the said commission shall have in behalf of the city of Boston or the commonwealth as the case may be, all the powers conferred by said chapter seven hundred and forty-one of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and eleven, as amended by chapter three hundred and seventy-six of the Special Acts of the year nineteen hundred and fifteen: provided, however, that proper compensation shall be paid, as in the case of private land, for all public lands outside the

SECTION 11. The Boston transit commission, upon request of the company, and after notice and a public hearing, may also make such alterations in, or extension to, the East Boston tunnel as the said commission may deem necessary for the purpose of providing means for a convenient interchange of passengers between the tunnel and surface lines, or convenient transportation facilities, and to that end shall have the powers conferred upon it in connection with the construction of the East Boston tunnel, as well as those conferred by chapter seven hundred and forty-one of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and eleven, as amended by chapter three hundred and seventy-six of the Special Acts of the year nineteen hundred and fifteen: provided, that no extension of the East Boston tunnel shall be constructed under the authority hereof to a point more than two thousand feet distant from Maverick square. The cost of such alterations or extensions shall be met by bonds to be issued by the city of Boston in the same manner as the original cost of the East Boston tunnel. Before any such work is done, however, the company shall execute a lease of such alterations or extensions for a term ending with that of the lease of the said tunnel. The company shall pay to the city of Boston a rental at the rate of four and one half per cent per annum upon the net cost of such alterations or extensions, and the lease shall be in the same general form as those authorized by said chapter seven hundred and forty-one, except in so far as any other provisions may be agreed upon by the Boston transit commission and the company as specially applicable to the demised premises. The said net cost shall be determined in the manner provided in said chapter seven hundred and forty-one, and the rental shall be paid in instalments corresponding to the requirements for the payment of rental on the East Boston tunnel extension described in said act. Any alteration or extension made under this act shall be deemed a part of the East Boston tunnel.

Alterations, etc., in East
Boston tunnel

SECTION 12. Section ten of chapter five hundred of the acts of the year eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, as amended by chapter three hundred and eighty-eight of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and eight, is hereby further amended by striking out the words beginning with the word "determined", in the forty-fifth line, and ending with the word "earnings", in the fifty-fifth line, and inserting in place thereof the following:— equal to the excess, if any, of the dividends over six per cent paid by the company during that year, — and by striking out the words "board of railroad commissioners", wherever they occur in said section, and inserting in place thereof the words:— public service commission, — and by striking out the word "board", in the twenty-fourth line, and inserting in place thereof the word:— commission, — so as to read as follows:— Section 10. Said corporation may establish, and take a toll or fare, which shall not exceed the sum of five cents for a single continuous passage in the same general direction upon the roads owned, leased or operated by it; and this sum shall not be reduced by the legislature during the period of twenty-five years, from and after the passage of this act: provided, however, that the public service commission may upon the petition of the board of aldermen of a city, selectmen of a town, or fifty legal voters of a city or town, in which any of the lines owned, leased or operated by said corporation are located, after due notice and hearing the parties interested, reduce such toll or fare; but such toll or fare shall not, without the consent of said corporation, be so reduced as to yield, with all other earnings and income of said corporation, except the income of the funds deposited with the treasurer of the commonwealth as required by this act and said chapter five hundred and forty-eight, a net divisible income, after paying all expenses of operation, interest, taxes, rentals, and other lawful charges, and after charging off a reasonable amount for depreciation, of less than eight per cent per annum on the outstanding capital stock of said corporation actually paid in in cash. The report of the commission shall be final and conclusive for one year. During said period of twenty-five years no taxes or excises not at present in fact imposed upon street railways shall be imposed in respect of the lines owned, leased or operated by said corporation, other than such as may have been in fact imposed upon the lines hereafter leased or operated by it at the date of such operating contract or of such lease or agreement hereafter made therefor nor any other burden, duty or obligation which is not at the same time imposed by general law on all street railway companies: provided, however, that said corporation shall be annually assessed and shall pay taxes now or hereafter imposed by general law in the same manner as though it were a street railway company, and shall, in addition, as compensation for the privileges herein granted, and for the use and occupation of the public streets, squares and places, by the lines of elevated and surface railroad owned, leased and operated by it, pay to the commonwealth, on or before the tenth day of November in each year, during said period of twenty-five years, an annual sum, the amount of which shall, in each year ending the last day of September, be equal to the excess, if any, of the dividends over six per cent paid by the company during that year. The above sum shall be paid into the treasury of the commonwealth and distributed among the different cities and towns in proportion to the mileage of elevated and surface main track, reckoned as single track, which is owned, leased or operated by said corporation and located therein. Said corporation shall also provide free transfer from elevated to surface and from surface to elevated cars at all stations of the elevated lines reached by surface lines and from one elevated car or train to another at junction points entitling a passenger to a continuous ride in the same general direction, and such further free transfers on all the surface lines of railway owned, leased or operated by it, as may be satisfactory to or required by the public service commission.

Certain burdens, obligations, etc., not to be imposed, etc.

Proviso.

Distribution to cities and towns, etc.

Free transfers to be provided, etc.

SECTION 13. No payment under the provisions of the preceding section, shall be required of the company in respect to the year ending on the last day of September in the year nineteen hundred and seventeen, unless the annual dividends paid by the company during that year exceed six per cent.

No payment to be made for 1917, unless, etc.
